

Sieg-Warren Ceremony Held

Central Point — An event of Saturday, March 18, was the wedding of Miss Linda Caroline Warren to Carl LeRoy Sieg, held at First Methodist church, Medford. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Warren, 57 North Ninth street, Central Point, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sieg, 2624 Walden place, Medford. The double-ring ceremony was read at eight o'clock in the evening by Dr. George Roseberry, and Mr. Warren gave his daughter in marriage. Arrangements of white stock and candelabra holding white tapers decorated the church, and white bows were on the pews.

The bride's gown of white silk organza was fashioned with a billowing skirt adorned with lace inserts, and a large butterfly bow in back. Pearls outlined the neckline of the close-fitting bodice. Her chapel-length bouffant veil was also ornamented with pearls, and she carried white carnations and roses. For "something old" the bride carried her great-grandmother's bible with covers of cedars of Lebanon wood.

Miss Carol Hohnstein, Ashland, was honor attendant and bridesmaids were the Misses Rosemary White, Ashland, and Janet Ayres, Central Point. Their cotton brocade frocks of aquamarine blue were worn with matching halos and blue veiling, made by the bride and matching slippers. They carried white carnations.

Marcene and Rhonda Hoefs, Myrtle Point, Ore., cousins of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer. They wore bouffant white nylon frocks and small lace hats.

Perry Whitlock, Medford, was best man and ushers were Charles Warren, brother of the bride, and Daniel Sieg, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Charles Champlin sang, and Mrs. Leslie Boardman was the organist.

Reception Held
The reception which followed the ceremony was held at the church. The serving table, covered with a lace cloth, was decorated with blue and white carnations in keeping with the wedding colors, and these blossoms encircled the wedding cake. Mrs. Warren, Holbrook and Miss Carol Harris cut and served the cake. Mrs. Boyd Jones poured coffee and Miss Paula Meyer, the punch. Miss Joycelin Cameron was the guest book, and Mrs. Robert Hoefs, Myrtle Point, aunt of the bride, took charge of the gifts.

About 140 guests attended the wedding and reception.

The bride's mother wore a frock of beige lace over salmon pink satin. She carried beige accessories and wore a white or-lid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore beige brocade with bone white accessories and brown orchid corsage.

The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a pink wool coat, the suit with white satin hat and black patent accessories. They are at home 607 Oregon street, Apartment 1, Medford.

The bride, a graduate of Crater High school, attended the University of Oregon and Southern Oregon college. She is with the display advertising department of The Medford Mail Tribune. Mr. Sieg, a graduate of Medford High school, is a student at Southern Oregon college and is employed at Eastside market.

Grandparents Present
Among the wedding guests were the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Norris, 737 Siskiyou boulevard, Ashland, and the bridegroom's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mix, 2542 Walden place, Medford. Mr. Norris, who has lived in the valley 55 years, was mayor of Jacksonville at the time the county courthouse was moved from that town to Medford. The family moved to Ashland in 1937.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wandell and Teresa, cousins of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wandell and Lynn, uncle and aunt of the bride, all Klamath Falls; Mrs. Virginia House, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Melbye and family, Monmouth, Ore., and Robert Hoefs, Myrtle Point.

"There will be music in the air at Hillcrest Orchards on the afternoon of April 14." This promise is made by Mrs. L. Scott Ellis and Mrs. Ivan Harrington, co-chairmen of the 1981 silver tea for the benefit of the American Cancer society. The tea is an annual spring event at Hillcrest house, and is given by the Jackson County committee of the ACS.

Many valley women cooperate with the committee to make it a gala occasion. Some individuals loan personal collections or items of interest for exhibit. Women's clubs and organizations enter floral arrangements in the contest which has been the principal feature of the tea in recent years.

The addition of background music this year, to carry out the theme, "Music in the Air," will be a pleasant addition to the afternoon's entertainment, it is thought.

The public is invited to attend, and the hours will be 2 to 4:30 p.m.
