

Malones Arrive From California

Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. Larry Malone arrived here last week from San Francisco, Calif. Former residents of Medford and Gold Hill, Mr. Malone is now a member of the United States Navy.

ents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Malone, Gold Hill and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cherry, Medford.

Dudleys Honored At Party

Mr. and Mrs. James Hopkins, Trail, were hosts at a party March 16 honoring Mr. and Mrs. Athel Dudley on their 33rd wedding anniversary.

The Dudleys came to Shady Cove in 1947 to build and operate the Shady Cove Cleaners. They sold the business to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Aberg last fall and took an extended trip through the southern states. They now make their home in Port Hueneme, Calif.

While south they visited Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jones, former Shady Cove residents now living in Florida. During their visit here they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Quail, and sons.

While in Shady Cove, Mr. Dudley helped organize the local fire department and served as chief for a number of years. The couple also worked with the local Lions club and auxiliary.

Those attending the party were former employees and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stelle, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jantzer, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Hornseth, Miss Gail Wonderlick, Mrs. Helen Ducker, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Spain, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chubb, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Quail.

Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Hornseth made and decorated cakes for the party. Mrs. Spain provided table decorations.

Chapter Chooses Sponsor, Director

Mrs. John S. Day, Gold Rey, was installed sponsor and Mrs. Raymond Dallaire, Medford, director of Gamma Xi chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, in a recent ceremony at Kim's restaurant.

The ceremony followed dinner. The last meeting of the group was at the home of Mrs. Andrew DeKorle, with Mrs. Ned Starnes as co-hostess.

Plans were made for a food sale to be held soon. A hair-styling demonstration was given by Mrs. Mildred Anderson.

Couple To Wed In Spring Rites

William S. - Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Findley of Williams have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marilee Myla, to Francis A. Krouse Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Krouse Sr., Applegate.

Miss Findley is a graduate of Grants Pass high school and has been in Montrose, Colo., where she was employed as a medical-secretarial assistant to an ophthalmologist for the past two and one-half years.

Mr. Krouse, also a graduate of Grants Pass high school, attended Oregon State university before enlisting in the United States Army Medical corps. He spent a portion of his enlistment overseas in Germany, and was discharged from the service in February of this year.

The couple plans to be married later this spring.

Ramona Lavon Grubbs Wed To Richard Lehnert

Central Point - Miss Ramona Lavon Grubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grubbs, 2678 Beall lane, Central Point, became the bride of Richard Allen Lehnert, Prospect, in a home ceremony held March 18 in Eagle Point.

The Rev. George G. Roseberry of the First Methodist church, Medford, officiated at the four o'clock afternoon rites attended by 55 relatives and friends. The double ring ceremony was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bigham, Eagle Point.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lehnert, Falls City, Ore.

Pink carnations and stephanotis decorated the home for the wedding. Miss Omega Spaur played the organ wedding music.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white bowknot lace fashioned with scoop neckline outlined with pearls and elbow length sleeves. A pearl cap held her elbow length veil and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds encircling a white orchid. Mr. Grubbs gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Helen Bullis Leaves for East

Miss Helen Bullis, 15 Florence avenue, left Thursday for Washington, D.C. where she will visit her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Parsons in Falls Church, Va.

Miss Bullis will also visit in North Carolina and New York prior to returning to Medford in late April.

Kiwanian Dames To Hold Luncheon

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. E. R. Hoppe, Mrs. H. Candler Drew, Mrs. B. E. Budge and Mrs. Eugene G. Ray.

All wives of Kiwanis members are invited to attend.

daughter in marriage.

Miss Sanna Craig, Medford, was maid of honor and Miss Bonnie Grubbs, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore pink peau de soie frocks with white hats and pink veils and slippers. They carried bouquets of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Miss Mary Stuart lighted the candles. Deeded to Oceanlake and along Ore., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Delvert, Corvallis; James Taylor, and Theodore Dibban, both Falls City.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed, Mrs. Grubbs wore a beige and white silk dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Lehnert chose a gray lace over pink with pink accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

Mrs. George Anrheim cut and served the wedding cake assisted by Miss Barbara Nichols. Miss Jane Grubbs, sister of the bride, Klamath Falls, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Robert Lamb poured coffee. Assisting with the serving were Miss Katherine Stuart and Miss Margaret Lamb.

The newlywed couple traveled by Olson-Lawyer the coast to Portland on their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a pink box suit with matching accessories. They are making their home in Eagle Point. The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and is a stenographer with the Oregon state employment office. Mr. Lehnert attended Moses Lake, Wash., High school and is employed by Olson - Sawyer Lumber company.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Lehnert, Falls City, parents of the bridegroom; J. A. Johnson, Portland, grandfather of the bridegroom; Mrs. Robert Lehnert, Valselt, Ore.; Mrs. Alfred Steele, Weiser, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hallmark, Reno, Nev.

Murphy Families Travel

Murphy - School vacation was the signal for many Murphy residents to do some traveling.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Garner, and their three children, Susie, Joanne, and Johnny, visited friends in Orland and Chico, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Palmer, and their children, Peggy, Alice and Johnny, went to Portland where they visited Mrs. Palmer's mother. Their older daughter, Donna, who was graduated from high school last year, is attending beauty college in Portland and makes her home with her grandmother during the school year.

Also traveling to Portland were the Robert Scott family of Northside road in Murphy. They visited friends while there and took the children to the zoo and other points of interest.

Two Families

Arriving unexpectedly at the same destination, Death Valley, were two Murphy families. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sakralda and their sons, Michael and Mark, spent the week there, and met Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gillespie and their sons who, with their trailer house, had been visiting in the area for two weeks.

The Gillespies had traveled to Las Vegas first, visiting Boulder Dam while en route, and had then been joined by Mr. Gillespie's mother who lives in New Mexico. She made the rest of the trip with them and has returned to Murphy with them for a visit. Among the points of interest they visited while in the area were the famous Scotty's Castle, the Moale canyon, and the Golden Cathedral.

To Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Maphet, and their daughter, Cecilia, made a two-day shopping trip to Portland. On their return home, Mrs. Maphet's parents, the C. W. Crumps from California, who had been visiting here for some time, left for home. In the week immediately preceding this trip, Mr. and Mrs. Max Maphet made a ten-day trip to Seattle, and on to British Columbia.
