12 Members of Family Believed Victims of Fire

Clarksville, Tenn. —(UPI)—All 12 members of a family of "fine neighbors" are believed to have died in a fire which razed their five-room farm home early today.

Authorities said eight bodies were found in the ruins of the home and officers were searching for others. Cause of the fire was not known.

Officials said apparently no one discovered the blaze in time to rescue any members of the family, ranging in age from 9 months to 61 years.

Family Identified

Friends and relatives said they thought it unlikely any of the large family was away from home when the blaze hit between 3:30 a.m. and 5 a.m. today.

Members of the family were identified as Alex Whitehead, 31, his wife, Dorothy, 29, and their children, Jane, 13; Roger, 12; James, 11; Patricia, 10; Diane, 9; Carolyn, 8; Sarah, 4; Wayne, 3; and Johnny, 9 months.

Mrs. Whitehead's father, Albert Gibbs, about 61, was also listed as a victim.

FINDS NEW MARKET

Chicago —(UPI)—Horse collars have made their way back into mail order catalogs because city folk want them. A Montgomery Ward & Co. spokesman said many city dwellers who never see a horse except on TV are using the collars for framing mirrors and pictures.

"More horse collars are sold to city folk for basement recreation rooms than to farmers for horses," the spokesman said.

jeopardize any chance of getting her husband back.

Word of her husband's illness and the invitation to visit Red China were transmitted to Mrs. McCann through the Communist Chinese Embassy in Warsaw.

Her husband is one of five Americans still held prisoner by the Communist Chinese.

Woman Goes Into Red China To Seek Release of Husband

Hong Kong —(UPI)—A sad but hopeful American woman journeyed alone into Red China tonight to see her imprisoned husband, possibly for the last time.

Shortly before she crossed the Sino-British border, Mrs. Robert E. McCann said she would plead with leaders of the Red regime to permit her to take her cancer-stricken husband back to their home in Pasadena, Calif.

Sentenced as Spy

McCann, who was reported dying in a Shanghai prison, was arrested in Tientsin, China, June 14, 1951, and sentenced to serve 15 years in prison as a "spy."

His worried wife, trying hard to retain her composure, said: "I'm very satisfied. I've waited for nine years. Now I feel I can do something."

Mrs. McCann said she did not know how long she would stay in Communist China. She added she did not know how serious her husband's illness was, but that she had been informed that he cannot live very long.

"But they (the Communist Chinese) can be wrong," she said. The distraught woman turned around once and waved weakly at the American Consulate and International Red Cross officials before vanishing into the dark night into Communist Chinese territory.

Worry Evident

It was believed she was being met on the other side of Communist officials.

Up to the last minute, Mrs. McCann tried hard to sound cheerful and optimistic, but it was evident she was worried.

Last Sunday, Mrs. McCann refused to talk with newsmen because she feared she would
