Hedrick Junior High—Oboe solo by Mary Stong, clarinet solo by Kathy Foley, clarinet solo by Karen Foley, saxophone solo by Philip Frohnmayer, saxophone solo by Bob Edwards, cornet solo by David Doty, baritone solo by Melvin Taylor, tuba solo by Jack Reavis, piano solo by Tom Schoppert, seventh and eighth grade clarinet quartet, eighth and ninth grade clarinet quartet, brass sextet, seventh grade string quartet, eighth grade string ensemble, and the ninth grade string ensemble.

Art Linkletter Wins Court Suit

Los Angeles—UPI—A Superior court jury ruled in favor of Art Linkletter Tuesday to support his claim actress Joan Whitfield was truly hypnotized and not pretending on his "People are Funny" TV show.

Mrs. Madeline Dykes, 30, a former roommate of Miss Whitfield, sought $10,000 in the trial, saying that amount had been promised by Linkletter and producer John Guedel to anyone proving the hypnotism stunt was false.

The jury vote was 10-2 in rejecting her suit. A three-fourths majority is all that is needed in civil cases for a verdict.

Mrs. Dykes claimed Miss Whitfield told her after the Feb. 1, 1958, show she was just pretending but the actress denied making such a statement when she testified.

CHERRY TREES BLOOM

Washington—UPI—Washington's famed Japanese cherry trees bloomed into full springtime glory today and chances looked good for the annual Cherry Blossom Festival next week. The National Park Service, which keeps a close watch on the blossoms, predicted they would reach their peak Easter Sunday.

McLoughlin Junior High—Saxophone quartet, cornet solo by Jo Thornton, sousaphone solo by Gary Clark, tenor sax solo by Janet Lee, cornet solo by Terry Bowles, baritone solo by Ricard Johnston, and string quartet number one.

Good Ratings
McLoughlin Junior High—Horn quartet, horn duet, cello solo by Susan Fox and the string quartet number two.

Judges for the event included Ed Cykler, woodwinds, University of Oregon; Ted Mesang, woodwinds, Oregon State university; Maurice Brennan, brasses and percussion, Willamette university; Jerome Jelinek, strings, University of Oregon; Exine Bailey, vocal, University of Oregon; and Rae Fetherstonbaugh, brasses.

Mirick pointed out that there is just "the one contest" competition is held. The as far north as Roseburg and each year, and no state-wide southern Oregon area extends east to Lakeview.

War II Plane Wreckage Located

Port Moresby, New Guinea — UPI — The wreckage of a United States World War II C-47 transport with 14 bodies was found Tuesday by ground crews searching through the central highlands of New Guinea for a light plane missing since last week, it was reported today.

Reports from the search crews said the fuselage of the C-47 was almost intact and the remains of the men were found inside. A jeep found in the plane was reported as being "in almost perfect condition."

The searchers also stumbled on the wreckage of an Australian World War II Boomerang fighter plane with its dead pilot still at the controls.

California Coast Seashore Urged

Washington — UPI — Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall urged Congress Tuesday to act speedily to preserve the Point Reyes Peninsula on the California coast as a National Seashore.

"It is now a race between subdividers and those who would preserve a few of these remaining natural areas for the health, inspiration and enjoyment of the people of the United States and, more important, those who follow us," Udall said in an appearance before the Senate subcommittee on public lands.

The subcommittee hearings were on a bill to establish the Point Reyes National Seashore about 30 miles northwest of San Francisco.

Medford Girls Are Listed on Honor Roll

Portland — Two Medford coeds were among the 72 students named on the fall honor roll at Lewis and Clark college here. Requirements for the honor roll listing are a minimum of 15 hours and a 3.5 grade point average or better.

Those named included Anne Matthews, 601 Dakota ave., and Melva Gebhard, Medford. Miss Matthews, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Matthews, is a freshman. Miss Gebhard, a senior history major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gebhard.
