Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Inger Jr.

Eagle Point Rites Wed Miss McElvany, Roy Inger

Eagle Point—Miss Ona Jean McElvany, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Garrison, 512 South B street, became the bride of Roy Edward Inger Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Inger Sr., Marion, Iowa, in a ceremony held March 23. The Rev. Warren L. Christensen of Eagle Point Community Bible church performed the wedding in the home of the bride's parents at eight o'clock in the evening.
Miss Barbara Lacy and Dalton Quackenbush played the accordion and Mrs. Kenneth Oswald sang. A trellis with greenery and blossoms was constructed by Mrs. Clarence Sinclair and Mrs. LeRoy Beddingfield to provide a setting for the ceremony. A small number of friends and relatives attended.
The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Garrison, wore a ballerina length pink lace gown and carried a white Bible with a white orchid. Her hat was of pink flowers.
Miss Carolyn Sinclair was maid of honor. She wore a light blue ballerina-length gown with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.
Airman Charles Pike, El Centro, Calif., served as best man and John Spiess, Medford, acted as groomsmen.
The bride's mother wore a light blue dress-suit and a corsage of red and white carnations.
The bride's parents were hosts for the reception which followed. Mrs. Spiess served the cake and Miss DeLena Spiess poured punch.
Following the reception the young couple traveled to El Centro, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Air Force. They will make their home there. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories.
The bride attended Central Union High school, El Centro. The bridegroom is an airman with the Air Force.

Mrs. Keene Jr. Elected County Council PTA Head

Mrs. Chester Keene Jr. was elected president of the Jackson County Council, Parent-Teachers association for the 1961-62 school year, at a meeting held Wednesday at the Roky Ann Grange hall. She is a member of the Lone Pine and Hedrick school PTA units.
Mrs. William G. Travis, Ruch, was elected vice-president; Mrs. Rodney Merriman, Ashland, and Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry, Eagle Point were elected area vice-presidents; Mrs. S. J. Fagone, Medford, McLoughlin unit, was re-elected secretary and Mrs. David Bergren, Shady Cove, was re-elected treasurer.
Mrs. William Selbert is the retiring president.
Mrs. John Boe, Grants Pass, and Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers by-laws chairman, talked on "Is Your PTA Flourishing?" She urged that local units "sell" PTA by stressing the purposes and objectives of the association in programming. The objectives of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers are to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community; to raise the standards of home life; to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth; to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child; and to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.
Mrs. Tom Ness, Jackson County council legislation chairman, explained Senate bill 408, which, if passed, would require 25 per cent of the registered voters to vote on a school bond election. She stated that by staying away from the polls a bond election could be defeated. A resolution was passed to send a telegram to the senate taxation committee hearing that the Jackson County council recommended the defeat of this bill.

Students Return From Hornbrook

Hornbrook—Miss Shirley Moffatt and her roommate, Miss Pearl Hasegawa, returned Sunday to Southern Oregon college at Ashland after spending the week between terms here at the home of Miss Moffatt's parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Wayne Cummins.
During their vacation, the girls accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Cummins on a trip to Happy Camp, where they called on Mr. and Mrs. Glen Robertson, who recently sold their ranch here. Mr. Robertson is now manager of Dr. George Chambers' cattle ranch there, and Mrs. Robertson is operating a beauty parlor.

Jacksonville—Fifty-year members of Adarel chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will be honored at a meeting Thursday, April 6, in the Masonic temple. It will begin at 8 p.m.
Refreshments will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reed and Mr. and Mrs. William Coghill. Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Gardner, worthy patron and matron, will preside.

Meeting

Plans for the annual observance of National Coin Week will be made at a meeting of Rogue Valley Coin club Monday at 8 p.m. in Girls Community club.

'Our Town' April 7, 8 SOC Players to Give

Ashland—"Our Town," a modern American theater classic, will be presented by the Southern Oregon College Players, April 7 and 8 in the Churchill Hall auditorium on the college campus.
The play is the first of two productions planned for spring term and is under the direction of Angus Bowmer, SOC professor of drama.
"Our Town" was written by Thornton Wilder, author of the novel, "The Bridge of San Luis Rey."
The play, produced without a stage setting, takes place in a New England town at the beginning of the twentieth century and surveys the happenings common to people of every town—love, marriage, and death.
Serving as the focal point of the play is the stage manager. The author has created a part which requires the actor to suggest the scene, play many small parts, and reveal the plot. Dave O'Donahue, Klamath Falls, will appear in this role.
The plot concerns itself with two young people who discover their love for each other, and eventually marry. Appearing as the young woman, Emily, will be Miss Diana Fletcher, Ashland. Maynard Wilson will appear as George, Emily's husband.
Also appearing in the production are Byron Romanger, Rosemary White, Sid Smith, Larry Barleen, Marsha Minshall, Bill Strong, George Converse, Mel Beatty, Billy Whorton, Mike Watt, Monya Dorman, and Willis Williams.
"Our Town" won the Pulitzer prize in 1935.
Mrs. Dennis Becker, 415 Summit street, was honored recently at a shower given by Mrs. Charles Nevi, Ashland, and Mrs. Emil Knutson, Medford. Mrs. Knutson's home was decorated with pink and blue for the event and a three-tiered multi-colored cake centered the table. Fourteen guests attended.

PTA Program To Include Music; Officer Election

"Music, music, music!" will be the theme of the program at the April 6 meeting of the Griffin Creek Parent-Teachers association.
Providing the entertainment will be the school band and the fifth and sixth grade chorus. The band is under the direction of Steven Whipple. Solos and other numbers will be featured as well as songs from the entire band.
The chorus, directed by Miss Pat Leek, will present several musical selections.
There will be election of PTA officers for the coming year. The voting will be by secret ballot.
Refreshments will be served at the social hour following the meeting by the mothers of pupils in Mrs. Charlotte Stearns' room with Mrs. Paul Vincent and Mrs. Martin Burke in charge.
The Thursday meeting will be held at 7:45 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Noon Luncheon Set for Monday

Members of the Carnation club of the Degree of Honor Protective association will meet for a 12 o'clock luncheon Monday, April 3, at the home of Mrs. Susie Johnson, 213 Beatty street.
The Past Presidents club will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 4, at the home of Mrs. Frank Gleaves, 1170 West McAndrews road, with Mrs. Ina Phillips as co-hostess.
Drill team practice is scheduled for 7 p.m., Wednesday, April 5, at Washington school gymnasium.

Visits With Parents

Hornbrook—Miss Mary Lee Rutledge, a student at Chico State college, is spending a week between terms here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rutledge, and Ann, David and John.

Nephew, Wife Visit

Hornbrook—Visiting briefly Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marshall Horn were Mr. and Mrs. David Roberts, Sacramento. Mr. Roberts is a nephew of the late Marshall Horn.

Chapter Takes 'Trip' To Homes During Party

The new exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority held a rush party Monday when members and guests attended a "passport to paradise" progressive dinner. The "trip" took place as a cruise to many lands.
New rushees and members met at the home of Mrs. Howard Mitchell, where they were served the French theme with wine. They continued in a bus to the German main course and salad at the home of Mrs. Irving Thompson, followed by a Dutch dessert and games. The cruise ended at the home of Mrs. Richard Knoll. She was assisted by Mrs. Wayne Turpin.
Mrs. Walter Larsen assisted Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. Donald Lue won a prize for high game score.
Guests were the Mesdames Tom Shoop, Ernest Flakus, Ronald Hall, David Legg, Fred Wilson and Donald Lue.

If draperies are lined they look better from the outside of the house, they hang better, the fabric is protected from the sun, and they look more professional.
