Easter Fun!

By Ragna Eskil

Fill a lightweight corrugated box with Easter eggs and chocolate rabbits wrapped in cellophane. Close the top but don't seal it. Hang the box in a wide doorway or suspend it from the ceiling in your recreation room. Players are blindfolded, and with a stick or lightweight bat they take turns trying to break the box. When it's broken, all scramble for the eggs and rabbits and the one with the winning hit gets a big rabbit. Have fun!

Let's Draw a Rabbit

By Ann Davidow

Draw a funny letter "D,"
With a base wide that you see.

A pointed egg perches atop.
Be careful now. Don't let it drop.

Add ears and tail and lines for legs.
A bunny rabbit sits and begs.

And we who can't resist his plea
Give him a carrot joyfully.

Easter Dot Puzzle

By Bess Livings Lee

A gay little fellow,
Fluffy and yellow,
You'll find in the dots below.
He spends, as a rule,
All day in the pool,
Because he enjoys it so.

To find this little fellow, draw a line from dot to dot with a pencil or crayon, following the numbers and joining the last number to No. 1.

If you would like to see the finished picture without the numbers, connect the dots on tracing paper held over the drawing, then trace in the rest and color it.
