

Installation Conducted For Post and Auxiliary

Mrs. Henry Weber was installed as president of the auxiliary to Crater Lake post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in ceremonies April 4 at the VFW hall. Mrs. Ira Canfield was installing officer. New officers for the past also were installed at the meeting.

Other women installed were Mrs. Russell Johnson, senior vice-president; Mrs. Richard Schulz, junior vice-president; Mrs. Fred Lawrence, chaplain; Mrs. Ivan Lusk, conductress; Mrs. O. O. DeBerry, assistant conductress; Mrs. Canfield, treasurer; Mrs. Russell Zundel, secretary; Mrs. E. G. Heim, guard; Mrs. Ben Allison, historian; Mrs. Earnest Card, musician; and Mrs. Ralph Pittcock, Mrs. J. D. Brummond, Mrs. B. B. Ramsey and Mrs. Louis Kula, color guards.

Preceding the installation, the auxiliary officers conducted a dedication ceremony for the new 50-star flag and banner.

Mrs. DeBerry, who completed her second term as president, having served in that office ten years ago, was presented a check and a bouquet of pink and white roses from officers and members. The bouquet held hidden "heart's desire" monies.

Mrs. Canfield presented Mrs. DeBerry her 25-year continuous membership pin and Mrs. DeBerry gave gifts to the officers who had served with her. She first joined the auxiliary in 1938 in Detroit Lakes, Minn.

Post officers installed by Ira Canfield, past local commander and department commander, were Harold Sutherland, commander; William Harper, senior vice-commander; Glen Loomer, junior vice-commander; Louis Kula, quartermaster; Mr. Canfield, chaplain; Ivan Lusk, sergeant; Ed Smith, adjutant; Ray Lawless, officer of the day; Richard Schulz, post advocate; and Victor David, service officer.

Outgoing commander, Victor David, was presented a commander's pin, and he and Mr. Sutherland, the new commander, gave potted azaleas to Mrs. DeBerry and Mrs. Weber.

Mrs. Zundel and her committee served refreshments. A cake decorated by Mrs. Mary Parker was auctioned and the $15 from the sale was added to the auxiliary cancer fund.

Guests at the event included Col. Theodore Hopkins, national chairman of the Eaton Rapids, Mich., children's home, and Mrs. Hopkins, Rogue River. Mrs. Hopkins is national western regional council member of the auxiliary.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoppe, Lozier lane; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Turner, Mrs. Melum Preston and Mrs. Marie Bowling, Del Rogue post and auxiliary, Grants Pass; Mrs. J. Bobrowske, Rogue River; Mr. and Mrs. Reed McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Krotz, Mrs. Dale Sawyer, Mrs. Phillip Holt and Mrs. Tom Merit, Shady Cove Steelhead post and auxiliary; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crosslin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rodgers, Mrs. Tom Lafferty, Mrs. Blanche Hoffman, Mrs. L. O'Tool, Mrs. Iva Blackwell, Mrs. Albert Wolber, Mrs. B. K. Riggs, Mrs. Vivian Misenheimer and Mrs. James Conklin, Ashland post and auxiliary.

The next auxiliary meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. April 18 in the VFW hall.

Post officers installed by

Ira Canfield, past local commander and department commander, were Harold Sutherland, commander; William Harper, senior vice-commander; Glen Loomer, junior vice-commander; Louis Kula, quartermaster; Mr. Canfield, chaplain; Ivan Lusk, sergeant; Ed Smith, adjutant; Ray Lawless, officer of the day; Richard Schulz, post advocate; and Victor David, service officer.

Outgoing commander, Victor David, was presented a

Local Artist One of Trio In Exhibit

Eugene Bennett, Medford artist, is one of a trio of Oregon artists whose one-man exhibitions will open soon in the Museum of Art at the University of Oregon, Eugene. Mr. Bennett and the two other artists will be honored at a preview and reception at the museum April 10 from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Others to be honored are Miss Ruth D. Grover, Roads End, Ore., exhibiting water colors, encaustics and mixed media, and Robert James, member of the faculty of the school of architecture and allied arts at the University, who is exhibiting ceramics.

Members of the Junior Service League of Eugene are planning the reception. The exhibition of works of the three artists will open with regular hours of the museum at 1 p.m. Tuesday, April 11, and continue through Sunday, May 7. The museum is open daily, except Monday, from 1 to 5 p.m., including Saturday and Sunday, and is also open Wednesday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m.

Mr. Bennett will exhibit a total of 23 oils and works of mixed media. Other exhibitions in which he has participated include the Art Institute of Chicago, Baltimore Museum of Modern Art, Brooklyn Museum, Society of Chicago Artists, National Watercolor shows at Jackson, Miss., Michigan State college, Museum of Modern Art at Newport, R.I., Ohio State university, Art Workshop gallery in Chicago, California Palace of the Legion of Honor, and many others throughout the country.

The local artist was represented by two paintings in the recent invitation exhibition Northwest Painters, 1961, shown recently at the University Museum of Art.

The Eugene reception is open to the public, with a special invitation extended to friends of the artists.

Episcopal Guild To Meet Monday

The April meeting of St. Catherine's guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church will be held Monday, April 1, at 8 p.m. in the Parish house.

Those attending are to bring scissors and staplers to work on items for the spring card party which will be held May 9. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Lola Clark, Mrs. Oma Whipple and Mrs. Mary Woodward.

To Meet Monday

The April meeting of Jackson County Retired Teachers association will be held at Bellview Grange hall at 12:30 p.m. Monday, April 10. A no-host luncheon will be served.

Mrs. C. J. Baughman and Mrs. Alice Willis are in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. John North, guardian, announced that bethel members desiring transportation to friendship night at Central Point April 18 should call her not later than April 17. Mr. Eri, associate guardian, announced plans for a rummage sale to be held when sufficient rummage has been collected.

Refreshments were served by Camille Eri, Connie Schuler, Julie Marble, Karen Smith, Cheri Brownell and their mothers.

Pvt. and Mrs. W. Clark Smith (Lomax photo)

Smith-Nelson Marriage Held in Ashland Church

Ashland-Miss Dana Undine Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Nelson, 259 Bridge street, became the bride of Pvt. W. Clark Smith, United States Marine Corps, in a ceremony Easter Sunday, April 2, at Grace Lutheran church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard J. Smith, 1764 Lit Way.

Over 100 persons attended the double-ring ceremony, which was performed at four o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Albert Nickodemus. Miss Billie Kay Mearns was organist and Miss Lenise Christopher was soloist.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin, styled with a princess bodice, scalloped sweetheart neckline, fitted three-quarter-length sleeves and a ballerina-length bouffant skirt. Her illusion veil was held by a lace cap trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis with a white Bible, and also wore a single-strand pearl necklace of cultured pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mr. Nelson gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Judy Gamble, Ashland, who was maid of honor, wore a pastel blue brocaded sheath with matching short jacket. She carried pink carnations and wore a hat of miniature pastel flowers on blue net.

Brahm Woodell was best man. Ushers were Randy Nelson, brother of the bride, who lighted candles, and Thomas J. Parker Jr.

Women of the Lutheran guild gave a reception in the parish hall following the wedding. Large white bells, satin bows and greenery decorated the room. Crystal candleholders owned by Mrs. Anna Hibner, grandmother of the bride, and a three-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table. Miss Leona Martin and Miss Mearns served cake, punch and coffee.

Miss Patricia Childreth and Miss Vickie Sessions were in charge of the guest book and gifts.

The newlyweds traveled to the Oregon coast on their honeymoon, the bride wearing for travel a teal blue knit suit with white pillbox hat, pearlized shoes and bag, and a white carnation corsage.

The bride is a senior at Ashland High school and the bridegroom was graduated from that school in 1951. He is to report to jet aviation mechanics school in Memphis, Tenn., following his present leave.

Auxiliary Has Election

New officers of the Crater Lions auxiliary were elected at a meeting April 5 at the home of the president, Mrs. Earl Richardson, 2133 Crater Lake avenue.

Mrs. Robert Hays will be the new president; Mrs. David DeArmond, first vice-president; Mrs. Wayne Saffley, second vice-president; Mrs. William Ferris, treasurer; Mrs. Dan Dwyer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Marvin Hart, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack Ingram, lion tamer, Mrs. Ellis Feinstein, Mrs. Edward McFarland, and Mrs. Murray Dumas, directors.

Plans for the coming Lions state convention to be held in Roseburg May 18-20 were discussed.

Townsend Auxiliary To Hold Cake Day

The Townsend Club auxiliary will observe "cake day" at its meeting Wednesday, April 12, at the Knights of Pythias hall. Members meet each second and fourth Wednesday at the hall.

The Easy Valley Harmonaires orchestra will play dance music following the business session. Visitors are welcome to all meetings of the club.

Eighty-five members and three visitors, including Mrs. Bessie Randall, Smith River, Calif., attended the last meeting.

Historic Articles Loaned For Cancer Society Event

A century-old leather bound volume of sheet music has been offered for exhibit at the coming Cancer Society tea by Mrs. H. H. Chapman of Hornbrook, Calif. The Civil War volume was the property of Mrs. Sarah P. Saxton-Heager, a first cousin of President McKinley's wife.

Offers to loan music and old or unusual instruments are still being received by the co-chairmen of the silver tea, Mrs. L. Scott Ellis and Mrs. Ivan Harrington. Recent additions to the exhibits include bagpipes and African instruments, unpublished music, and a group of delicate Dresden figurines. Hillcrest house will be filled with displays of beauty and interest, each pertaining to the theme of the 1961 tea, "Music in the Air."

The silver tea will be held Friday, April 14, from 4:30 p.m. Flowers will decorate the corners of the big house at Hillcrest, and the blooming pear trees of surrounding orchards will add beauty to the vista. The Cancer Society tea is an annual social event, given by the Medford committee, for the benefit of the American Cancer society.

Once again this year, the contest for floral arrangements will be entered by many valley organizations and clubs. Talented women will submit arrangements for the groups to which they belong, and the winning entries will be chosen by the vote of guests at the tea. This year, tables may include china and glassware, in addition to the arrangement of flowers.

Honored guests who have been asked to pour at the 1961 tea are Miss Elizabeth Burr, Mrs. Orval Eaton, Mrs. Earl Lawson, Mrs. George Flanagan, Mrs. Raymond Reter, Mrs. Thomas Tinsley, Mrs. John Snider, Sister Luke, Mrs. Frank Preston and Mrs. Jack Sanborn. The public is invited to attend.

"Years Between" Party Is Given

A group of women gathered at the home of Mrs. W. B. Hickman, 539 North Holly street March 28, for an evening of "years between" talk. The guests were members of the Medford high school class of 1946.

Mrs. Jean Hartig, one of the class members, now living in Garberville, Calif., was here with her two children to spend the Easter week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hickman.

Mrs. Joe Deenin and Mrs. Hickman were co-hostesses for the evening.

Report Set By Uniform Committee

A meeting of St. Mary's Grade School Parents' club will be held Monday, April 10, at 8 p.m. and officers are urging all parents who possibly can to be present.

The meeting will take place in the activities room on the second floor of the school.

The findings of the uniform committee, which met recently with uniform company representatives, will be reported and a recommended new uniform will be displayed for all parents to inspect. A final decision on the uniform question will be made at this meeting.

Members will also have an opportunity to hear a progress report on the new St. Mary High school from a panel of parish committee members. A question and answer period will follow the report.

Other business scheduled for the meeting includes the selection of a nominating committee to name a panel of candidates for the May 1 election of officers.

Mrs. Robert Whipple, Mrs. Peter Orr and Mrs. Cecil Read, assisted by mothers from the seventh and eighth grade rooms of Sister Inez Joan and Sister Francis Marion, will be in charge of the social hour following the business session.

Members will also have an opportunity to hear a progress report on the new St. Mary High school from a panel of parish committee members. A question and answer period will follow the report.

Other business scheduled for the meeting includes the selection of a nominating committee to name a panel of candidates for the May 1 election of officers.

Mrs. Robert Whipple, Mrs. Peter Orr and Mrs. Cecil Read, assisted by mothers from the seventh and eighth grade rooms of Sister Inez Joan and Sister Francis Marion, will be in charge of the social hour following the business session.

Members will also have an opportunity to hear a progress report on the new St. Mary High school from a panel of parish committee members. A question and answer period will follow the report.

Other business scheduled for the meeting includes the selection of a nominating committee to name a panel of candidates for the May 1 election of officers.

Mrs. Robert Whipple, Mrs. Peter Orr and Mrs. Cecil Read, assisted by mothers from the seventh and eighth grade rooms of Sister Inez Joan and Sister Francis Marion, will be in charge of the social hour following the business session.

Members will also have an opportunity to hear a progress report on the new St. Mary High school from a panel of parish committee members. A question and answer period will follow the report.

Other business scheduled for the meeting includes the selection of a nominating committee to name a panel of candidates for the May 1 election of officers.

Mrs. Robert Whipple, Mrs. Peter Orr and Mrs. Cecil Read, assisted by mothers from the seventh and eighth grade rooms of Sister Inez Joan and Sister Francis Marion, will be in charge of the social hour following the business session.

Members will also have an opportunity to hear a progress report on the new St. Mary High school from a panel of parish committee members. A question and answer period will follow the report.

Other business scheduled for the meeting includes the selection of a nominating committee to name a panel of candidates for the May 1 election of officers.

Girl Scouts To Present Puppet Show

Girl Scout Troop 193 will present a three-act puppet show entitled "Why Be A Dropout" for all the Brownies and Scouts at Jackson school, Tuesday, April 11, at 4 p.m., in the gymnasium. This play was first given for the Oakdale Neighborhood March 9, prior to Girl Scout Week.

The girls made their puppets of paper-mache and have dressed them to represent Scouts and Guides from around the world.

Girls representing Mexico will be Kathy Taylor and Barbara Lilly; Guides from Liechtenstein are Mayde Lu Mills and Karen Perkins. The puppets dressed to represent India will be handled by Teresa Wilkins and Rhonda Davis; dolls dressed in the native dress of South India will be operated by Janice Mason and Kathy Wilkins.

Guides from Italy that will discuss their badge work will be Vickie Webster and Gwen Smith; the Guides from Great Britain portrayed by Sandra Poirier and Janice Nash will talk about the Air, Sea, and Land Rangers.

Dressed in yellow, and speaking on the work of the Guides from Brazil will be Carol Templeman and Gail Smith.

Dressed like the doll puppets, and marching in the formation of the Girl Scout emblem, the troop will march in the Pear Blossom parade on Saturday, April 8.

Thursday, April 6, the puppets were shown to the Scout council meeting in Grants Pass; the girls were unable to attend, but the dolls and the script of the play was discussed.

Troop 193 is planning a heritage hike to Jacksonville soon; while there they will visit the historical museum. This is participation in the Girl Scout "Birthday Years Trail."

Priscilla Circle To Hear Missionary

Talent - John Kunkle will speak concerning his missionary work in Bolivia at a meeting of Priscilla circle of Talent Methodist church Tuesday, April 11, in the church annex. He will also show pictures illustrating his work.

Families and friends of circle members are issued a special invitation to attend the meeting. Dessert and coffee will be served.

Session Tuesday

Women's Fellowship of the First Baptist church will hold their regular monthly social and business meeting at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 11.

Dessert will be furnished by Ruth circle members, Mrs. Mary Landers, chairman, Mrs. John Mitchell will have devotionals and Mrs. Clarence Wilson is program chairman. Her topic will be the story of Muhammad and Islam. This is a story of the Islam religion.

Masonic 'Dads' Drawn By Girls

Jacksonville - Warren assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, drew names for their secret Masonic dad at a meeting Monday evening, April 3. Ralph Lue, a thirty-third degree Mason, was escorted and introduced.

The first letter from the assembly's "grandmother" at Forest Grove home was read. Mrs. Ralph Johnson presented the group with the worthy advisor's rainbow crown and placed it on the head of Worthy Advisor Mary Beth Housel.

The program for the grand assembly in June was read by Janice Amstrong, recorder. Miss Housel announced a practice session to be held Saturday afternoon, April 15, in preparation for initiation of candidates at the April 17 meeting.

WES

Pearson JEWELER

Phone SP 2-9392 - 9 South Central

Starfire

DIAMOND RINGS

INTERLOCKING RING SETS

Starfire - spectacular in brilliance! The Engagement and Wedding Rings are locked together in perfect position on your finger. In many styles at popular prices.

Rings enlarged to show details. Prices include Federal Tax.

"Your Exclusive Keepsake Diamond Dealer"

$200.00 Engagement Ring

Wedding Ring $109.50

EASY CREDIT TERMS

Burelson's

Downtown Medford

... to shape your gown

the Merry Widow

Warner's

latest...greatest

Revel in Warner's lightest, loveliest Merry Widow - with an easy zip front. All-new miracle fabrics shape you in a way that's positively wicked...whittle your waist to the barest minimum, lift bosom to a softly rounded line.

And the back is oh-so (flatteringly) LOW! Take your choice of Angel White, or Siren Black.

13-08: A, B, or C cup...$16.50

*Lacy zip-up front of DuPont® new Antron® absorbent nylon; low, low elastic back of DuPont's new Lycra® spandex with nylon-polyester covering and fill.

Remember, if it's not by Warner's® it's not a Merry Widow

Two Graduate Corsetieres To Serve You!

Main and Bartlett Streets

Phone SP 2-6428

Mrs. Ames Elected

Officers for the coming year were elected at the last meeting of Alpha Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, held at the home of Mrs. Richard Frey, 109 South Orange street.

Elected were Mrs. Harold Ames, president; Mrs. Richard Frey, first vice-president; Mrs. Eugene Garner, second vice-president; Mrs. Richard Card, recording secretary; Mrs. Harris Ross, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Watkins, treasurer; and Mrs. Ray Jones and Mrs. Willard Chin, city council representatives.

The program was presented by Mrs. Ernest Flakus.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostesses, Mrs. Harris Ross and Mrs. Floyd Eastwood.

Other recent chapter events include a meeting to wrap cancer bandages for the American Cancer society and a "Teen-Party." Both events were held at the Eastwood home, 940 Shafer lane. Seventeen couples attended the party and midnight buffet.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Polski, 1501 Lenora avenue, Tuesday, April 11, at 8 p.m.

Bethel 69 Holds Friendship Night

Friendship night was held by Bethel 69, International Order of Job's Daughters, at the Masonic temple April 8.

Escorted and introduced were Jane Ward, honored queen of Bethel 55, Medford; Barbara Morton, honored queen of Bethel 14, Medford; past honored queen Janet Turner, Bethel 69; senior princess Janet Hobbs of Bethel 38, Central Point; junior princess Laura Rupert of Bethel 14, Medford; Vicki Ann Ingram, grand Bethel representative to New Mexico; L. R. Manning, associate grand guardian of the grand guardian council of Oregon; Mrs. C. D. Elhart, past grand guardian and past guardian of Bethels 14 and 22; and John Featherstone, associate guardian of Bethel 55.

Introduced were Morris Boughner, worthy grand patron of the grand chapter of OES of Oregon and associate guardian of Bethel 14; and Scottish Rite members Wallace Eri, Fred Purdin, Henry Guss and Mr. Boughner.

Mrs. John North, guardian, announced that Bethel members desiring transportation to friendship night at Central Point April 18 should call her not later than April 17. Mr. Eri, associate guardian, announced plans for a rummage sale to be held when sufficient rummage has been collected.

Refreshments were served by Camille Eri, Connie Schuler, Julie Marble, Karen Smith, Cheri Brownell and their mothers.

HELP US!

We need clothing, shoes, dishes, furniture, and bedding.

We Pick Up. HELP OTHERS!

The Salvation Army 30 N. Holly Spring 3-7335

The Most Beautiful Bride Is a BURELSON BRIDE

Shop Burelson's For The Dress Of Your Dreams

... your lingerie and complete trousseau wardrobe. Dresses for your attendants, too... everything to make "your" wedding the kind of wedding that will be just right for you.

Your Charge Account Invited!

For Your "HAIR FASHIONS" Phone SP 2-5252

Main and Bartlett Streets

Phone SP-2-6428