Crazy Hunt

By Jane McHenry

This game is fun for a birthday party or a family gathering of mixed ages. Before the party, set aside a room or two where you can place in plain view 15 or 20 objects that ordinarily do not belong there—such as: earrings in the toothbrush holders, an egg beater hanging on a bathtub tap, a cup of spoons on a desk, a cup of pencils on a washbasin, an apron or button stuck on a lampshade with cellophane tape, a box of cocoa on a dressing table, or anything else that's crazy. Give each player a pencil and paper, announce there is to be no talking and turn them loose to mark down how many they can spot.
