

Wedding Held in Ashland

Ashland-Miss Carol Jean Borwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Borwell, 1132 Le-lan avenue, Medford, became the bride of William F. Fennell Sunday, April 8, in a ceremony at the First Presbyterian church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fennell, 121 Nob Hill.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at two thirty o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. B. J. Holland in First Presbyterian church. Approximately 200 guests attended. Baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers provided a setting for the wedding.

Mrs. Ralph Matlack, Medford, was soloist and Mrs. J. W. McCoy was organist. Mr. Borwell gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor-length dress of lace and net tiers over satin. The full skirt fell from a fitted bodice, which was styled with cap sleeves and a scooped neckline. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and a lavender orchid. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Shirley Boswell was maid of honor for her sister, Mrs. Raymond Bailey, Medford, was bridesmatron and Miss Karen Henderson, The Dalles, bridesmaid. They wore light green brocade taffeta sheaths with matching cummerbunds and white flowered headbands. Their bouquets were of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Miss Tresea Steinback, Medford, and Miss Sheryl Hunter, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, lighted candles. Both wore full-skirted yellow dresses of nylon, with white flowered headbands and yellow flower wristlets.

The bride's mother wore a tan sheath dress with pink accessories for the event and the bridegroom's mother wore a sheer blue dress over lace with pink accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages. Cindy Fennell, Medford, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and De Hunter, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer. Richard Fennell, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Raymond Bailey, Medford, Dennis Dally, Eagle Point, and David Bowdoin, Ashland.

A reception followed in the church dining room, which was decorated in a pink and white motif. Mrs. Ida Percival, Winnipeg, Canada, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Richard Fennell, Medford, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Miss Montica Setty poured punch and Mrs. Max Beals, Portland, aunt of the bridegroom, poured coffee.

The couple traveled to San Francisco on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a light pink wool suit and white accessories for travel. They will be at home in Klamath Falls, where the bridegroom is a member of the Oregon State Police. He was graduated from Ashland High school in 1957 and spent four years in the Navy. The bride was graduated from Medford High school in 1957 and has been employed by Johnson's Model bakery.

Those attending the wedding from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunter, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Robert Seymour, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Gilbert Sweet, Shoshone, Idaho; Max Beals, the bridegroom's uncle, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gresswald, Eugene, cousins of the bridegroom.

Members of the wedding party and relatives and friends from out of town were entertained at a dinner at the Boswell home Saturday evening following the wedding rehearsal.

The attendants were Miss Lucy Boyd of Weston, Massachusetts, and James Hoeven of Denver.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Writer's Manor.

After a wedding trip to Squaw Valley, the couple will live in Portland.

The bride is a graduate of Middlebury college, Vermont, and has been a member of the faculty of the Littleton, Colo., public schools. Mr. Gray is a graduate of the University of Oregon and is now associated with the Smith Phillips Construction company of Portland.

Ceremony At Church Weds Pair

Eagle Point - The wedding of Myrtle Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Flowers, Star Route, Box 454, Shady Cove, to Carl C. Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton, Butte Falls Star route, took place Saturday, April 8. The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the ceremony in the New Age church. About 20 guests attended.

The bride wore a gown of cream lace over satin, with emerald green trim and cream colored accessories. Her bouquet was of daffodils, quince blossoms and spirea. Mrs. Virgil Serr, matron of honor, wore a pale yellow dress with white accessories. Mr. Serr was best man.

The Rev. and Mrs. Millard provided traditional wedding music.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The couple will make their home on the Butte Falls highway.

The bride has lived in Shady Cove since she was a small child and was graduated from Eagle Point High school in 1955. The bridegroom was born in Medford and attended Prospect and Eagle Point schools. He is employed by Fred Christensen Logging company.

Visitor Returns From California

Mrs. R. B. Hammond has returned to her home at 509 Park street after spending a month in California. Mrs. Hammond was a guest of her son, Col. Bruce Hammond, United States Marine corps, and Mrs. Hammond, Camp Pendleton. Colonel Hammond is supply officer for the First Marine division.

The visitor found the base an unusually interesting one since it is located on the former Santa Margarita rancho, land granted by the Mexican government to Spanish settlers in early days of California history.

En route, Mrs. Hammond visited a niece in Marin county.

Plans are underway for the third annual Ceramic show sponsored by the Cancer society in Talent. It will be held April 28 at the Talent City hall.

Glimpses at Glamour

From DOROTHY ELLIOTT

Nothing gets you ahead in business like a pleasing appearance. You don't have to be beautiful! (Nature has short-changed most of us.) Knowing how to play-up your best features is the secret of camouflaging weaknesses. Professional operators have been trained to study each customer with just this thought in mind. Experience has taught them how to adapt new fashions to the same old problems. . . . So, working gals . . . use your head to advantage by letting us care for your hair regularly.

With longer hair the fashion, correct hair styling to fit your features is a must. Just call Spring 2-2096, De-Na's Beauty Salon, to look crisp and jaunty for the new season.
