

Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce Williams

Williams-Ford Ceremony Held at Christian Church

The wedding of Miss Do-reen Lucile Ford to William Bruce Williams took place the morning of Saturday, April 8, in Advent Christian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ford, 200 West Jackson street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Williams, Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Rev. Fred O. Sapp Jr. performed the ceremony before about fifty guests. Lewis Parker was pianist and Miss Deann Clark, Eugene, sang. Pink and white crab apple blossoms decorated the church.

The bride wore a white brocade sheath dress with nylon organza overskirt, which she had made for her wedding. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and a small orchid. Mr. Ford gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Velma Mayfield, Eugene, who was maid of honor, wore a pink satin dress with flared skirt. Carl Todd, Lancaster, Calif., was best man and ushers were Barry and Michael Ford, brothers of the bride.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception which followed at the church. Serving cake were Mrs. W. E. Gilmore, Dallas, Oregon, aunt of the bride, and Miss Judy Hobbs, Mrs. Ethyl Garrett and Mrs. Marvin Riecke poured. The reception and will remain in California for three weeks before leaving for Japan, where they will make their home. The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Family Attends National Session In Los Angeles

Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr., Applegate, and her three daughters-in-law spent last week end attending the national convention of the American Nutrition society in Los Angeles. Accompanying Mrs. Bosworth were Mrs. Robert Bosworth, Medford; Mrs. David Bosworth, Eugene; and Mrs. Harlan Bosworth IV, Berkeley, Calif.

Robert Bosworth, Medford artist, made the trip with the group as far as San Francisco, and later joined them in Los Angeles. He returned to San Francisco to prepare for a one-man private showing of his paintings which has been arranged by Charles Warren Callister, San Francisco architect. Mr. Callister has invited gallery owners, patrons and others in the art world to view the artist's water colors today.

General theme of the convention was a study of soils and foods, and it emphasized how individuals can make available natural grown, high quality foods through cooperative programs and other plans. The convention was held at the Huntington-Sheraton hotel, and an indoor patio of the hotel was filled with food, soil and other exhibits.

About 300 persons from all over the country attended. They discussed possible ways in which the society might assist with the national physical fitness program recently announced by President John Kennedy. A group of speakers was Charles Coker, track coach at Occidental college, who described the fitness program prescribed for track men at the school.

Society members also discussed changes in the school lunch programs in areas adjacent to Pasadena, which have been influenced by natural foods enthusiasts.
