

Recent Rites Of Interest In Valley

Talent—Of interest here is news of the recent wedding in Nampa, Idaho, of Miss Carole Ramsey, formerly of Talent, to Charles Davis, Nampa. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Ramsey, Nampa, former Talent residents, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis, Nampa.

The Rev. Orville A. Coates performed the wedding February 24 at the Nampa First Methodist church. The bride wore a floor-length gown of lace and net over taffeta, with long pointed sleeves, ruffled back and a Sabrina neckline trimmed in pearls and sequins. Her bouquet was of talisman roses. Miss Patricia Fender, Boise, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn DuBols and Miss Alberta Schaefer. The three attendants wore matching dresses of pink chiffon over taffeta and carried cascading bouquets of white carnations.

Miss Marilyn Dawson and Bob Dawson, Medford, cousins of the bride, were candlelighters and flower girls were Becky Marchbanks and Brinda Pallesen. Stevie Pallesen was ringbearer.

Norman Marchbanks served as best man. Ushers were Ervin Healy, J. R. Pickett, Dean Pierce and Wendell Good.

A reception for the newlyweds followed. Assisting were Mrs. Henrietta Fender, Mrs. J. R. Pickett, Mrs. Norman Marchbanks, Mrs. L. G. Dawson, Medford, Miss Viola Lowden, Mrs. Lloyd Schroll, Mrs. Ervin Healy, and Miss Rose Marie Wahlstrom.

Bethel To Hold Formal Dinner

A formal dinner in honor of the secret Masonic dads will be held by Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, in the Medford Masonic temple Wednesday, April 19, at 6 p.m.

All members of Bethel 14, and those girls having transferred to Bethel 89 from Bethel 14 since secret dads were assigned, have sent invitations to their secret dads. Identities will be revealed at the dinner. Dads and daughters are requested to make reservations for the dinner by calling Mrs. Homer Harvey, guardian, at SPing 3-1626, or Mrs. Merlyn Borough, SPing 2-8817, on or before Monday, April 17.

The Bethel meeting, to which secret dads are invited, will convene at 7:30 p.m. and entertainment is being planned. This meeting is the deadline for Bethel members to turn in money and cookbooks from the project. The slumber party for those selling five or more cookbooks will be held April 22.

Fawcett-Brown Service Held in Friends Church

Central Point—Miss Wayne Faye Brown became the bride of James Scott Fawcett Saturday, April 8, in a candlelight service in the new chapel of Medford Friends church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orshal Brown, 340 Freeman road, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Fawcett, 1016 Queen Anne avenue, Medford.

The Rev. Clynton Crisman read the double-ring ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon. White stock and blue Dutch iris decorated the chapel. Lighted candles were at the altar. Mrs. Claude Lewis was soloist and Mrs. Crisman played the organ.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with bodice and side panels of Chantilly lace. The gown was made princess style, with the fitted back flowing into a train, and the neckline was boat-shaped. The bodice and calla lily sleeves were embroidered with seed pearls by the bride. Her aunt, Mrs. Oaghal Brown, Stockton, Calif., made the gown and veil, which were designed by the bride, and she and her mother decorated the veil with lace appliques. The rhinestones on her headpiece were given by the bridegroom's father. The bride's bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis, atop a white Bible.

Attendants Listed
Miss Patricia Kime was maid of honor. Miss Constance Black and Miss Peggy Jones were bridesmaids. They wore light blue satin brocade jacket dresses, styled as the bride's gown, and in ballerina length. Their head pieces were bows of the same material, and they carried nosegays of white carnations and blue Dutch iris. Each wore double strands of crystal beads, gifts from the bride.

The Misses Marilee and Caralee Fawcett, cousins of the bridegroom, lighted candles. They wore light blue taffeta dresses, white carnation wristlets, and crystal beads which were gifts from the bride.

Little Linda Brown, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and was dressed in a dress duplicating the bride's gown. She carried a white basket of rose petals, with the couple's wedding rings on the handle.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk organza sheath dress with lace bodice and trim, with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose beige satin brocade sheath with pink accessories and pink carnation corsage.

Brother Best Man
John Fawcett was best man for his brother. Ushers were Charles Garrett and William Barker, Applegate. Groomsman were Jerald Brown, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Cox.

About 150 guests attended the wedding and reception which followed. White and blue flowers and lighted tapers decorated the room. Cutting the cake were Mrs. W. C. Stolle, Tujunga, Calif., aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Oaghal Brown, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Carl Campfield poured coffee and Miss Sandra Renfro, Roseburg, was at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. James Smith and Mrs. Earl Cooper. Miss Patricia Brown, the bride's cousin, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Rayanne Green and Miss Rae Burrett were at the gift table. Mrs. Ralph Burkhardt baked and decorated the wedding cake.

The young couple traveled to San Francisco, Santa Cruz, the San Joaquin valley and Reno on their honeymoon. The bride wearing for travel a light blue suit with white accessories and an orchid from her wedding bouquet. She carried a white embroidered handkerchief, once owned by the bridegroom's grandmother.

The bride attended schools in Crows Landing, Calif., was graduated from Crater High school, and attended George Fox college. The bridegroom, a graduate of Medford High school in 1959, attended the National School of Meat Cutting, Toledo, Ohio, and is employed by Safeway Stores, Inc. They will make their home in Medford.

Guests coming from out of town for the wedding included Mrs. Stanley Cramer and sons, Yreka, Calif., and Oaghal Brown and two daughters, Stockton.

Mothers of the bride and bridegroom were hostesses for a buffet supper given for the wedding party April 1. The bride was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Dean Ford and Mrs. Earl Cooper at the Ford home before the wedding.
