Philatelists Announce Fall Exhibit

Plans for a philatelic exhibit to be held in the fall in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the Southern Oregon Stamp club, were discussed at the April meeting of the club. To exhibit at the show, it will not be necessary to belong to the club; there will be a junior division also for boys and girls who are collectors.

Details of the exhibition will be announced; those desiring more information should contact Clyde Smith, president of the club, at Murdock 2-3046, or other club members. Ribbons will be awarded. The club officers expressed the hope that many of the philatelists of Jackson county will take advantage of this opportunity to display their collections.

Mrs. Edward Leach reported that Mr. Smith was to be the judge of the stamp exhibit at the Camp White hobby show on April 9. Mrs. Leach is the advisor of the Camp White club.

On exhibit at the club meeting was a cover that had been sent to Czechoslovakia, but had been returned to the sender, because it bore a stamp of Liberty of the United States. The cover carried the word "Retour" in purple ink, and a label reading "Non Admis - Nepulsi". One of the members spoke of a cover carrying the Patrick Henry Creed "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" that was also returned from an Iron Curtain country.

The program for the evening was provided by 35mm slides from the American Topical association on the United Nations of the World. Each slide depicted a stamp or stamps issued by some country in honor of the United Nations. Starting with Afghanistan, which issued one stamp in honor of the U.N. It concluded with the United States, which has also issued one stamp in honor of it, the Atoms for Peace stamp of 1957. Two countries had also issued souvenir sheets in honor of the U.N. Nationalist China has issued eleven stamps for this cause.

In all stamps from 32 countries were shown. One country even issued a stamp in honor of the U.N. before it was a member. Commentator for the program was Robert Lowe, and Mrs. Eric de Place was projectionist.

Mrs. W. H. Walwyn was admitted into the club. Two visitors were Russell Mitchell, Medford, and Beverly Leach, Eugene. Miss Leach is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leach, Medford.

It was announced that in May the program would be given by Mrs. de Place on Washington, D.C. She will display her collection of stamps issued there and show slides of the city, and of the monuments. Many of the slides were taken by her son, J. N. de Place, a Navy man stationed near there last summer.

Refreshments were served by Russell Herbert and Mrs. Leach.
