Blots!

By Evelyn Pickering

Using ink, each player writes his name in large letters in the center of a sheet of paper. Fold while the ink is still wet. At a signal, unfold and each blot will suggest some object—a tree, dog, house, fish, etc.! Allow five minutes for adding lines to complete the picture, and then give a prize to the best and worst!

Tap a Tune By Maude E. Hallmer

Tapping out the rhythm of a tune is lots of fun. You may do the tapping on a table top. A player taps out a tune, and if one of the other players guesses it correctly, he becomes the next tapper. If no one is able to guess, the first player can take another turn.

Start with simple, well-known tunes that have a strong rhythm—such as "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Jingle Bells," or "Yankee Doodle."
