Giants, Twins Give Major League Baseball New Look

By FRED DOWN

United Press International

The Minnesota Twins and San Francisco Giants in first place provide a new look to the 1981 baseball scene today but there's also an old look because Leo Durocher's in hot water.

Their most faithful fans couldn't have foreseen the Twins and Giants at their current levels so early while the question with Durocher is how it took him so long to get into his familiar position. It all came about on the snow, rain and wind-plagued first Sunday of the season when:

The Twins whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 10-5 and 6-4 in 11 innings, to take a half-game grip on first place in the American league.

The Giants downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2, and went a half-game ahead in the National league.

Durocher and plate umpire Jocko Conlan became engaged in a shin-kicking duel during the Los Angeles Dodgers' 18-8 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates with Leo

"getting the boot" to the accompaniment of boos and catcalls from the crowd of 27,718 at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Rally In Ninth

The Cleveland Indians scored all their runs in the ninth inning to beat the Washington Senators, 3-2, in the only other American league game while the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 5-3, in the other National league action. Foul weather forced three postponements in the AL and one in the NL.

Bob Allison and Zorro Versalles swung game-winning bats for the Twins, who have won four of their five games. Allison drove in seven runs with a grand slam and a three-run homer as Pedro Ramos gained his second win of the season in the opener and Versalles broke up the

Homers Lead Attack

Tommy Davis, Wally Moon and Norm Sherry hit homers to lead the Dodgers' 14-hit attack that tagged 1980 20-game winner Vern Law with his second loss of the new season. Other big blows in the Dodger attack included a double and two singles by Charlie Neal and a triple by Murry Willis.

Woody Held's clutch single delivered the winning run for the Indians, who tied the score at 2-2 on Johnny Terry's single and a homer by Tito Francona. Singles by Jim Piersall and Willie Kirkland off Dick Donovan preceded the game-winning hit off Rudy Hernandez. Rookie Bob Allen possessed credit for the Indians' victory after taking over from ex-Giant Johnny Antonelli, who allowed two runs and five hits in seven innings.

Ray Sadecki pitched a seven-hitter and struck out seven batters as the Cardinals handed the Reds their second straight loss. Ken Boyer led the Cardinals' attack with a triple and single while Eddie Kasko had three hits for the Reds. Jim O'Toole was Cincinnati's losing pitcher.

Bat Drill Today for SF Giants

San Francisco—UPI—Manager Alvin Dark planned to send the league-leading San Francisco Giants through a special batting practice session today and who can blame him with the club's average standing at .231?

"Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou won't have to attend because they are hitting the ball pretty good," Dark said after Sunday's 5-2 win over the Philadelphia Phillies. "But I want the rest of the boys to do some swinging."

Included on the list is Charlie Hiller, the rookie second baseman with an .048 batting average. Action in Candlestick Park will be confined to practice as the club has an open date. Then Billy Does (1-0) is slated to start Tuesday night against Bob Purkey (1-0) of the Cincinnati Reds. The good-looking Cincy tosser has an 11-8 lifetime record against the Giants.

Sam Jones, getting some much needed help in the ninth from Billy O'Dell, bested Robin Roberts Sunday in the game that gave the Giants undisputed possession of first place. Jones further delighted a crowd of 23,594 by cracking a brace of doubles, one off Roberts and one off reliever John Buzhardt.

Seattle Totems Gain Playoffs

Seattle—UPI—The Seattle Totems won a berth in the Western Hockey league playoff finals Sunday night by defeating Calgary 2-1 here.

The victory sends the Totems into the finals against the winner of the best of five Portland-Vancouver series, which stands tied at one game apiece.

Portland and Vancouver meet at Victoria tonight. The Canucks downed Portland 2-1 Saturday night.

Shin Kicking Gets Leo Into Trouble

By JOE ST. AMANT

Los Angeles—UPI—Baseball's Leo Durocher is in trouble again today—but this time they're calling him Leo the Toe instead of Leo the Lip.

Leo proved once again Sunday that you can't win an argument with an umpire when he got into a shin-kicking duel with Jocko Conlan who, like Durocher, seems to have a low boiling point. Durocher kicked Conlan at least once in the shins and the umpire held his own with counter-kicks.

Durocher joined the Dodgers as a coach this season after a five-year absence from baseball during which he claimed he had been "black-balled."

The beef started when Jocko—umpiring behind the plate in the Pittsburgh Pirates-Dodger game—called foul on a pop fly by Dodger first baseman Norm Larker in the fourth inning. Pirate catcher Hal Smith almost had his hands on the ball but he missed it and it dropped into fair territory about three yards down in the first base line and bounced foul. The Dodgers claimed Smith's glove touched the ball and Larker romped all the way to second base.

Manager Walt Alton led a contingent of Dodgers from the dugout to protest. Comparative quiet had been restored when Conlan walked over to the dugout and thumbed Durocher out of the game.

Conlan said Leo threw a towel out of the dugout. Durocher denied this later, saying he threw a towel but it did not go out of the dugout.

Then Durocher, after he knew he was out of the game,

Rain Plagues LA Angel Club

Boston, Mass.—UPI—Rain, rain, go away so we can play a game today.

Those were the sentiments of manager Bill Rigney and many of his weather-plagued Los Angeles Angels who've managed to play only one game since they made their American league debut against the Baltimore Orioles last Tuesday in Baltimore.

Rain Sunday forced postponement of a scheduled doubleheader against the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park. A single game was arranged hastily for today, but the weatherman forecast-rain.

Black Hawk Crew Nabs Skate Cup

Detroit—UPI—The Chicago Black Hawks, possessors of the Stanley Cup for the first time since 1938, may be spearheading a "new era" in big league hockey.

The Black Hawks, already in orbit, flew home with Lord Stanley's treasured trophy today after handing the Detroit Red Wings a 5-1 drubbing here Sunday night.

The victory, the most one-sided of the series, finished off the Red Wings in six games, the same number it took Chicago to eliminate the mighty Montreal Canadiens in the semifinals.

In the wake of this first All-American final since 1950—a "Cinderella" series between the teams which finished third and fourth in the regular season race—observers were toasting the dawn of a "new and exciting era" in National Hockey league warfare.

It was just one year ago that the high-powered Canadiens made a mockery of the Stanley Cup playoffs by sweeping to the championship in eight straight games.

That was Montreal's fifth straight cup conquest and there seemed to be no end in sight to the Canadian's domination of the league.

Portland State, which leads the OCC, lost a non-conference doubleheader to Seattle by scores of 6-1 and 6-5.

The victory was the second in two conference starts for the Wildcats.

In other NWC play, Willamette whipped Lewis and Clark 8-1 and College of Idaho and Whitman split a doubleheader. College of Idaho won the first game 6-4 and Whitman captured the nightcap 17-2.

Southern Oregon swept a pair from Oregon College of Education 6-4 and 10-4 and Oregon Tech topped Eastern Oregon 6-3 in Oregon College of Education Conference action.

Portland Wins

Homestead, Florida—UPI—Harry Keister's hitting and the pitching of Dick Hughes carried the Portland Beavers to 4-0 and 10-8 spring training exhibition baseball victories over Lancaster of the Class A Eastern league Saturday and Sunday.

Hughes scattered eight hits to pitch the Beavers to their 4-0 win Saturday while Keister, an outfielder, slammed two home runs to give Portland a 10-8 victory Sunday.
