OPEN SEASON FRIDAY

Beavers Boast Strong Infield

Homestead, Fla. (Special)—Portland's "new-look" Beavers expect to present the Pacific Coast league's finest infield when they open play at Salt Lake City Friday, April 21.

Manager Vern Benson has chosen a pair of 19-year-olds with glittering prospects to form his double play combination. Phil Gagliano, sensation of the Beaver' spring play, will open at second base. Gerry Buchek, $65,000 bonus baby who trained with the varsity Cardinals until last week, is the shortstop starter.

Gagliano, native of Memphis, is a six-foot, 170 pounder who hit .315 last year for Memphis as a shortstop in the Southern association. Phil has been batting at a better than .350 clip here in camp, and fielding in spectacular style. Gagliano signed with St. Louis in 1960 for $10,000 when he graduated from high school. He opened the '60 season with Dothan in the Class D Alabama-Florida league, hitting .280 in 89 games. Memphis, fast company for a rookie, called Gagliano in mid-season, and he responded brilliantly in the final 43 games of the AA Southern Association season.

Buchek, a native of St. Louis, is consedered by veteran Cardinal Farm Director Walter Shannon as the "finest infield prospect ever signed by St. Louis." This glittering estimation has been backed by all -time Cardinal shortstop star Marty Marion. Marion has been working with Buchek in spring training, and labels him a definite candidate for future Hall-of-Fame status.

Gerry, a 10-letter star in three high school sports in St. Louis, signed out of high school in 1960 and was sent directly to Tulsa of the AA Texas league. He hit .333 for the Oilers in 36 games, then finished the season with Rochester of the AAA International league, hitting .226 in 99 contests. Buchek, 6 feet and 180 pounds, is a cat in covering his position and shows signs of developing into a brilliant batter.

The remainder of the promissing Portland infield is composed of veteran third baseman Jim Baxes and hot young Cardinal property Leon "Duke" Carmel.

Baxes, 32, has had the best spring training session of his career, responding to the challence of the many youngsters in Beaver uniform. Big Jim, 6-2, 200, has been in professional baseball since 1947. He played two seasons with Portland in 1956-57, hitting .240 and .259. He spent 1958 with Spokane in the Coast league, where he batted .271, then moved up to the majors in '59. Baxes banged the ball at a .239 clip in 77 games with Cleveland that season. He returned to Portland last season, and hit .231 in 113 games for the loss-prone Beavers. Jim's long-ball hitting in spring camp here indicated he may be set for is best season at the plate.

Carmel, 23, is the ideal size for a first baseman, standing 6-2 and putting 200 pounds behind his batting swing. Signed from a Bronx, N.Y. sand lot in 1956, Carmel has risen rapidly in 5 pro seasons. The big New York native hit 29 home runs for Billings in the Pioneer league in '57, swatted 23 out of the park for Tulsa in '59. Duke was called up to the Cards at the end of both the '59 and '60 seasons, but saw little action. He hit .291 for Tulsa in '59, but slumped in '60, with a .244 average at St. Paul in the American association. His bat has been booming here at Homestead, where he has hit six out of the park in exhibition games.

Clarence Moore, 29, a two-year Portland performer, is expected to handle utility infield duties. Moore, a shortstop by trade, is potentially a fine hitter. He is in his 9th season of pro play. Moore hit .258 for San Diego in '56, .298 for Louisville of the American association in '57, .259 for Sacramento in '58. He rapped the ball at a .247 pace for Portland in 1959, then slumped with he rest of the Beavers last season, hitting only .218. Moore is the fastest man on the '61 Portland roster.

Manager Benson assesses his infield as "potentially the best I've worked with as a manager." Benson adds that "no team in the Coast league should be abolt to match our infield defensive strength."

Lone Pine Pitcher Fires No-Hitter; Loses 4 to 3

Elementary school baseball action Monday afternoon was highlighted by a game between Lone Pine and Lincoln. Lone Pine pitcher Kent Clark twirled a no-hitter but ended up as the losing pitcher.

Lincoln pushed across four runs by virtue of six walks and two Lone Pine errors. Lone Pine could manage only three runs. Ray Curl, Lincoln mound ace, didn't do so badly himself, as he held Lone Pine batsmen to a lone hit. Bud Chadd spoiled Curl's perfect game attempt. Chadd rapped a double that brought in two runs.

Hoover topped Jefferson 8 to 7, Roosevelt dumped Jackson 8 to 2, Howard blasted Griffin Creek 13 to 3, Washington edged Wilson 7 to 6, and Oak Grove downed Jacksonville 14 to 8 in other games.

Terry Schulz was winning pitcher for Hoover, however, he yielded 13 free passes. Jefferson moundsmen allowed eight walks.

Walks were costly for Jackson in their contest against Roosevelt. Jackson moundsmen issued 10 passes.

Howard won their fourth straight game when they beat Griffin Creek. Rickey Frohreich chalked up his fourth straight pitching victory for Howard. Griffin Creek now has a 2-2 record.

Phil Hackworth hit a home run for Wilson in his team's losing effort against Washington.

Gary Hulse rapped two hits for Jacksonville against Oak Grove.

Light Athletic Schedule For Raiders This Week

Ashland — A 3 p.m. game this afternoon between Oregon Collegiate conference rivals Southern Oregon and Oregon Tech on the Red Raider diamond kicked off a week of sparse sports on the SOC campus.

In the only other scheduled action, coach Dan Bulkley's Raider track crew will be seeking its fourth straight dual met victory of the season when it goes up against Shasta Junior college from Redding, Calif., this Friday at 3 p.m.

Last Friday the SOC cindermen cracked two more school records in defeating OTI, 108-23, with transfers Terry Boatman and Jerry Arndt picking up the two new standards. Boatman set a new school mark in the two mile at 10:06.0, while Arndt lowered his record in the 880 to 2:01.7.

Coach Ted Schopf's baseballers were going after their fourth straight conference win of the season in their match with OTI today. Last week end the Raiders racked up three triumphs over defending champion Oregon College, blasting out 42 hits in three games in scoring 10-4, 6-4, and 10-4 wins on the Monmouth diamond.

Against the Techmen Schopf was planning on starting lefty Marty Vogler on the mound, while OTI boss Jim Cordial was depending on either Roland Swanson, Gene Branson, or Max McKibbon to start for the visitors.

The visiting Owls snapped a 24 game losing streak last week end with a 17-4 win over Eastern Oregon college after losing the 6-1 opener of a Friday doubleheader. Saturday the Owls scored a 6-3 win over the Mounts to put their OCC record at 2-1, and season mark at 2-8. SOC now owns a 4-8 season record.

Big guns for the Tech nine are second baseman Bob Yunck and left fielder Don Gresdel, a pair of ex-Klamath Union high preppers. Gresdel rapped out four hits, including a home run, in leading the OTI squad to their first win in two seasons last Friday.
