

Eichmann Tells Of Jewish Ties Through Family

Jerusalem (UPI)—Adolf Eichmann says he never was anti-Semitic and, in fact, was distantly related to Jews through his stepmother.

The text of a 400,000-word statement he dictated into a tape recorder after he was flown to Israel from Argentina was released today.

It revealed that he feels some sense of guilt that the Nazis killed six million European Jews, but that he insists the crime rests on the souls of other men.

Some of his stepmother's relatives, both men and women, married Jews, Eichmann said. His "Aunt Dorshi" was a Jewess and at the height of the Nazi terror he helped her daughter escape to Switzerland, he said.

Although this is a prosecution document, in part it sounds like a plea for the defense. Eichmann seeks to justify his conduct on the grounds that he was a minor officer obeying orders. Policy was formed, he said, by Adolf Hitler, Heinrich Himmler and Reinhard Heydrich. All of them are dead.

Eichmann said that after visiting the extermination camps in Poland he even protested to his superior officers against the killing of the Jews. He said he was worried about the effect of the holocaust on the character of the youth of Germany.

Sergeant York's Account Squared

Pall Mall, Tenn. (UPI)—Sgt. Alvin York has claimed for years he doesn't owe the government "a dime." Today, for the first time in 20 years, Uncle Sam and the old Sergeant see eye to eye.

Tax commissioner Mortimer Caplin Wednesday accepted a $25,000 check from Rep. Joe L. Ewins, (D-Tenn.) and the government closed its books on the World War I Medal of Honor winner.

York, now 73 and confined to his bed in a small home in Tennessee's mountain country, had been involved in a tax dispute over royalties he received from the 1941 movie "Sergeant York."

The Internal Revenue Service accepted the $25,000 settlement on its $173,000 claim. The money was raised through a fund drive to aid York, one of the nation's most celebrated war heroes.

York, contacted here after the settlement, said: "I'm tickled to death to hear about this—anybody would be. You know, everytime somebody makes the load of life a little lighter, it's good to hear about it."

York is bedridden from a series of strokes and said he hadn't been feeling "too well" recently. He has said all along he doesn't owe the government any back taxes.

DESEGREGATES POOLS

Miami (UPI)—The City of Miami desegregated its five public swimming pools Wednesday in line with a federal court ruling recently upheld by the fifth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. "Any taxpayer who seeks admission and pays his fee, if any, and obeys the rules must be admitted," City Manager Melvin Reese told the pool managers.
