

MANTLE SPURS YANK TRIUMPHS

Mick's Bat Responsible For Streak

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Mickey Mantle is hitting a cool 400 and it's a toss-up who's getting a bigger kick out of it — an old man sitting back in Glendale, Calif., or a younger one sitting pretty in the Yankees' managerial chair.

Mantle's current slugging performance must be bringing a smile of satisfaction to Old Casey Stengel, who predicted a banner year for Mickey and still follows his progress by pouring over the box scores at his home in California.

Ralph Houk, the man who succeeded Stengel, is delighted with Mantle's showing, too. "I'm sure glad Mickey is hitting," Houk said after Thursday's 7-5 and 4-2 victories over the Los Angeles Angels.

"Outside of him, we haven't been doing much, but he's off to a terrific start and so far he's carried us along with him."

By clipping the Angeles' wings twice, the Yankees moved into a tie for second place with Detroit and are now only a half-game behind the surprising first-place Minnesota Twins.

Mantle Carries Load

Mantle, who has been on base in 11 of his last 13 at-bats, is chiefly responsible for the Yankees' current four-game winning streak. He drove in five runs with two towering homers in Thursday's opener and collected another hit in two tries during the nightcap. He also drew three walks in the two games.

Pinch hitter Jesse Gonder singled home the two runs that proved decisive in the eighth inning of the opener as Art Ditmar posted the victory with Bill Stafford's help. Ex-Yankee Eli Grba was the loser. Bob Turley, who aided his own cause with a two-run single, was the winner in the finale although he needed Luis Arroyo's aid in the eighth.

In other American league games, the Chicago White Sox defeated the Washington Senators, 6-1, and the Detroit Tigers crushed the Cleveland Indians, 11-4. No other games were scheduled.

San Francisco nipped Cincinnati, 2-1, but the Reds retained the National league lead despite the defeat. The Chicago Cubs blanked the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-0; Milwaukee beat Philadelphia, 7-6, in 11 innings and the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 11-2 in other NL games.

Homers Pace Chisox

Roy Sievers, Jim Landis and Al Smith each hit homers to lead the White Sox to their victory over the Senators. Early Wynn scattered nine hits for his first triumph of the season and the 285th of his major league career. Loser Hal Woodeshick gave up seven of Chicago's 11 hits in the five innings he worked.

Frank Lary won his second straight game for the Tigers with an eight-hit effort against the Indians. Detroit nipped loser Gary Bell for four runs in the first inning, and after the Indians rallied for three runs in the fourth Norm Cash pulled the Tigers away with a three-run homer in the fifth.

Southpaw Mike McCormick hurled a four-hitter in the Giants' victory over the Reds. The 22-year-old McCormick had a string of 17 scoreless innings before Cincinnati got to him for a run in the ninth. The Giants scored single runs off Jim O'Toole in the second and third innings, both runs coming across on infield outs.

EXTRA BASE—San Francisco Giants' Felipe Alou gained an extra base on a hit and run play against Cincinnati yesterday in second inning at San Francisco. Catcher Bob Schmidt hit to right field behind Alou on first. Alou kept going to third and fielder Wally Puto threw to third baseman Gene Freese. Alou dived into the bag head first and this sequence shows result. Upper left, Alou dives with outstretched hand as Freese gets ball and puts his tag, upper right, on runner while umpire Shag Crawford rules safe. Lower left, Freese falls over backward and even takes Crawford with him, lower right, as ball rolls free. (UPI Telephoto)

Platoon System Pays Off For Giants Against Reds

By HAL WOOD
United Press International

San Francisco — (UPI) — The platoon system, admittedly devised by manager Alvin Dark, may be the salvation of the San Francisco Giants this season.

with a 2-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Surprisingly, the victory was achieved with some fine base running and fancy fielding — rather than by the bats.

"But we have a good bench and we're going to use it when we need to," said Dark after the victory.

"For the time being, I'll use all the right-handed hitters I can against left-handed pitchers, and all the lefties I can against the right-handers."

That means that for tonight's game, if the St. Louis Cardinals pitch right-hander Bob Gibson, Willie McCovey will be back at first base; Charlie Hiller at second and Tom Haller behind the plate. That will also put Harvey Kuenn back at third and Orlando Cepeda into right field.

Yesterday Dark started Jim Davenport at third, Cepeda at first, Kuenn in right field, Jose Pagan at short, Bob Schmidt catching and Joe Amalfitano at second.

This outfit got only five hits, but it played flawlessly in the field.

Los Angeles Man Regrets Receiving Reward for Honesty

Los Angeles — (UPI) — Douglas W. Johnson, 50, the honest man who found $240,000 in unmarked bills and returned it immediately, said today he wished he had burned the money or thrown it down a sewer.

The self-employed janitor found the bag of money lying in the street last March 10 and turned it into the FBI without even counting it.

The bundle of unmarked $10 and $20 bills flopped out of an armored car and Brink's mysteriously gave Johnson a $10,000 reward for his honesty. He wishes today he had never seen the money.

The publicity and letters looking at his honesty have his wife upset and his eldest son, Richard, 18, ran away from home Tuesday.

"He had a car his father had given him two years ago,"

Mrs. Johnson said. "Never got into trouble with it until he got so nervous lately. Then he had a little accident. Had another accident."

Douglas told him not to worry. Just take it real easy. Two days later he had another accident. This was small, too. I guess that was just too much for him."

Richard returned home Thursday, hungry.

"The kids kept saying things to me," he said. "All the time, they were saying my father was dumb, and a fool and stupid. And there was more of the same in the mails every day. And I just couldn't stand it."

The same had been true for Johnson.

"I've had to listen to it every day of the week since I gave the money back," he said. "My wife had to listen to it. And oh, God—my boys have had to listen to it, too. Wanted Own Home."

"Listen—the Brink's people gave me a $10,000 reward for giving the money back. I thought that was nice of them. Was going to buy a house of our own, like we'd always wanted."

"You think I care for that money?"

"I wish I'd never seen any of it. I wish we'd let that money sit in the street and rot. I wish we'd thrown it down a sewer or burned it."

"That money? It's not worth anything."

"It has made me a poor man."

Chicago White Sox Have Hitting Binge

By GENE BLUDEAU
United Press International

Chicago — (UPI) — What could be rarer than three Chicago White Sox home runs and a complete-game pitching victory by Early Wynn all in the same game?

"Nothing," said manager Al Lopez in answer to that question. "This is the type of thing managers mean when they talk about playing up to the potential."

Lopez summoned the players out for batting practice after Tuesday's home-opener loss to the Senators. But after Thursday's whipping success, he lightheartedly sipped a beer.

Prospects, he admitted, hadn't looked brighter in more than a month.

"We haven't got any hitting out of this club since about a month ago back in Sarasota," he said. "And no pitching to speak of, either."

Cards Blast Out 17 Hits In 11-2 Win

By ALEX KAHN
Los Angeles — (UPI) — The Cincinnati Reds, another of the National league's slugging clubs tonight make their first visit to the Coliseum to meet the Los Angeles Dodgers, who failed to match the hitting of the departed St. Louis Cardinals Thursday night.

For the opener of the series, southpaw Sandy Koufax, 0-1, was slated to oppose Jay Hook, who has no record thus far this season.

The Cardinals left town with their greatest plate barrage of the season, collecting 17 hits against a trio of Dodger hurlers while chalking up a 11-2 victory.

Defeat Costly

The defeat was a costly one for the Dodgers, who lost the services of catcher Norm Sherry for a week or 10 days with a bruised kidney. A poor throw from outfielder Frank Howard put Sherry out of position to tag card pitcher Curt Simmons as he was coming in to the plate in the third inning.

About all manager Walt Alston had to cheer was the Alston homer hit by rookie third baseman Charlie Smith in the fourth to score all the Dodger runs.

The Cardinals collected three homers, shortstop Daryl Spencer getting a pair with no men on base and third baseman Ken Boyer hitting a two-run homer.

Although he didn't homer, Cardinal second baseman Julian Javier was a big man at the plate, collecting three singles and a double in five times at bat.

Simmons scored the win in his 350th National league pitching appearance, although Bob Miller hurled the final 2/3 innings without giving up a hit.

Angels' Ed Yost Injures Hand

Detroit — (UPI) — The Los Angeles Angels, in a last place tie with Baltimore, met the Detroit Tigers today with Jerry Casale and Don Mossi as opposing moundmen.

The Angels not only lost both games to the Yankees Thursday but also lost the services of Eddie Yost for at least five days.

Yost suffered a hairline fracture of a knuckle on his right hand when hit by a pitch in the ninth inning of the first game.

ABC Dissolution Sought by BPAA

Detroit — (UPI) — As if members of the American Bowling Congress weren't having enough trouble trying to get good scores in their annual tournament, the organization itself now faces a battle for its very existence in federal court.

The Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA) filed suit in federal court in Chicago Thursday seeking dissolution of the ABC on the grounds it is an illegal monopoly.

Frank K. Baker, executive secretary of the ABC, had a terse "no comment" when informed here of the suit.

"I will have to study the bill of particulars and know more about the charges before commenting," Baker said.
