

Orioles Snap Yank Win Streak

By United Press International
Gus Triandos slammed a two-run homer in the eighth inning Saturday to lead the Baltimore Orioles to a 5-3 victory and snap a five-game winning streak by the New York Yankees in the opener of a day-night doubleheader. Triandos' homer was his first of the season and came off Ryne Duren, the third Yankee pitcher. The blow also ended a three-game Baltimore losing streak.

Singles by Kubek, Cletis Boyer and Hector Lopez tied the score in the seventh and set the stage for Triandos' homer, which followed a walk to Jim Gentile.

Zoilo Versalles' sacrifice fly scored Earl Battey in the 10th inning with the run that TAGGED—Los Angeles Dodger Maury Willis. The action occurred in the first inning. Umpire Shag Crawford was on top of the play. The Reds Eddie Kasko was waiting for the play.

OREGON WOLLOPED
Eugene - UPI - Washington's Huskies walloped Oregon, 7-0, in college tennis here yesterday.

Washington's Huskies scored twice in the last two innings to edge Idaho 3-2 in opening Northern division baseball action Friday at Moscow, Ida.

The scheduled Oregon-Oregon State inaugural game at Corvallis was postponed because of wet grounds.

CLARK GAINS FINAL
Victoria, B.C. - UPI - Pross Clark of Portland gained the finals of the Empress golf tournament by beating Bob Kelly of Calgary in semi-final play here Friday. In the other semi-final match, Jack Matthews turned back E. A. Tretheway of Vancouver, B.C.

Norm Chapman Selected Assistant at Willamette

Salem, Ore. - UPI - Norm Chapman, former University of Oregon football star, today was appointed assistant athletic coach at Willamette University.

Chapman, 25, is presently football coach at Springfield High school. His duties at Willamette will also include instruction in physical education.

Chapman, a native of Culver City, Calif., replaces Jerry Long who recently became an assistant football coach under Tommy Prothro at Oregon State college.

During his sports career at Oregon under coach Len Casanova, Chapman was named center on the International News Service (INS) all-coast football squad of 1957.

Under Spiegelberg
A three-year letterman, the six-footer was co-captain of the U of O Rose Bowl team in 1958.

In high school, Chapman's prep career was under the guidance of Medford's Fred Spiegelberg. Chapman was co-captain for the state team in the 1954 prep Shrine game.

Chapman graduated from Oregon in 1958 after majoring in education.

He has been at Springfield High since 1959 teaching history and assisting in track along with the chief football job.

DOUBLE WINNERS
Mike Hood and Phil Humphreys were the meets only double winners and they helped Medford to victory in the half-mile relay. Hood took the high hurdles and the broad jump. He hit a couple of hurdles in the low barriers in a bid for a triple. Humphreys took the 100 and 220-yard dashes and anchored the relay effort. Tom Bortis took the other Medford first in the shot put.

At Staley picked up Grants Pass blue ribbon in the quarter-mile after Clyde Murray had won the high jump for GP. Bill Chronister took the half-mile for the Cavemen. In the pole vault Jay Hughes and Dave Ricks of the Cavemen tied for first and Vic Van Koten claimed third. Mike Curtis was the other GP first placer with the discus blue ribbon.

Rain fell only briefly during the afternoon event. The track was soft from previous rains but there were some fine times despite this handicap. Hood had a 15.1 in the high hurdles and Champ 20.7 in the lows. Humphreys had a 22.8 furlong and Medford's Bob Intyre was 22.9 in taking the second heat and second place.

CLOSE IN BROAD JUMP
It was close for the top three places in the broad jump with Hood going 20 feet 10 1/2 inches, Tom Hathaway of GP leaping 20-9 1/2 and Scott Eaton of Medford just a fourth inch back.

McIntyre led off and Eaton ran second leg as the Tornado took their relay in a good 1:32.2. Grants Pass took second despite a spill by Mike Pilkington on the first exchange. Crater fell out of the running on a spill by Champ on the last exchange.

Medford headed GP 52 11/14 to 47 with 10 events on the sheet. But when the Cavemen added their points in the half-mile the count was in the host team's favor 58 to 56 11/14. The sweep in the vault made it 70 to 58 for GP.
