Catholic Rites Wed Pair

Miss Jacquelyn Ernestine Skelton became the bride of Lawrence Arthur Brown in a ceremony held April 8 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. William McLeod officiated at the 1 o'clock afternoon rites attended by 125 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Skelton, 648 Ross lane. Mr. Brown's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Brown, 2220 Ruhl Way.

White lilies decorated the church altar for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of brocade satin in rose design with long sleeves, scoop neckline and bouffant skirt. The neckline was accented with tulle inserts, pearls and iridescent sequins and a self bow in back at the waistline formed a bustle which terminated in a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was held by a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis encircling a white orchid.

Mr. Skelton escorted his daughter to the altar.

Mrs. Forrest Cook was matron of honor and bridesmaids and matron were Miss Pam Gilkison, Miss Karen Stansbury, and Mrs. Robert Gyll, Seattle, sister of the bride.

groom. They wore dresses of yellow nylon flocked with daisies, matching hats and white gloves. They carried bouquets of pompon chrysanthemums.

Gerald Byrd served as best man and seating the guests were Mr. Cook, David Elrod, and Mr. Gyll, Seattle.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Jackson hotel, Mrs. Skelton chose a green silk shantung dress with matching jacket with bone white accessories. Mrs. Brown wore a pink silk linen jacket dress with white accessories. Their corsages were white orchids.

At the reception Mrs. H. H. Dorsey, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Claude Potts, and Mrs. David Elrod presided at the punch bowl. Miss Ann Barker poured coffee and Miss Diane Lewis was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to Portland on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a two-piece yellow linen suit with black accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. They are making their home at 509 South Holly street.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed as a secretary-receptionist for Dr. Laurel G. Case.

Methodist Ceremony Weds Couple

Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis Turner are making their home in Medford following their wedding April 15 at First Methodist church. Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring ceremony held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the former Loretta Elva Ayres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer V. Ayres, 28 South Orange street. Mr. Turner is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Turner, 1525 Jasper street.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an afternoon length frock of cotton brocade fashioned with scoop neckline, long sleeves and gathered skirt. Her elbow length veil was held by a flat bow and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and lavender orchids.

She wore an opal which was more than 100 years old, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Billie Carol Brahs, Grenada, Calif., was maid of honor for her cousin. She wore a lavender frock with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of lavender and white flowers. Little Debbie C. Brahs, six-year-old cousin of the bride from Yreka, Calif., was ring bearer. She also wore lavender and carried a white satin pillow with lavender and white flowers.

Gary Bachelor, Ft. Bragg, Calif., cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Leon Reisinger seated the 50 relatives and friends who attended the ceremony.

Lavender and white flowers decorated the altar in Meeker Memorial chapel for the wedding.

Mrs. Ayres chose a black and white checked dress with matching jacket and white accessories. Mrs. Turner wore a pink dress and jacket with blue accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Ayres' home. Miss Linda Wicker cut and served the wedding cake. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Frank Brahs and Mrs. William Brahs, aunts of the bride. Miss Sue Chittock was in charge of the guest book and the gifts.

The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. She is employed by Dr. Robert DeLorme. Mr. Turner was graduated from Eagle Point High school and attended the University of Oregon. He is now a student at Southern Oregon college.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ori G. Ayres, Ashland, paternal grandparents, and Mrs. Walter Brahs, Medford, maternal grandmother of the bride.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bachelor and family, Ft. Bragg, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Stewart and family, Auburn, Wash., uncles and aunts of the bridegroom; Mrs. Grace E. Lewis, Battle Ground, Wash.; Robert Ayres, San Francisco, brother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brahs and family, Yreka, and Mr. and Mrs. William Brahs and family, Grenada.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at three showers. They were given by Mrs. Lyle Collins, Mrs. Edward Ramsay and her daughter, Marybeth, and Mrs. Leon Reisinger and Miss Linda Wicker at the Sam Jennings residence.

Wilburn Dodd Honored Guest

A homecoming party honoring Wilburn K. Dodd, who has just returned from service overseas, was given last week at the home of Mrs. Hazel Middlekauff, 525 Valley View drive.

Slide pictures of Japan were shown to those attending.

A buffet luncheon was served and guests spent the rest of the evening dancing. More than 20 guests attended.

Reception Set Today

All friends of the Rev. Thomas McCamant and his family are invited to attend a farewell reception in their honor this afternoon. It will be held from three to five o'clock in Pilgrim House of Medford Congregational church, 300 Oakwood drive.

The Rev. Mr. McCamant, who has been pastor of the Congregational church for the past several years, is being transferred to Hubbard, Ore., and the family will leave May 1.

It is stressed that all friends of the McCamants from the various organizations in which they have worked are invited to attend the reception.

Award Luncheon Speaker Named

Mrs. Richard Dol, Ashland, will speak for the Merit Award of the Year luncheon planned by Medford Jayceettes for May 13 at Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Dol is the wife of an assistant professor of art at Southern Oregon college.

Mrs. Dol will wear Japanese ceremonial dress and will talk about the customs and dress of the women of Japan.

The merit award of the year will be presented to an outstanding young woman in the community. This will be the second annual May luncheon.

Three organizations of the valley have submitted their nominations for the award, and other groups are urged to do so at once. Deadline for the applications has been set for May 8. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Earl Pottruff, chairman, SPing 2-7882.
