

High School Class Holds Reunion

Members of Medford High school class of 1936 gathered at Rogue Valley Country club Saturday evening, April 15, for their 25th anniversary reunion. About 135 persons attended, including 83 members of the class.

Hugh Collins, class president, was master of ceremonies, with "assistance" from the assembled members, and the result "was not much improved over class meetings held a quarter of a century ago," officers reported.

Those at the head table included Mrs. Ray Griffin (Mary Powell), who was class secretary; Floyd Baker, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Main (Mildred Buckles), Girls league president.

Also present were Philip Lowry, student body president in his senior year; John Dickinson, president of Boys league; and Leonard Hicks, first semester president. Col. Bruce Hammond, stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif., with the United States Marine Corps, was vice-president of the class. He was unable to attend the reunion.

The prize for traveling the farthest distance to attend the reunion was shared by Mrs.

George Goodrich (LaVerne Stephenson) and Don Krouse, both from the Los Angeles area. Honors for the "baldiest head" went to Jeff Peters, with Tom Harvey a close second; for the woman with the whitest hair, Mrs. L. O. Rodgers (Velma Shelley). Parents of the largest family were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Todd, with seven children, while Floyd Baker and his wife, the former Peggy Reter, won the award for the newest baby, their fifth child and the first son, five months old.

Prizes Given

Longest married was Mrs. Howard Conger (Margaret Purcell), who will shortly celebrate her 25th wedding anniversary, while the most recent wedding was that of Mrs. O. A. Mosley (Doris Ellenburg). Prize for the only bachelor present went to Jack Thompson. Robert Cherry was winner of a special prize.

Class members responsible for the reunion were Mrs. Charles Main (Mildred Buckles); Mrs. John Henson (Mary Lou Long); Mrs. C. H. Thompson (Glenna Minear); Jack Thompson, Harvey Field and Tom Harvey. Decorations at the club were planned by Mrs.

C. E. Chamberlain (Betty Purdin), Mrs. William Barker (Beth Hewitt), and Mrs. Conger. Blossoms in the arrangements at the head table came from cherry trees on the high school grounds which had been donated to the school by Naoko and Akiko Saito, Japanese sisters who belonged to the class and who are now Mrs. Kenneth Yabiro and Mrs. Gary Yasutake, both of Chicago.

Robert Gail, student body yell leader, led the class in their favorite school cheer, "Allah," honoring each reunion committee member.

Messages Read

Among those who were unable to attend, but who sent messages to their classmates, were Howard Schreengost, now serving with the Army Intelligence Corps; Mrs. Yabiro and Mrs. Yasutake, the latter now a dress designer in Chicago; William Porter, a bachelor who is an automobile dealer in Bellevue, Wash.; Allen Busey, sculptor, Dorr Barrett, detective, Paul Nelson, electronics engineer, and Mrs. Chloé Ellenburg, all residents of Hawaii; Mrs. Lloyd Staples (Phoebe Dean) whose husband is a geologist in Mexico City; Roy Hensley, in Jakarta, Indonesia, on a Ford Foundation fellowship; Col. Bruce Hammond, with the Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton, Calif.; and Mrs. Robert Squires (Elsie Brophy), Omaha, Neb.

Graduates from out of town for the reunion were Robert Archer, Glendale, Calif.; Mrs. John Wood (Rosemary Canine) and Stanley Gibson, Albany; Robert Cherry, Cave Junction; Mrs. F. Dolenshek (Marcia Chamberlain), Trail; Ivan Cobb, Carmichael, Calif.; Mrs. O. Mosley (Doris Ellenburg), Seattle; Leonard G. Hicks and Mrs. R. Griffin (Mary Powell), Salem; Robert Gail, Rogue River; William F. Goodman, Fresno, Calif.; Raymond Hubbard, Dr. Ted Lindley, Phillip Todd and Delmar Wright, Klamath Falls; Don Kraus, Whittier, Calif.; Mrs. Richard Westerfield (Virginia Loomis), Ashland.

Mrs. B. Mathews (LaVerne McCulloch), Umatilla; Lawrence Pennington, Redding; Mrs. L. Smith (Lola Remington), San Jose, Calif.; Mrs. L. Rodgers (Velma Shelley), Prospect; Mrs. M. Webb (Verona Shelley), Yreka; Mrs. George Goodrich (LaVerne Stephenson), Mireleste, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vallier (Carol Scheffel), Belmont, Calif.; Donald Wright and Robert Young, Portland.

The reunion committee was unable to obtain only 13 members' present addresses.

Among the many women who served on committees for the annual benefit tea of the American Cancer society were (left to right) Mrs. John S. Day, Mrs. Scott Ellis and Mrs. Ivan Harrington. Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Harrington were co-chairmen in charge of arrangements and the tea was given, as it is each year, at Hillcrest House, one of the homes of Mrs. Day's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Parsons. Mrs. Day's work for the Cancer society includes boards and committees on state and regional levels.

Fun Night Announced

Washington school and Washington Parent-Teacher association are planning a "Family Fun Night" Friday, April 28, beginning at 6:30 p.m., when all the fathers will play softball against the fifth and sixth grade boys. The winning team will receive a trophy which will then be on display in the school.

At 7:30 p.m. Johnny Eads will present his magic show in the school gymnasium. There will be a small charge per individual, or a maximum charge per family. The program will be followed by a Walt Disney movie "Bear Country."

A baked food sale will be held in the hallway and refreshments will be sold in the school cafeteria during the movie and later. Mrs. Ed Evans, committee member, stressed that the event is for the entire family and casual dress is suggested for all attending.

Meeting Planned For Chapter AA

Mrs. Myers Jones, 49 South Modoc avenue, will be hostess for a luncheon and meeting of Chapter AA, PEO sisterhood, Wednesday, April 26. Mrs. T. O. Brandenburg and Mrs. James McGoodwin will assist the hostess.

Jack Raapke will speak on "Wall Decorations" for the program.

Annual Event To Benefit County Cancer Society

Talent—The Talent branch of the Jackson County Cancer society has completed plans for the annual benefit silver tea and ceramic show to be held at the Talent City hall Friday, April 28.

The hall will open at 9:30 a.m. for entries, judging will be completed by 12:30 p.m. and the event will be open for visitors from 1 to 8:30 p.m.

Demonstrations will be given throughout the event, with those of special interest planned for the evening. Slated for 8:30 p.m. is a demonstration of wheel throwing by Robert Onstad, Ashland; at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Ruby Ralston, Medford, will demonstrate mold making and sculpture, and Mrs. Clarkley Knight, Klamath Falls, will demonstrate work with copper foil. Mrs. Knight took several prizes at the recent ceramic show in Portland.

Ribbons will be awarded in several classes. Those interested in entering are asked to call Mrs. C. O. Long or Mrs. John Baldwin, Talent.

The sweepstakes award will be a year's subscription to the magazine, "Popular Ceramics" donated by one of the committee members. Other prizes will be given. All proceeds from the annual show and tea will be donated to the Cancer society.

Operetta Set Friday

The choruses of McLoughlin Junior High school have chosen for their annual operetta the musical comedy, "Good News." It will be presented at the school gymnasium Friday, April 28, at 8 p.m.

"Good News" was published by Samuel French in answer to the increasing demand in the United States for musical comedy which amateurs could present. It is described as a "clean, charming and wholesome" story of college, with romance and humor, and catchy songs and dances.

Ray Lewis of the faculty is director, and he will be assisted by Colleen Hope and Margine Thurston as dance directors.

Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Arnold, 1202 Maple Park drive, were honored recently on their 25th wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. Arnold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold, 4603 Gebhardt road, Central Point.

Approximately 15 relatives and friends attended the event. Among the out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Larry Furlong, sister of Mr. Arnold, and her daughter, Marlene; Mrs. George Hawkins, another daughter, and her two children, Kathy and Russell, all Redding, Calif.; Marvin and Susie Williams, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Nogie, Millo, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sanderson Jr., Prospect, and two children, niece and nephew.

The following evening the Arnolds entertained their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham, 1202 1/2 Maple Park drive.

The Reuben Arnolds were married March 30, 1936 in Central City, Neb. They have lived in southern Oregon for the past 23 years where Mr. Arnold is in millwork.
