

SCHOOL NEWS

Oak Grove School

Mrs. Ruth Dunn's second grade wrote stories about the different types of homes in which we live. Keith Lee wrote about his two-story house.

Donald Wilson, in Mrs. Ruth Urie's fourth grade, drew some cartoon characters. Some of them are Casper, Bugs Bunny, and Elmer Fudd. They are very good and we put them on our bulletin board for display.

Our room put on a play for Easter called "The Easter Bunny." The costumes were made by Mrs. Urie.

We made some murals for the play. One mural was a castle and the other was a forest scene with flowers and a wolf.

We have learned some round dances that represent different sections of our country. The dances are the Oklahoma Mixer, the Virginia Reel, California Schottische, and the Glow Worm.

Mrs. Dena DeKorte's room won the room count at the last PTA meeting. But since they had won a few times before they gave the ice cream to Mrs. Grace Kirtley's room because they came in second. In silence, they are studying about bees and ants. Jerry Beliveau brought some ants to school.

Each class member has had a chance to write a thank-you letter to the Eagle Point Grange for the trees. Every child in our school received an evergreen tree.

The fourth grade girls were proud of their volleyball victory over the fifth grade girls.

One of the part time activities in Mrs. DeKorte's room is a musical bottle instrument. Mr. Jacobs started the children on the project when he put on an assembly.

Red Demonstrator Lacks Authorization

Washington - (UPI) - U.S. diplomatic officials Saturday reported a Moscow "footnote" to the Cuban invasion story.

It seems that while Moscow residents were "spontaneously" demonstrating against the U.S. embassy there this week, Russian police excluded some would-be demonstrators from the embassy area.

Officials said one Soviet cop was overheard telling a demonstrator, "You can't come here. You're not part of the authorized demonstration group."

Mrs. Corinne Kane's sixth grade room has two new boys in their class. They are John Damron, who recently lived in Crescent City, and Dan Corcoran, who came from Lincoln school.

In art, they are making mosaic pictures and are sketching scenes outside. Sandra Larson and Paulette Hendrickson made a Easter mosaic.

We are reviewing the United States in geography. Everyone has chosen two states to make a report on.

Mrs. Florence Connor's fifth grade arithmetic group is making scale drawings. Greg Collins and Gary Ekberg are drawing the school gymnasium. Marilyn Dumais did her bedroom, and Sue Parsons did her room.

There are two new boys in Mrs. Connor's room. They are Ronnie Hamilton and Phillip Corcoran. Ronnie was with us last year.

Mike Flinn brought some pictures of his trip to Yosemite National park, and Greg Collins made a report on Yellowstone National park.

In English we have a homonym contest. Leslie Wievesek won. She had 220 pairs. Terry Lawless had 105 and Carol Dykstra had 72 pairs.

KIDNAP SUSPECT-This composite drawing has been identified by Anne Bristow, 6, of Madera, Calif., as the man who kidnaped and molested her. The girl, abducted after the man lured her into his car with candy, was released eight hours later at a trailer park in Porterville. (UPI Telephoto)

Six Students Are Named Winners in Plymouth Contest

Six Medford High school students have been named winners in the local Plymouth Trouble Shooting contest held at the high school recently.

The contest, one of 30 in the U.S. and seven in Oregon, is designed to give recognition and encouragement to young men who have shown "outstanding talent" as automobile technicians.

Winning teams were Jim Sevelik, sophomore, and Clarence Lamp, junior, first place; Carl Luckterhand and Bill Strawn, both seniors, second; and Joe LeFaive and Warren Jackson, seniors, third.

Trophies Presented

Trophies for the winning teams were presented to the school, and the six students are eligible to compete in the state-wide contest May 19. Each of the 16 local youths participating received a car plaque, and members of the three top teams also were presented tools.

This is the first year that Medford has participated in this type of event, made possible by the cooperation of local school officials, Hamlin Motor company, Medford, and service representatives of the Plymouth division of Chrysler corporation.

Others Competing Locally

Others competing locally were Bob Thresher, Jay McCleary, John Pierce, Bruce Bray, Don Weter, Ken Wise, Pat Dunlevy, Jerry Wine-

SOC Foundation Meets on Campus

Ashland - Dr. Elmo N Stevenson, Southern Oregon college president, was host recently to members of the SOC foundation at an informal luncheon held here.

Discussed were Foundation policies regarding the use of funds and their collection, financial reports, and development purposes. Dr. Stevenson noted that development purposes would be concerned with construction of buildings not supported by taxpayers' funds, promotion of various non-supported activities of the college, such as athletics, and the supporting of college publications for which no state funds were allotted.

Members attending included Frank VanDyke and Herb Gray, Medford; Donald E. Lewis, assistant to Dr. Stevenson, Edd E. Rountree, and Mrs. Dorothy E. Busch, Ashland; Don McGreagor, Grants Pass; and Otto Bohnert, Central Point.

Foundation officers are Dr. Stevenson, president; Ralph Moore, Grants Pass, vice president; Mrs. Busch, secretary; and VanDyke, treasurer.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

-William I. Wiggs, Ashland Junior High school teacher and Southern Oregon college graduate, has been awarded a Garner scholarship to Mississippi State university and a graduate assistantship from the Pennsylvania State university for the coming year. The Garner scholarship carries a stipend of $1,000 for a nine-month term, and an additional sum will be paid for teaching and other extra duties.

PORTLANDER HURT

Big Spring, Tex. - (UPI) - First Lt. John P. Ewing, 25, Portland, a student pilot, was seriously injured and his instructor killed when their T-33 jet plane crashed a mile south of Webb Air Force base Friday.
