ALL SMILES—Jay Hebert is all smiles as he is shown with his $7,000 check and championship cup after winning the Houston Classic golf tournament yesterday. Hebert defeated Ken Venturi on the 19th hole in their playoff match. The pair tied for first Sunday. Venturi collected $3,600 for second place. (UPI Telephoto)

TIGERS WIN 8TH

Mazeroski Homer Gives Bucs 7 To 6 Victory Over Braves

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

It took just one swish of Bill Mazeroski's bat to make the Pittsburgh Pirates and their fans tingle with World the last 1 1-3 innings. Tito day.

Mazeroski, whose average had dwindled to a mere .179, connected against Moe Drabowsky Monday night to lift the Pirates to a 7-6 victory over the Milwaukee Braves and into a three-way tie for second place in the National league. It was Mazeroski's first homer since his historic ninth-inning smash gave the Pirates their ninth-inning 10-9 triumph over the New York Yankees last autumn.

Near Same Spot

The blow rose in a high trajectory and soared over the fence only about 30 feet to the left of the "big one" Mazeroski hit off Ralph Terry. It sent the Pirates in front, 5-4, and enabled Bob Friend to gain his third straight win of the season with the relief of Clem Labine in the ninth.

It was the only National league game of the day or night but the Detroit Tigers ran their winning streak to eight games with a 4-3 decision over the New York Yankees, the Cleveland Indians whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 5-1, and the Minnesota Twins beat the Kansas City Athletics, 10-6, in 10 innings, in American league action.

Frank Lary raised his lifetime mark against the Yankees to an almost incredible 24-8 with a seven-hitter that stretched the American league champions' losing streak to three games. Norm Cash put the Tigers in front, 3-2, with a homer off Bob Turley in the fourth inning and the Tigers added their final run in the fifth on Al Kaline's double and the second of three hits by Steve Boros. Lary has now scored three straight victories.

Hits Grand Slam

Bubba Phillips hit the first grand slam homer of his career to provide Cleveland's Jim Perry with his second straight win of the young campaign. Perry, yielding seven walks and seven hits, was rescued by rookie Frank Funk, who pitched perfect ball over the last 1 1-3 innings. Tito Francona and Vic Power supported the Indians' attack with two hits each.

Earl Battey's three-run double and Reno Bertoia's double that followed produced four 10th inning runs and gave the Twins their eighth victory in 10 games.

Rogue Valley League Won't Operate in '61

The Rogue Valley baseball league will not operate during the 1961 season, league president Harry Chipman announced today. Only two teams, Medford and Grants Pass, have indicated their readiness to field clubs, he said.

Crescent City reports show sufficient player interest but a lack of interest by sponsors while Cave Junction reported sponsor interest plentiful but a shortage of player potential. Riddle earlier reported sponsors and players had been obtained but team managers failed to respond to league entry deadline notices. No word on whether or not they would field a team was received from Ashland.

Chipman said that time is now too short to arrange playing schedules if enough teams should come forth to make a league possible.

Roseburg won the league championship last year but dropped out to join the newly-formed Oregon State league.

Davies, Dunn Winners in Golf

Mrs. Helen Davies and Jack Dunn with a 38 were low gross winners Sunday in the three-ball golf six-some tourney at Rogue Valley Country club.

Low net was taken by Mrs. Tom Tubbs and Warren Bayliss with 30¼. Twenty-five couples participated.

Second low gross score was 43 compiled by Mrs. Bayliss and Glen Fabrick. Second low net were Mrs. Bill Cowning and Dr. William Miller with 34½. Mrs. Bill Hartman and Dr. Bruce Stanley were next with 35¼.

Mrs. Davies took closest to the pin and long drive prizes for low handicap women and Bob Palmer the same honors for high handicap men. Mrs. Ed Nave and Mrs. Tubbs claimed closest to pin and long drive honors, respectively, for ladies with high handicaps. Among the low handicap men Dr. Bruce Stanley was closest to the pin and Dr. William Miller had long drive.

Jay Hebert Scores Win In Playoff

Houston—(UPI)—Jay Hebert, the pride of Lafayette, La., said he felt at home Monday as the warm Gulf wind shook the tops of the pines along the Memorial Park course and he parlayed the "homey" feeling into $7,000 top money in the Houston Classic golf tournament.

Hebert, who lived in Houston for a year after starring at Louisiana State university, beat Californian Ken Venturi on the 19th hole after the pair went around their scheduled playoff round of 18 holes with identical 69s.

Venturi, who took $3,600 second place money, was once three strokes down during the match, but applied the pressure and caught Hebert on the 18th with a birdie three while the Louisianan was three-putting for a bogey.

They moved on to the 19th hole where Hebert dropped a 10-foot putt to win top money. Venturi missed his birdie putt from about 12 feet.

STRIPPED OF TITLE

Paris—(UPI)—Gustav Scholz of Germany was stripped of his European middleweight title by the European Boxing Union Monday for refusing to meet Hungary's Laszlo Papp in a championship bout.

Rocky Marciano May Manage Sonny Liston

Boston—(UPI)—Rocky Marciano, retired heavyweight champ, would manage Sonny Liston if the heavyweight contender accepts a contract purchase offer from a Massachusetts dog track owner.

Marciano said Monday his present employer, Russ Murray, offered Liston $150,000 for his contract. Murray operates Raynham park in Taunton, and Marciano is his public relations man.

Liston, who has been trying to get a fight with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson for some time, has rid himself of former manager Pep Barone.

Patterson has refused to give Liston a crack at the crown because of Barone.

Marciano said that if the sale goes through "Russ wants me to be Liston's manager." He said he would like to manage a heavyweight champion and the Philadelphia boxer 'obviously has that potential."

STARTS LONG WAIT

Indianapolis, Ind.—(UPI)—Motor racing enthusiast Lawrence Bisceglia of Long Beach, Calif., was back at his old camping spot today in front of the Indianapolis Speedway box office. Bisceglia has been unhitching his trailer here for the past 13 years to attend the Memorial Day "500" classic.

Portland in Race For Major Team

Portland—(UPI)—Bill Sayles, general manager of the Portland Pacific Coast league baseball team, said Monday Portland was in a "tight race" with Seattle for the first major league franchise for the Pacific Northwest.

Salyes told the Chamber of Commerce major league baseball would draw one million paid admissions here. He said he based his estimate on experience of San Francisco and Los Angeles which formerly belonged to the PCL and then joined the major leagues.

NFL Wants No Part Of Redskin Problem

San Francisco—(UPI)—The National Football league indicated today that it will have nothing to do with the problem involving Negroes and George Preston Marshall's Washington Redskins football team.

Representatives of the 14 clubs, here for the spring convention of the league, want no part of the ruckus involving Marshall and the new stadium in the nation's capital.

"That's his problem," was the consensus.

Pete Rozelle, commissioner of the NFL, said he would not take part in the trouble.

"That's strictly a club problem and the league office is not concerned with it," said Rozelle.

"It's something that Mr. Marshall will have to work out."

Officials in Washington ton have told Marshall that he should hire Negro players—or face the possibility of being barred from the new stadium being constructed there.

Today the general managers of the 14 clubs met to discuss ways and means of increasing the steadily zooming NFL attendance.

Rozelle reported a survey of the clubs indicated attendance in the league would be up again in 1961.

"Advance season ticket sales indicated we'll have more than 70,000 season tickets sold this year than we had last," said Rozelle.

Basilio To Retire From Ring

Syracuse, N.Y.—(UPI)—Carmen Basilio, one of the most dedicated and courageous men ever to lace on a pair of boxing gloves, has decided to hang 'em up.

Barring an unlikely change of mind, the 34-year-old former middleweight and welterweight champion from Chittenango, N.Y., made the anticipated announcement officially today with a terse explanation to sports editor Billy Reddy of the Syracuse Post Standard.

"I decided to retire," Basilio told Reddy. "I've always made my own decisions and this is mine. It's not an easy decision but it is getting harder to keep going at 34 years old."

Basilio, smiling through the lumps and cuts he absorbed during a 15-round loss to N.Y.-Mass.-Europe middleweight champion Paul Pender Saturday night, added: "Against Pender, I just ran out of gas."

Basilio said he had several job offers but "will rest and think things over for about a week" before deciding which to accept.

Nadine Brood on Cage Squad at Linfield

Linfield College, McMinnville—Nadine Brood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brood, Dark Hollow rd., Medford, has been a member of the women's intercollegiate basketball team at Linfield college.

Miss Brood, a junior majoring in physical education, played forward on the team and scored 22 points.

Gymkhana On Sunday

Siskiyou Sports Car club will be host for a gymkhana on Sunday, April 30.

The event will be at the Medford armory parking lot with registration of cars and drivers starting at 9 a.m. First car will go out at 10 a.m.

Registration will close at halftime—when each of the cars has run through the course once.

Welcome Extended

The event is open to all persons with sports or imported cars. Spectators also will be welcomed by club members.

The club also extends a welcome to prospective members and guests to attend meets the first and third Fridays of each month at Radio station KMED. Meetings start at 8 p.m.

Members, in addition to conducting their own activities, tour to neighboring clubs to take part in competition. A Siskiyou member, Evelyn Spears, won the powder puff event on Sunday, April 16, in a meet at Roseburg. Eight cars from SSCC made the trek to Rosebur.
