

ATHLETICS HAVE RUN BINGE, CLUB MINNESOTA TWINS 20-2

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Live it up, you long-suffering Kansas City fans!
No one is more entitled.
This is one time you can really rave about a fearsome powerhouse like those record-breaking Athletics and who's going to give you any back talk?
Start the conversation mildly, maybe even by discussing how greatly improved the Minnesota Twins look this year. Everyone is sure to agree.
Then drop the bomb by casually mentioning Tuesday night's score—Kansas City 20, Minnesota 2.

It marked the most runs ever scored in Kansas City's major league history, topping the previous club high of 17 runs registered against the Boston Red Sox on June 15, 1958, and against the Cleveland Indians on April 24, 1957.

The only player in the Kansas City lineup who failed to connect safely in Tuesday night's 16-hit onslaught was rookie pitcher Norm Bass, making his first major league start. Understandably, Bass wasn't too upset, though, because he limited the Twins to seven hits and gained his first victory even though he issued nine walks.

Nary A Homer
For all the heavy slugging, there wasn't a single home run hit in the game, played before a meager but delighted crowd of 4,664 at Kansas City. Haywood Sullivan had a perfect night, driving in five runs with a pair of triples, a double and a single in four official trips.

Bill Tuttle, the only player left on the club who participated in the 17-6 shellacking of Boston three years ago, drove in four runs with a triple and two singles. The A's routed loser Ted Sadowski during a six-run rally in the third inning and then rubbed the Twins' noses in the dirt.

Larry Jackson May Take Hill

St. Louis—UPI—Larry Jackson, who has been idle for four weeks with a jaw fracture, will probably be back on the mound tonight when the St. Louis Cardinals take on the Milwaukee Braves.

The big workhorse has been on a liquid diet but lost only a few pounds. It was his first baseball injury and he said he was "mighty glad" to be over.
He dug into a dinner of ground steak and soft foods Tuesday after Dr. I. C. Middleton, the Cards' physician, removed the wires from his jaw. Since March 27, when he was struck on the jaw in Florida by a portion of a bat from the hands of Duke Snider of the Dodgers, Jackson has been on a diet of such foods as thin soups and milk shakes.

with an eight-run outburst in the sixth.
Baltimore beat Cleveland, 5-2, and Boston defeated Washington, 6-1, in other American League games. Wet grounds caused postponement of the Los Angeles Angels-Chicago White Sox game, and rain washed out the game between the first-place Detroit Tigers and the New York Yankees.

Giants Lead NL
San Francisco took over the National League lead with a 3-1 victory over Los Angeles, and Milwaukee beat St. Louis, 4-3. Rain and wet grounds forced postponement of the Philadelphia-Pittsburgh game and the Cincinnati-Chicago contest.

"Diamond Jim" Gentile

drove in three runs in Baltimore's win over Cleveland. Gentile hit his third homer of the season with one on in the first inning to give winning pitcher Steve Barber a lead he never let slip away. Hoyt Wilhelm nailed down Barber's second victory when he came in with two on and two out in the ninth and struck out Jim Piersall on three pitches. Gary Bell lost his third straight and has yet to win.

Big Gene Conley, better known for his basketball rather than his baseball exploits in Boston, made a successful debut with the Red Sox when he was credited with their victory over the Senators. Obtained in a winter deal with the Phillies, Conley held Washington to seven hits until the ninth when Mike Fornieles came to his rescue.

The Red Sox hopped on loser Pete Burnside for four runs on as many hits in the second inning when they put together Billy Harrell's double, three singles, an error, a hit batsman and a sacrifice fly for all the runs they really needed.

Willey McCovey paced the Giants in their victory over the Dodgers. McCovey singled home San Francisco's first run off loser Don Drysdale in the first inning and then homered to lead off the fourth. Wally Moon's 12-game hitting streak came to an end as winner Jack Sanford and reliever Stu Miller limited the Dodgers to four hits.

Lew Burdette scored his first victory for the Braves by checking the Cardinals on six hits. The Braves kayoed loser Curt Simmons during a three-run rally in the eighth, which was helped by Red Schoendienst's throwing error. Stan Musial homered with the bases empty in the ninth but Burdette retired the next three men in order to end the game.

Grand Slam Debut Made By Blackaby

United Press International
A rookie by the name of Ethan Allen Blackaby probably never will forget how he helped open the Northwest league baseball season Tuesday night.

Blackaby, signed off the University of Illinois campus and owned by the Milwaukee Braves, got his first hit in organized baseball in the fifth inning of the Yakima-Eugene game.

All the Yakima center fielder did was slam one out of the park for a grand slam homer as the Bears went on to trounce Eugene 12-2.

Lewiston blanked Salem 3-0 and Wenatchee outlasted Tri-City 10-8 in other games.

14 Hits
Yakima collected 14 hits in all and coasted home behind Roger Roy who fanned 12 and walked but one. Roy Menzies of the winners tripled in the eighth with the bases loaded.

Larry Danford of Lewiston let Salem down with five hits. The lefty fanned 10 and issued nary a walk. Dick Green of Lewiston homered in the eighth with nobody aboard. Danford helped his own cause in the seventh with a double and scored on a single by Pat Slak.

Wenatchee collected 13 hits in taking Tri-City with lefty Wayne Carlander getting credit for the win although he needed help.

Duke Durdan of Tri-City hit a solo homer in the ninth. Ken Hubbs and Ken Fisher of the winners had homers in the fourth inning.

WSU Belts Washington
Pullman, Wash.—UPI—Washington State successfully opened defense of its Northern Division baseball crown Tuesday by belting Washington 7-4 and 12-1 in a doubleheader here.

The Cougars now lead the circuit with a 2-0 record. Idaho is 1-1 and Washington 1-3. Oregon and Oregon State have yet to see conference action.

OSC Drubs Willamette

Salem—UPI—Oregon State banged out 16 hits and got two-hit pitching from seven pitchers Tuesday to wallop Willamette 16-0 in a non-conference baseball game.

Six hurlers held the Beavers hitless until the ninth but Willamette finally got to Leon Criner for two scratch hits, an infield single by Dave Brook and a Texas leaguer by Junior Sato.

Dave Hayward and Grimm Mason homered for Oregon State.

Giants Top Dodgers To Gain First Spot

By ALEX KAHN
Los Angeles—UPI—Mike McCormick, the classy young lefty of the Giants, was manager Alvin Dark's choice to start against the Los Angeles Dodgers tonight in an effort to make it two in a row for San Francisco.

The old rivals from their New York and Brooklyn days met for the first time this season Tuesday night. The Giants got an excellent combined pitching job from starter Jack Sanford and reliever Stu Miller in chalking up a 3-1 victory.

The Dodgers' Stan Williams will oppose the Giants on the strength of a 3-2 record against them last year. McCormick, however, was 4-1 against the Dodgers in 1980, shutting them out on three occasions.

Tuesday's victory moved the Giants past Los Angeles by a few percentage points into first place. Manager Dark was pleased with getting by Dodger starter Don Drysdale, who held a lifetime 16-12 mark against the Giants.

"For a 3-1 game it was a wild and woolly contest," Alston commented. "Drysdale was wild or he wouldn't have hit two batters and walked six men. Maybe an extra day's rest was responsible, I don't know."

Although the four-hit pitching by Sanford and McCovey's bat stood out for the Giants, a great defensive play by Willie Mays cut off a possible Dodger rally in the seventh when Los Angeles scored its only run.

With one away and men on second and third, Moon flied to Mays who said the ball spun erratically, but he made the catch and threw out the Dodgers' shortstop Maury Wills at the plate for a double play to end the inning.

"I doubt if I could do that again," Mays said, "especially with a fast man like Wills on third."

Rookie second baseman Chuck Hiller was the only man aside from McCovey to hit for extra bases, leading off the first with a double and getting another double in the sixth.

Ron Perranoski and Larry Sherry finished out the game for Drysdale, who was charged with the loss. Miller worked three innings in relief of Sanford and did not give up a hit.

SOC Scores Links Win

Senior Captain Gordy Marlatt carded a one-over par 73 to lead the Southern Oregon college golf team to a 15-0 trouncing of rival Oregon Tech at the Rogue Valley Country club here Tuesday afternoon.

Marlatt put together rounds of 39 and 34 for his 18 hole total which gave him medalist honors for the match. Southern Oregon's Phil Mongrain, Bob Jones, and Tony Lopez all chipped in with 77's to insure the Raider triumph.

The other Raider player, Dick Wood, added an 86 to finish out the SOC scoring.

Next action for coach Al Akins' Raider squad is a match at Eugene next Wednesday with the University of Oregon Webfoots.

PLAY SWEDISH STARS

Stockholm, Sweden—UPI—The United States AAU basketball team, currently on tour in Russia, will play in Sweden May 9 or 10, according to Aaks Nilsson, chairman of Sweden's Sports Federation.

The third round of the tournament was scheduled to start as soon as the second matches were completed over the long No. 2 Pinehurst Country Club course.

Dale Morey of Morganton, N.C., who moved out of the pack to a challenging position by ousting medalist Wayne Jackson of Hampton, Va., 3 and 2 Tuesday, was matched against Ed Tutwiler of Charleston, W. Va., in the second round.

And defending champion Charlie Smith of Gastonia, N.C., took on Anthony Culinax who almost blew his six-hole advantage in the opening round.

RALLY CHANCE STOPPED—End of a possible Los Angeles Dodger rally in the seventh inning came with this play yesterday in National League baseball game with San Francisco. Charlie Neal of Dodgers is tagged at the plate by Giant catcher Tom Haller, who took a long throw from centerfielder Willie Mays. Mays had just taken Wally Moon's fly for an out and the throw to the plate completed a double play that retired the Dodgers. Umpire Ed Vargo starts to call Neal out and Dodgers' Norm Larker (5) watches the play. The Giants won 3-1. (UPI Telephoto)

MH Tennis Gang Beats SO Jayvees

Medford High school tennis team defeated the Southern Oregon college junior varsity 6 to 1 here yesterday.

The Tornado netters won all of the singles and divided the two doubles engagements.

In singles John McKinley won from Byron Palmer, 6-1, 6-2. Jim Randles defeated Rolland Hegler, 6-2, 6-1. Gary Highland subdued George Converse, 8-6, 6-0. Art House downed Court Boardman, 6-1, 6-0, and Jim Yoder beat LeRoy Hannon, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

House and Highland teamed in doubles to defeat Palmer and Converse, 6-1, 6-4. For the Red Raiders of SO, Hegler and Boardman defeated Yoder and Bob Minshall, 9-7, 6-3.

The Medford crew plays at Klamath Falls on Friday and entertains Grants Pass on Saturday. Grants Pass is being called a shoo-in for the Southern Oregon conference round robin honors but Medford is in the running for a co-championship.

Ex-Champs Vie In North-South

Pinehurst, N.C.—UPI—Two former North and South Amateur champions come face-to-face today in the second round of the 61st annual tournament.

Three-time winner Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., faced Frank Strafaci of Miami, Fla., who captured the crown twice in the late 30s.

The third round of the tournament was scheduled to start as soon as the second matches were completed over the long No. 2 Pinehurst Country Club course.

Tacomans Triumph 7-1 Over Beavers

United Press International
Have the Tacoma Giants of the Pacific Coast league come up with another top-flight pitcher?

Last year Tacoma had Juan Marichal who went so good he moved upstairs to the parent San Francisco Giants before the season was out.

Tuesday night, m a n a g e r Red Davis gave the home fans a look at rookie right-hander Ron Herbel and they liked what they saw. Herbel, who reportedly signed off the Colorado State campus three years ago for a $60,000 bonus, tossed a two-hitter and the Giants romped to a 7-1 victory over Portland.

Gagliano Hits
In other games, Seattle took Salt Lake 6-2, Vancouver moved into the league lead with a 3-2 win over San Diego and Spokane downed Hawaii 11-5.

Herbel, leading hurler in the Texas League last season, had trouble only with Phil Gagliano who raked him for both hits. One was a harmless single in the fourth. The other, a triple in the ninth, resulted in Portland's lone run when Gagliano crossed on a sacrifice fly.

Tacoma got enough in the second inning when Larry Stubing hit a two-run homer. Benny Valenzuela's base-loaded single increased the score to 4-0 in the fourth and three singles and another double by Valenzuela were good for three more in the sixth.

Relief pitcher Phil Paine got Vancouver into first place when he stopped a San Diego uprising in the ninth. Mike Hersherberger had doubled in two runs, but Paine retired Bobby Knoop to end it.

Charles Homers
Ed Charles hit a solo homer for the Mounties in the first and Vancouver added single runs in the fifth and sixth to save the victory for Noel Michelsen.

Seattle pushed across four runs in the seventh against Salt Lake thanks largely to three walks and three errors by the Bees. The miscues Colorado State campus three years ago for a $60,000 bonus, tossed a two-hitter and the Giants romped to a 7-1 victory over Portland.

Hal Kolstad picked up the victory for the Suds although he was relieved in the seventh.

Spokane struck for five runs in the seventh and added three more in the ninth for its win over Hawaii. Phil Oreta worked six innings and received his first victory of the season.

Spokane loaded the sacks in the seventh on three hits and got one run on a walk. A throwing error accounted for two more runs and two more singles gave the Indians their big inning.

Bob Giggie suffered his first loss, giving up 11 hits before being removed in the seventh with the sacks loaded and no one out.

Buckaroos Open Series

Portland—UPI—The Portland Buckaroos and Seattle Totems collide here tonight in the first game of their best of seven Western Hockey league final playoff series.

The Bucks moved to the final series by downing Spokane and Vancouver in quarter-final and semi-final playoff action while Seattle advanced by downing Calgary four games to one.

Portland finished in second spot during regular season play while the Totems were fourth.

The Bucks downed Seattle seven times in 11 innings in regular season play.

The second and third games also will be played here, Friday and Sunday. The first game in Seattle is next Tuesday.
