4-H NEWS

The Experimenters
The Experimenters 4-H club met at the home of our leader, Mrs. Duggan.
The meeting was called to order by President Marthanne Goodwin. We welcomed Carolyn Peterson into the club as a new member. We made bread and worked on our sewing.
The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Duggan's on Second st., May 6, at 11 a.m.
Margaret Goodwin, Reporter.

Smart Cookies
The April 24 meeting of the Smart Cookies 4-H club was called to order by the president, Sue Lisenbee. Roxanne Whipple called the roll. Each member said the 4-H pledge as the roll was called. Each knew it well.
John Gilham and Gordon Bratten demonstrated peanut butter cookies. The cookies were served for refreshments. Corinne Flory led us in singing songs. We will not have a meeting next week as Mrs. Flory will not be in town.
Karyn Ricks, Reporter.

Goody Cookers
The Jacksonville Goody Cookers 4-H club held a meeting April 15 at Patty Glather's home. A mothers tea was discussed, and it was decided that it would be held May 13 at Nell's home at 2:30 p.m.
A demonstration was given on how to make muffins by Donna Smith and Cynthia Charlie. Patty Glather served refreshments.
Leslie Johnson, Reporter.

Pioneer Stitches
Pioneer Stitches 4-H Sewing club held its third and fourth meetings at the home of our leader, Mrs. Gary Boshears. We showed each other our strips of cloth on which we had made stitches with thread.
At our fourth meeting we cut, pinned, and basted our place mats together, with the help of Mrs. Charles Heffner and Mrs. Clayton Charley. Mrs. Boshears asked us to have these sewed together by our next meeting.
Marta Heffner, Reporter.

Sewing Susans
Members of the Applegate Sewing Susans 4-H club has decided to invite members of a Medford club to be guests at their June 5 meeting.
Susan Head and Adrienne Brion gave a demonstration on how to make a garment protector at the last meeting.
Alicia Elmore, Reporter.

Dairy Club
The April meeting of the Griffin Creek Dairy club was held at the home of Steve Clark. The meeting was called to order by President Marthanne Goodwin.
We judged dairy cows from the Board's Dairyman magazine and gave our reasons on placings. We were also instructed in the proper method of filling out our record books.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Marthanne Goodwin on Marshall ave. May 11 at 7:30 p.m.
Margaret Goodwin, Reporter.

Stitch In Time
Members of the Stitch In Time 4-H club had a sewing work party for their April meeting at the home of Margaret Carnegie.
In recent meetings they talked about child care projects, worked on aprons, and watched a demonstration on gathering material by Betsy Dunlevy, Marlene Nougier, Molly Ely, Susan Whinlan and Margaret Carnegie were in charge of the 4-H window display. Hostesses were Shawn Caperna and Susan Whinlan.

Phoenix Kitchen Workers
The recent meeting of the Phoenix Kitchen Workers 4-H club was held at the Phoenix High school.
The first year members made cookies. The second year girls, Mary Jo Campbell and Mindy Hackett, made fruit desserts, and the fourth year girl, Judy Campbell, made a berry pie.
We had a short business meeting, at which we judged the cookies only.
Mindy Hackett, Reporter.

TAKE OUT LICENSE
Los Angeles—UPB—Restaurant owner Stephen Crane, ex-husband of Lana Turner, will marry interior decorator Helen DeMaree, 28, Friday night in his Beverly Hills home. Crane, 44, and his fiancée of 2½ years obtained the marriage license Wednesday at the county courthouse.

LOW ATTENDANCE
New York—UPB—Seventy patrolmen were on duty Wednesday at the United Nations in anticipation of a mass demonstration heralded as "1,000 students in support of President Kennedy and against Communism." A total of 21 persons showed up.
