

College Basketball Bribe Probe May Reach Massive Proportions

By JOE SARGIS

New York—UPI—Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan, whose investigation of "fixed" college basketball games already has netted 11 players from six schools, said today the inquiry is moving full steam ahead amid growing speculation it may reach massive proportions.

Thursday, Hogan revealed the names of nine more players in addition to the two named on March 17 when the current investigation was first announced. The D.A. said the nine players from schools in the East and South were paid more than $28,000 collectively to shave points in a total of 25 games during the past two seasons.

In revealing their identity, Hogan also named five go-betweens who worked with gambler Aaron Wagner in soliciting the aid of nine players to rig the outcome of the games in which their schools were involved. Wagner, a 28-year-old New Yorker, first was brought in and charged with bribery six weeks ago along with Joseph Hacken, also of New York.

Wagner was arraigned Thursday and pleaded innocent to 37 charges of bribery and attempted bribery plus a charge of conspiracy. Each count carries a prison sentence of one to 10 years plus a fine of $10,000.

Eight Dismissed

The players named Thursday by Hogan, eight of whom have been dismissed from their schools while the ninth has been suspended, were: John Egan, Vince Kempton and Frank Majewski of St. Joseph's college in Philadelphia; Edward Bowler of La Salle in Philadelphia; Jerry Graves of Mississippi State; Peter Kelly and Glen Cross of the University of Connecticut; and Richard Fisher and Ed Test of the University of Tennessee.

Wagner's bribe offer ranged from $750 to $1,500 per game and were handled in most cases by go-betweens Jerry Vogel and Daniel Quinzani, both formerly of the University of Alabama. William Minnerly, former Connecticut football captain; Lou Brown of North Carolina and Joseph Green, an associate of Wagner's, Graves, who has been drafted by the new Chicago entry in the professional National Basketball association, said he took $4,750 in bribes but "didn't throw any games."

Hogan said that none of the players has been charged with a crime and they have been granted immunity for testifying before the grand jury. They will, however, be brought back as "witnesses for the people" in Wagner's trial.

Thursday's blanket indictment did not mention Seton Hall players Art Hicks and Hank Gunter, who were disclosed earlier to have dumped a game with the University of Dayton in which the Flyers routed Seton Hall.

SOC Meets OCE Twice Saturday

Ashland-Southern Oregon's Marty Vogler faced Gordon Riese of Portland State in a battle of left-handers when the Red Raiders of SOC and PSC's Vikings clashed in the opener of a three game week end series here this afternoon. A Saturday twinbill begins at 10 a.m.

Vogler, with two wins and one defeat to his credit carries an impressive 0.80 earned run average into today's tilt with the Vix. Riese is 1-1 on the season, with a 2.07 ERA.

Probable starting hurlers Saturday will be Gene Klein (1-1) and Bob Gray (2-1) of Portland State and John Cook (1-0) and Don Vannice (1-2) for SOC.

Cook, a fire-balling sophomore, plucked up three hits in four trips to the plate in Tuesday's 9-1 win over OTI and now leads Raider hitting statistics with a solid .498 average. Cook also has a perfect 0.00 ERA in 13 innings pitched to go with his team-leading stockwork.

Following Cook in hitting are Joe Funderburg (.370), Damien Rossetto (.362) and Kerm McLemore (.327). McLemore, the top OCC hitter last season, tops the team in RBI's with 14. Funderburg leads in hits with 20, while Dave Hughes who poled a two run homer against OTI rates second in both runs scored (13) behind Funderburg's 14, and in RBI with eight.

As a team the Raiders are hitting at a .288 clip to their opponents' .234 mark. Of the Raiders' 126 safe hits, 19 have been for extra bases, the same number as their opponents.

In the pitching department, Junior Earle Tichenor allowed only five hits in six innings to pick up the win against OTI and now sports a 1.22 ERA. Vogler, a sophomore, has 39 strike outs to top that department, followed by Vannice's 18 whiffs in 21 innings pitched.

Medford Thinclads To Go To Roseburg

Approximately 55 Medford high track and field men will go to Roseburg for a meet Saturday afternoon. Tornado Coach Dean Benson has reported.

The Black Tornado and the Indians will contend in both varsity and novice divisions. This will be the first dual meet of the season for the Medford aggregation. The Tornado has been in three relay engagements and a quadrangular meet.

Roseburg and Medford thinclads have met twice before this season. The Tornado was second and Roseburg a distant third in the Rotary tussle at Grants Pass last Saturday. The teams also participate in the Hayward relays at Eugene.

Benson reported sprinter and broad jumper Phil Humphreys out of town in mid-week but he expected him to be on hand for the dual fracas. Hurdler Walt Ayres is still sidelined from competition with a pulled muscle suffered in the Rogue relays. He has been jogging some.

Mike Hood, hurdler and high and broad jumper, who has been handicapped by a foot ailment is "coming along and looking better and better, according to Benson.

Tarr, Horn 2nd Best In Nation

University of Oregon, Eugene — Oregon's Jerry Tarr and Oregon State's Darrell Horn moved into second place in the national high hurdle in the national high hurdle and broad jump standings with the top performances turned in last week end by northwest athletes.

Tarr ran 14.0 in upsetting Bob Pierce of USC, the national collegiate leader, while Horn jumped 25-8 1/2 to take second place behind Olympic champion Ralph Boston of Tennessee A&I.

These were the best of nine improved marks registered as Oregon rapped Stanford and lost to USC, Oregon State dropped California, Washington was swamped by UCLA and Washington won easily from Idaho.

1960 Angling Trip Recalled

Because of the week end snow storm, only a few fishermen made the trip to Lake of the Woods for the opening of fishing season, according to Mrs. Irene Neeley, who is operating the resort again this year.

She said the fishermen were too few to give a good report but that the rainbow trout were biting and that a few kokanie were caught.

Mrs. Neeley issued the reminder that now is the time for rods and reels at the lake before the weather warms and water skiers begin their sport.

Don Braund, Central Point, and his uncle, A. H. Frele, Los Angeles, came in Saturday with good catches. Largest trout was 17 inches and weighed almost three pounds. On Sunday they caught kokanie and rainbow averaging 14 inches. They used ford fenders and worms.

Remembered was their trip last year when they caught limits despite failure to take their reels to the lake. The trout were pulled in hand over hand.

FIGHTS

Eagles Top Rogue River

Rogue River — Eagle Point High chalked up its third win against no losses in the western division of Rogue league baseball yesterday by beating Rogue River 12 to 1.

Eagle pitcher, Blair, held the Chiefs to two hits, fanning two and walking one. He had six straight innings of no-run ball. Eagle Point got 15 walks off Rogue River chuckers who whiffed five.

Marshall Lingren tripled for Rogue River and Don and Frank Charley each doubled for EP.

The Eagles are to host Illinois Valley tonight.

Ducks Nose Idaho 2-1

Eugene—UPI—Fred Ballard, getting relief help in the ninth inning, pitched the Oregon Ducks to a 2-1 Northern division baseball victory over Idaho here Thursday.

The win was the Ducks' second in two days against the Vandals and moved them into a tie with Washington State with two victories and no defeats for the ND lead.

Jon Swanson came on with two out and the tying run on second base in the last inning and struck out the final man to preserve the win for Ballard.

The Wolves' top efforts are expected from 800 and miler star Joe Duvanio and hurdler Doug Cutsforth. "Both of these boys are reported strong," said Raider coach Dan Bulkley, so we don't expect an easy victory by any means. In fact, this will be one of our toughest meets so far this season."

Other top Wolves are springy-legged Toby Wolf in the broad jump and discus ace Roy Peterson. Wolf has a leap of 21 feet, 9 inches to his credit. Bransom's best in the broad jump is 21-8 1/2.

SF Giants Obtain Ed Bailey in Trade

Milwaukee — (UPI) — The National league leading San Francisco Giants, boasting a new first-string catcher and a two-game winning streak, open a three-game series tonight against the Milwaukee Righthander Sam Jones (2-0) will face the Braves' veteran lefty Warren Spahn (1-1).

Scheduled to start as a Giant for the first time is catcher Ed Bailey, who was acquired by the Giants from Cincinnati Thursday for second baseman Don Blasingame, catcher Bob Schmidt and a third player to be announced later.

Giants manager Alvin Dark said he was delighted over the acquisition of Bailey. "He definitely strengthens our club," said Dark. "Bailey is one of the National league's top receivers and a dangerous hitter. He should help both our offense and defense."

The strapping left handed hitter from Strawberry Plains, Tenn., is batting .302 so far this season. Last year the 30-year-old veteran drove in 67 runs and hit 13 homers while swatting .261.

Cincinnati manager Fred Hutchinson said he would start Blasingame and Schmidt, both second stringers for the Giants this year.

Dark didn't indicate where Bailey would hit in the lineup. But he did say rookie second baseman Charlie Hiller would continue in the lead-off spot. Hiller banged three doubles and a single in the Giants' two victories over the Los Angeles Dodgers at the Coliseum this week.

Paul Takes Tribe Job

New York — (UPI) — Jimmy Dykes received a vote of confidence as manager of the Cleveland Indians today from the very same general manager — Gabe Paul — who said less than three years ago that he was too old to pilot a major league team.

"Dykes is the manager and that's it," said Paul, who took in the New York Yankees' 4-3 victory over the Indians Thursday after his surprise announcement that he was leaving the new Houston club of the National league to become Cleveland general manager. "I'm glad to have Dykes with me."

Dykes served as acting manager of the Cincinnati Reds in August and September, 1958, but was dropped by Paul in favor of Fred Hutchinson when the season was over.

Paul, 51, who spent 24 years with the Reds before taking the Houston job last January, refused to explain why he suddenly left what is regarded as one of the best "plums" in the majors.
