

Style Show Attended By Many

Approximately 150 persons attended the style show, "Fashion Fun for '61," sponsored by Griffin Creek Parent-Teacher association recently in the school gymnasium.

A garden patio, arranged on the stage for the event, contained pink and turquoise patio furniture, fresh flowers and lighted glass balls. Guests were seated at tables covered with white cloths and centered with storybook dolls. Favors were also placed on the tables.

An arrangement of lilies decorated the serving table. PTA members donated decorated cakes for refreshments.

Mrs. Roy Sander was fashion coordinator. Mrs. Wesley Ober was commentator for the show, which featured spring and summer dresses and sportswear from J. C. Penney company.

Models were Miss Pat Leek, Mrs. Gerald Gleaves, Mrs. Donald McCulloch, Miss Ann Fowler, Mrs. George Bannister, Mrs. Larry Briggs, Mrs. John Richardson, Miss Nicole Ober, Miss Joyce Leon, Miss Tammy Wright and Diane and Greg Gleaves.

Clifford Simmons of Purucker Music house played the organ during the show. Prizes, donated by Roy Sander, were given at the end of the evening. Lyle Perkins served as PTA photographer for the event. Proceeds from the show will be used for purchase of library books for the school.

The event, held at Rogue Valley Country club, was in observance of National Secretaries day and week and honored the wives of members' employers.

Rogue Chapter Observes National Secretaries Day

In observance of National Secretaries day, Rogue River chapter of National Secretaries association (International) gave a dinner Wednesday night at Rogue Valley Country club for the wives of members' employers. The party for wives of "bosses" is an annual event.

A madrigal group of Medford High school sang, directed by Lynn Sjolund, and Parker Woods Leons staged a style show for the group. Miss Judy Bertrand was narrator, and models were Mrs. Merle Deets, Mrs. Dave Nelson, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Irene Davis, Mrs. Robert L. Levi-son, Ashland.

Mrs. Jeanne Rose, chapter president, introduced the guests. They were Mrs. William F. Herman Jr., Mrs. Byron Griffith, Mrs. Jim Easton, Mrs. Jack McHugh, Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mrs. Keith Edlarsen, Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, Mrs. John T. Weisel, Mrs. Philip Lowry and Mrs. Walter G. Garner. Gifts for members and guests had been provided by Medford merchants.

Mrs. Margery Eaton spoke briefly about National Secretaries, saying that it is a professional group designed to meet the needs of the employed secretary. There are 500 chapters in the United States and several other countries and the International headquarters are located in Kansas City, Mo. Through sponsorship of the Certified Professional Secretary examination, the association seeks to elevate the standards of secretarial performance.

Mrs. Marie A. Rutter was chairman of the dinner. Mrs. Jeanne Brown is vice-presi-

Women Return From Trip North; Visit in Salem

Eagle Point—Mrs. Roy Stanley and Mrs. Edward Chamberlain have returned from a week's trip north during which they visited relatives and friends in Oregon and Washington, and observed the Oregon State legislature in Salem.

The two left by automobile Monday, April 17, and made stops in Gold Hill, Grants Pass, Eugene, Salem, Oregon City, Portland, Vancouver, Long Beach, Wash., Seaside, Cannon Beach, Delake and Redford.

They talked with Robert Duncan, speaker of the House of Representatives after watching sessions considering bills related to daylight savings time and off-shore oil. In Portland they visited with Mr. and Mrs. James Edge and family, former Eagle Point residents, and stopped at Mr. Edge's new store in Westlake.

Returning with the travelers was Mrs. Hilda Burley, Long Beach, a cousin of Mrs. Stanley, who plans to remain in Eagle Point for an extended visit at the Stanley home.

Other guests of Mrs. Stanley recently were Mr. and Mrs. William McFarling, Portland. Mrs. McFarling was a schoolmate of Mrs. Stanley and the two traveled to Cuba together a few years ago.

Medford Women Attend Meeting

The Oregon State Council of Carpenters auxiliaries met in Baker recently for the sixth annual convention. Delegates from the Medford auxiliary were Mrs. Richard Hargrove, Mrs. Lloyd Fischer, and Mrs. Herbert Sharp. Mrs. Dan Fraser, Portland, was re-elected president, and the next convention will be held in Portland.

The local auxiliary held a potluck dinner recently. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fraser.

Topic Announced For Stamp Club

"Washington, D.C. on Slides and Stamps" will be the title of the program to be presented at the meeting of the Southern Oregon Stamp club Thursday, May 4. The club meets at 8 p.m. at the Girls' Community club.

Mrs. Eric de Place will show slides of the nation's capital and also a ten-page collection on United States stamps depicting buildings or people, that had a first day of issue in Washington, D.C. Refreshments will be served.

Play Slated At Crater

Central Point—The three act comedy, "Arsenic and Old Lace," will be presented by the Crater High Curtain Callers May 5 and 6 at 8 p.m. at the Crater High cafeteria. Dayle Nesheim and Judy Daniels will play the two maiden aunts, Abby and Martha. Mortimer Brewster will be played on alternate nights by Ron McKey and Tony Yell and his fiancée, Elaine, will be played by Dorna Mose.

Jim Backen is director of the production assisted by Bill Russell and a student staff including Tom Richardson, technical director; Howard Misener and Don Fisher, stage managers; Wanda Davix, costumes; Lynn Malot, make-up; Sharon Trautman, program; Cathy Brown, house; and Sharon Trautman and Joyce Anderson, prompters.

Know Forests To Be Topic

Central Point—A program on "Know Your Forests" will be presented by Mrs. Ivan Skyrman at a meeting of Central Point Garden club at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 3, at the home of Mrs. Curtis L. Hopkins, 3775 Old Military road.

Mrs. R. D. Kay and Mrs. Lester Gorden led a workshop on choosing and preparing horticulture specimens for flower shows at the April meeting of the club. Members toured the gardens surrounding Mrs. John Holmer's home on Old Stage road following a potluck luncheon.

They also visited Mrs. Kay's home on the hill near Tolo overpass to see a garden Mrs. Kay has developed on a shallow soiled stony slope. She was commended by the club for employing a variety of rock plants to transform an unsightly hillside into a lovely garden.
