Grange Notes

Williams Grange
Master W. W. Claypool presided at the regular meeting of the Williams Grange Friday, April 21.

A. T. Lathrop presented the program and demonstration of "training a pig for show," assisted by his Williams 4-H swine club, "The Swing'n Swine."

A Bible was presented to the Grange by Mr. and Mrs. James Bowles, Fruitdale, in memory of Mrs. Bowles parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Sparlin, early residents of the town of Williamsburg, located near the present location of Williams.

A report was given on the Sparlin Cemetery clean-up project by chairman Aaron (Buzz) Morrison. This was a community project, sponsored by the Grange. Trees and brush were cleared and burned and some of the older graves were identified and marked. The cemetery is located on the Water Gap rd.

Other reports were made on plans for the exhibit at the Josephine County fair. Mrs. Dorothy Rippee announced the "helping hand day" plans of the HEC. The women met Tuesday afternoon at the Williams school gymnasium to help make a cover to protect the school piano.

Miss Shirley Rippee, youth group chairman, reported an increase in attendance and expressed confidence that the group would continue to enlarge. They will have another meeting April 28 at 8 p.m.

A potluck dessert was served in the recreation room after the meeting, and had been planned by Mrs. Mike Rak and Mrs. A. D. Fitzpatrick.

Eagle Point Grange
Eagle Point Grange members are reminded that the next meeting, May 2, will be the visitation meeting. All officers and as many members as possible are urged to attend. All committees will give short reports.

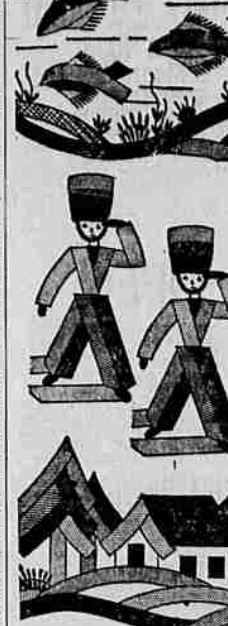

At the last meeting, Roscoe Roberts, Grange deputy and insurance agent, gave the first and second obligation to Larry Silvers.

Ed Kunkel reporting on agriculture said there was a slight drop in the price of feeder cattle.

Community Service Chairman C. C. Hoover asked several members who helped distribute trees at the Big Y and at the junior high school to report on how the trees were treasured. They said everyone was happy to receive the trees. They said 7,000 trees had been given at the Big Y, and that 1,500 had been given away in Josephine county.

Wilford Davies reported on the state legislature which was to have adjourned this week end but was postponed until sometime in May.

HEC Chairman Mrs. Lester Wertz said the next HEC meeting would be held at Mrs. Augusta Perry's home.

Literary program was of readings and quizzes put on by the lecturer.

The display table was made up of letters from the school children all over the county who have received trees in the community tree program.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bigham and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Jossy.
