

Mays Homers 4 Times in One Tilt

Giants Trip Braves, Nab Loop Lead

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Don't say hey, say hallelujah for a guy who starts a ball game in the dumps and ends up in the record book by smashing four home runs.

Who else could that be but amazing Willie Mays!

The soprano-voiced San Francisco center-fielder, who became the ninth player in major league history ever to hit four homers in a single game, was moaning low before Sunday's 14-14 massacre of Milwaukee.

He hadn't been able to buy a base hit in two previous games against the Braves and even Warren Spahn said he was "swinging bad."

Willie said he didn't think he was going to come out of his slump—that was what he knows about hitting—and then proceeded to drive in eight runs with a spectacular slugging show that boosted the Giants into first place in the National League.

Best Day
Mays called it "the greatest day I ever had," and for corroboration you can check Los Angeles' Joe Pagan hit two—his first in the majors—and Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou one each to help Billie Loos coast to his second victory. Hank Aaron hit two for the Braves to drive in all their runs.

The Giants, who hit five homers Saturday, equalled the major league record of 13 in two consecutive games, and their eight homers Sunday tied the major league mark for a single contest. The 10 homers by the two clubs Sunday also equalled a NL record.

Cincinnati ended an eight-game losing streak with a 4-2 win over Pittsburgh in the nightcap of a doubleheader after the Pirates won the opener, 8-3. Los Angeles beat Chicago, 2-1, in the first of two but the Cubs won the finale, 10-5. Philadelphia defeated St. Louis, 11-7, in 10 innings.

Tigers Hold First

The Detroit Tigers retained the American League lead even though they split with Baltimore. Detroit won the opener, 8-2, and Baltimore the nightcap, 4-2. The New York Yankees also split, beating the Washington Senators, 4-3, and then losing a 2-1 decision, Chicago beat Minnesota, 5-3, in 11 innings to take over sole possession of fourth place. Boston downed Cleveland, 4-2, then dropped the second game, 10-1, while the Los Angeles Angels topped the Kansas City A's, 6-4, in the first game but lost the second 3-2.

Bob Purkey scored his third victory for the Reds in stopping the Pirates on six hits in the nightcap. Leo Cardenas collected three of Cincy's six hits off Joe Gibbon and drove in two runs. In the opener, Roberto Clemente hit a two-run homer for the Pirates as Bob Friend won his fourth game with help from Roy Face in the ninth.

Tommy Davis' two-run homer off Glen Hobbie in the ninth brought the Dodgers from behind in their opener with the Cubs. The victory went to Larry Sherry, who took over for Don Drysdale in the eighth. But the Cubs roared back with seven runs in the second inning of the nightcap to chase Roger Craig and earn a split despite homers by Charlie Neal and the two Dubs boys, Tommy and Willie. Bob Anderson was the winning pitcher.

Trailing 6-0 in their game with the Cardinals, the Phillies scored seven runs in the eighth and then won the game in the 10th on Bobby Del Greco's double and John Callison's single. Winning pitcher was Dick Farrell. Larry Jackson suffered his second straight loss.

Washington ended its four-game losing streak by beating New York in the nightcap although winner Hal Woodeshick needed help from the Yanks scored their only run in the ninth. Rookie Roland Sheldon was the loser in his first major league start even though he struck out eight. Clete Boyer singled home the winning run in the eighth inning of the opener. Whitey Ford was the winner. Loser, Dick Donovan suffered his fourth straight defeat—all by one run.

Win On Homer
Roy Sievers' two-run homer off Jack Kralick capped a three-run rally in the 11th by the White Sox against the Twins. Harmon Killebrew hit his first homer of the year for the losers in the bottom of the 11th off Bob Shaw, who went the distance and gained his second win. Hal Naragon also homered for the Twins.

Vic Wertz and Bill Monbouquette paced the Red Sox to their first game triumph over the Indians. Wertz hit a two-run homer in the ninth off loser Gary Lee (0-4) and Monbouquette scattered eight hits for his first victory. A three-run homer by Tito Francona and a solo smash by John Romano helped the Indians to their runaway nightcap victory. Wynn Hawkins was the winner and Gene Conley the loser.

Home runs by Bob Cerv and Leon Wagner accounted for four of the Angels' six runs in their first game victory over the A's. But KC game winning streak as rookie Jim Archer scored his first major league win in the nightcap with help from Dave Wickham in the ninth. Jerry Casale suffered his third straight loss without a victory.

Jackie Jensen Quits Red Sox

Kansas City—UPI—Manager Mike Higgins and the Boston Red Sox awaited word today from slugger Jackie Jensen who may have decided to quit baseball for good.

Jensen, who retired after the 1959 season but agreed to return to the game this season, quit the Red Sox without notice Sunday and is believed en route by train to his Crystal Bay, Calif., home. The Red Sox fear the

Four Records Fall In Drake Relays

Des Moines—UPI—Four major records were broken at the Drake Relays Saturday. The four record-breaking performances ran the total for the two-day relays to six, plus a seventh mark recorded in an "Iowa-only" event.

Texas Southern provided the biggest thrills for the record 18,000 persons who sat under sunny skies in 60-degree temperatures by establishing new marks in the college division two-mile and half-mile relays.

Mark Lowered

Kansas lowered the Drake mark in the university two-mile relay, and George Davies of Oklahoma State broke the Drake standard for the pole vault.

Two other marks fell on the first day of the relays, Western Michigan establishing a new American mark in the

What Can San Francisco Do For Baseball Encore?

Milwaukee—UPI—The San Francisco Giants moved out of Milwaukee today after an engagement with the Braves that has to go down as one of the greatest three-game series in the history of baseball.

And they moved out in first place.

Veteran Warren Spahn kicked it off Friday with the second no-hitter of his career—and Sad Sam Jones was brilliant in defeat as the Braves won 1-0 on an unearned run. Then the troops of manager Alvin Dark took over on Saturday and Sunday with a spurge of home run power that tied or bettered five records, including four homers in one game by the fabulous Willie Mays.

After Jones suffered his heartbreak defeat via a no-hit route, Juan Marichal went the distance Saturday and Billy Loos repeated the performance Sunday. Both men scattered eight hits, and all four of Milwaukee's runs Sunday resulted from the two homers by Aaron.

San Francisco opens a three-game series with the Cubs in Chicago Tuesday. Dark plans to send Jack Sanford 1-1 against Don Cardwell 2-0.

But what can the Giants do for an encore?

Ducks Lace WSC 86-44 In Track

United Press International
Oregon's track Ducks still are unbeatable in the Northwest.

The Ducks routed Washington State 86-44 at Pullman, Saturday for their 29th straight dual meet victory against Northwest schools.

Sprinter Roscoe Cook and hurdler Jerry Tarr scored double wins for Oregon, Cook winning the 100 in 10.4 and the 220 in 21.9 and Tarr the high hurdles in 14.8 and the lows in 24.2.

The Ducks' mile star, Dyrrol Burleson, skipped his specialty and won the 880-yard run in 1:58.3.

Oregon State split its track forces between the Drake Relays in Des Moines, Iowa, and the Mt. San Antonio Relays in Walnut, Calif.

Two-Mile Mark
Texas Southern chalked up its mark in the college class two-mile relay and the half-mile relay and also won the sprint medley relay in non-record times.

Southern, led by anchor-man Major Adams, who was one of the outstanding performers on the field, clipped more than four full seconds off the two-mile relay mark set in 1958 by Howard Payne college. Southern was clocked in 7:35.2, finishing several yards ahead of the former Drake record holders.

A senior, two juniors and a sophomore gave Kansas the university two-mile relay record in 7:23.5.

At Walnut, an Oregon State sprint medley team of Ron Bach, John Ball, Amos Marsh and John Simpson finished second to Occidental in 3:25.4. Occidental's winning time was 3:22.0.

A team of Bach, Ball, Bob Johnson and Norm Monroe was third in the mile relay but the Beavers' time of 3:09.2 was the best ever recorded in the event by a Northwest school.

Portland Beavers Defeat Hawaiians

United Press International
Vancouver and Hawaii ended their third straight day in joint occupancy of first place in Pacific Coast league Sunday despite Hawaii's 6-2 loss to Portland and the Mounties' split of a doubleheader with Sale Lake City.

Vancouver dropped the first game 7-5 and won the second 6-0. Elsewhere in the league, Seattle edged Tacoma 2-1 and San Diego and Spokane split a pair, the Padres winning the first 11-0 and dropping the second 3-1.

It was the pitching of old folks Elmer Singleton that kept Vancouver in the first place tie. Singleton gave up only six hits to the Bees.

Singleton's teammates got only six hits in support of him but they made them count for six runs. One of the hits was Eddie Hass' two-run homer.

Salt Lake was helped toward its first-game victory by homers by Al Luplow and Larry Brown. Luplow's came with none on in the third. Brown's was in the fourth with one on.

LA Angels Note Improvement

Los Angeles—UPI—The Los Angeles Angels are looking a little better today, both from the standpoint of attendance and their won-lost record.

The new American league team split a doubleheader Sunday with the Kansas City Athletics. The Angels won the first game, 6-4, but dropped the nightcap, after a tough uphill fight, 3-2.

This left them with a 4-9 record as they go into a series Tuesday night with the Baltimore Orioles. The Angels rest today.

On the credit side, they came home last Thursday with a 1-8 record, but after losing the home opener to Minnesota, won three straight.

At Walnut, an Oregon State sprint medley team of Ron Bach, John Ball, Amos Marsh and John Simpson finished second to Occidental in 3:25.4. Occidental's winning time was 3:22.0.

A team of Bach, Ball, Bob Johnson and Norm Monroe was third in the mile relay but the Beavers' time of 3:09.2 was the best ever recorded in the event by a Northwest school.

Spokane—UPI—Gonzaga prep school miler Paul Schlicke Friday bested the state high school official mile run record by better than three seconds, Spokane public school athletics officials said. Schlicke ran the mile in 4:21.2, as Gonzaga Prep defeated Central Valley, 75-34, in a high school track meet.

in the Hawaii - Portland game, the Beavers got more out of their two homers than the Islanders did and they also got some tight pitching from Mel Nelson to win it.

The Beaver homers were by Jerry Boucheck in the second with two on and Jim Brideweiser in the eighth with none on.
