Hedrick Junior High

Edited by Steve Root, Sarah Madden and Venita Burch
In appreciation of the record Hedrick students have made in returning library books, and in behalf of National Library Week the library announced that no fines would be due on overdue books April 20 and 21.

Planning is under way for this year's annual seventh, eighth and ninth grade assemblies. The assemblies consist of various talent acts presented by the students of each grade. In charge of the assemblies are seventh grade, Terry Tibbutt; eighth grade, Fred Hauptert; ninth grade, Chris Bartels.

Friday night, April 21, concluded weeks of preparation as a cast of nearly 170 students staged the final presentation of Hedrick's operetta, "Up on Old Smokey." Net received from the operetta was $328.92.

Ratings received by Hedrick music groups at the Southern Oregon Music contest Saturday at Ashland Junior High were: "A" band, superior; "B" band, excellent; orchestra, excellent; seventh grade chorus, superior.

Thursday, April 13, Hedrick received 1,000 spruce seedlings courtesy of Jackson county's own "Johnny Appleseed," C. C. Hoover.

The trees were white, Engelman, Sitka, and Norway Spruce. They were individually wrapped in paper for planting, and instructions for planting and care were furnishing by the science department.

Hoover stated that the reason for the trees distribution was "To beautify our homes and our country."

The snow that hit Medford Friday, April 21, cancelled all track meets that were scheduled. The seventh and eighth grade teams were going to meet Ashland at Medford High school Friday, and on Saturday the ninth grade team was going to host Klamath Falls at Medford High school. There was a ninth grade tennis match with Crater at Central Point on Friday, and it was cancelled.

Honor Society held a special meeting Thursday, April 13, in the Little Theater to hear a special report from Sue Root, chairman of the project committee.

A make-up Latin Prognostic test for those who were absent on test day was given Wednesday.

Seventh graders again held a stamp exchange after school Friday.

Students are waiting for the publication of the first Hedrick annual, The Horner, which will be released sometime in May.

Operetta pictures are on display in the upper hall showcase.
