By VELDA BARR Mail Tribune Correspondent Prospect - More than 300 people attended the hobby fair held in the Prospect Community hall April 27. Selected as the highlight of the show was an art gallery featuring more than 100 paintings by local and area artists. Paintings by members of the recently formed Prospect Art association were featured in one section. Artists included Mrs. Elmer Goodman, Mrs. Duane Payne, Mrs. E. M. Tucker, Sr. and Mrs. E. M. Tucker, Jr. Area artists included Mrs. F. W. Kindsch, Frank Linden, Mrs. Pearl Lytle, Mrs. Asbjorn Mykleby, Mrs. S. E. Brill, Leo Hall, Frances Stark and Mrs. Frank Block.

Siskiyou Poster Contest Winners Are Announced

Yreka - Results of the first annual Siskiyou County Keep California Green poster contest have been announced by Ken Young, director of curriculum, Siskiyou county schools. Some 88 students of 22 teachers in 16 different schools submitted entries in the contest, although many other students competed within their own schools. All participants are eligible for certificates of recognition from the county KCG committees, and posters not sent for state competition are to be displayed in the county. First place winners in each division will receive a five-inch cup with an engraved plaque. Second and third place winners will receive engraved medallions and appropriate ribbons will be given for special merit.

Pre-School Clinic In Gold Hill Set

Gold Hill - The first of two pre-school clinics will be held in Gold Hill Wednesday, May 3 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at Patrick school. Mrs. Melvin Burnett, clinic chairman, said those scheduled for the clinic are children in the areas of Sardine Creek and route 1, Central Point. Information was mailed to these people on April 19. The enclosed questionnaire should be filled out by the parent prior to the clinic, she emphasized. The examining physician will be Dr. Zeln Merkel, Jackson county health officer. Assisting him will be nurses from the health department. Mrs. Burnett stressed that physical examinations may be obtained from the family physician instead of at the clinic if the parent wishes. Mrs. Burnett said those who did not receive appointments for the May 3 pre-school clinic should plan to attend the second one June 7 at Patrick school. The chairman said the reason for two different clinics was due to the large number of children who will enter Patrick school in September.

Prospect Schools To Hold Open House

Prospect - An open house for members of the Prospect PTA will be held at the Prospect Grade school and high school Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Special achievement awards will be presented to outstanding students. New officers will be installed and a report of the state convention will be given. Baby sitting will be provided. Following the business meeting, refreshments will be served by mothers of eighth grade children.

New Sidewalk for School Was Murphy PTA Project This Year

Murphy - Murphy school has a "new look" these days thanks to its PTA unit. A new sidewalk, extending the full length of the school front was the major project undertaken by the unit this year and has recently been completed. A series of fund-raising projects made the project possible, and it is hoped that the two projects still under way will complete the necessary financing. The cook book, prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Jim Williams and Mrs. Clarence Ross, is almost ready to be put on sale. It includes recipes of many favorite dishes submitted by Murphy school mothers and will be very complete in the number and type of dishes it will contain. The final event will be the luncheon to be sold at Murphy school on May 6, when the school will be host to the girls of the county schools for their track meet.

Water Filtration Plant Election in Gold Hill Stated

Gold Hill - Voters of Gold Hill will decide whether the city installs a proposed $120,000 water filtration plant in an election Tuesday, May 9. The polling place will be at the old city hall building on Fifth ave. The poll will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Specifically, voters will be asked to approve or reject a resolution calling for a proposed amendment to the city charter authorizing issuance of $120,000 in general obligation bonds for construction of the plant. Water Revenues The resolution states that "such bonds are to be secured by water revenues of the city and to bear not exceeding six per cent interest and to be payable serially not exceeding 25 years, and to be otherwise in such form, payable bearing such interest rate and payable in such manner as directed by the city council."

16 Initiated Into EP Honor Society

Eagle Point - Sixteen new members were initiated into the Eagle Point chapter of the National Honor society recently. To qualify for membership, students must maintain a 3-point grade average. In addition, high ideals of character, leadership and service must be maintained. Adedene Jensen, chapter president, gave the opening address and outlined the society's history. Georgia Weidman, past president, told of the significance of the society to the graduate. Honor society pins, certificates and membership cards were presented to the following new members by Mrs. Henry, chapter advisor: Marcia Ackerman, Karyl Bishop, Susie Carroll, Gary Clement, Connie Gregg, Jerilyn Hansen, Georgia Hubbard, Karen Jossy, Joan Konopasek, Teresa Pruetz, Kay Thurman, Helen Vickoren, Sandi Wallis, Connie Hinks, Glen Gratsinger and Jimmy Stauffer.

Forest Laboratory Contract Awarded

Portland - R. W. Cowlin, director of the Pacific Northwest Forest and Range experiment station of the U.S. Forest Service, has announced the awarding of a $397,000 contract to Quentin Greenough, Inc., Corvallis, to build a Forest Insect and Disease laboratory building on the Oregon State campus. Oregon State and the Forest Service will cooperate in operating the laboratory. Total cost of the building, with equipment, will be half a million dollars. There are plans for later additions to cost about $1 million. The National Museum of Canada at Ottawa developed from a collection started in 1842 by the Geological Survey of Canada.

JUNIOR HIGH MENTIONED Eagle Point School Needs Outlined

Eagle Point - Among the building needs for the Eagle Point school district, is a junior high school, according to John Reid, school board director, as he spoke at the April meeting of the Eagle Point Elementary Parent - Teacher association. At present 1,249 students are enrolled in the school system, and 61 teachers are on full time staff. Elementary schools include Elk-Trail, Shady Cove and Eagle Point, with the high school in Eagle Point. The district covers an area of 833 square miles, has ten buses, and 80 per cent of the students are transported, said Glenn Hale, superintendent of the schools. Robert Work, principal of the Eagle Point elementary school, was moderator for the panel of four, composed of himself, Mr. Hale, and two members of the school board, Mr. Reid and Darrel Stanley. The school budget was explained as to financial sources of revenue and income, and how the expenditures were made. The building needs were explained in relation to the expected increased enrollment, based on census information; and means of financing were presented. Mr. Hale reminded the people of the budget and school board election to be held May 1, Monday, from 2 to 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. Tape Recorder Mrs. Raymond Palm, ways and means chairman, presented on behalf of the unit, a tape recorder to David Harrison, elementary teacher who is in charge of the audio-visual aids department. The tape recorder was purchased for the school as this year's project. Mr. Harrison used the recorder to tape parts of the band and chorus program during the evening, and played it back to the membership for the social hour following the meeting. Keith Krambeal, music instructor, presented the chorus and band in a varied program of spirituals, marches, and a symphonic andante. Mrs. Le Roy Bedingfield, magazine chairman, unveiled her friend, Maggie Zina, and apologized for her unfinished appearance. She thanked the purchasers of subscriptions, and stated that her friend could have been elegantly dressed had more been sold. Mrs. Stanley, president, announced that Mrs. Murray Bartling was the delegate attending convention, and that a PTA scholarship from the state level was awarded to Aedene Jensen of Eagle Point. Den two of Pack 48 led the flag salute. The Rev. Warren Christensen gave the invocation and parents of students in the second grade were in charge of refreshments.
