

Nursery To Have Exhibits at Fair

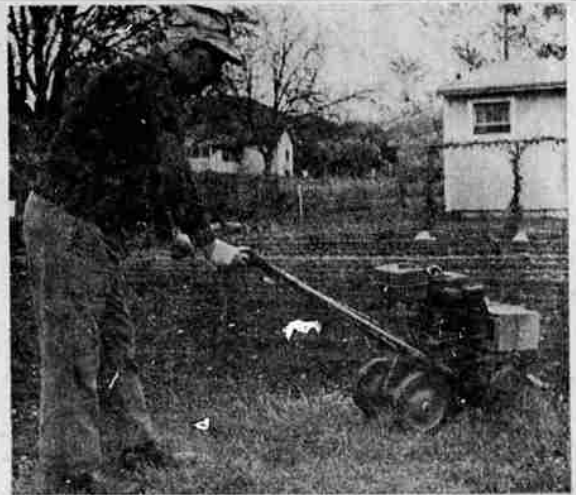

Ornamental Nursery, Central Point, plans two exhibits at the Crater Lions Sports-fair and Home and Garden show.

One display will be landscaping for a model home which also will be on display, and the other will be a booth attended by Mrs. F. R. Faulkner to introduce the nursery and its services.

Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner are owners of Ornamental Nursery.

The nursery provides complete landscape designing, planting and information concerning planting and growing, according to the Faulkners.

During its four years in the valley, the nursery has grown from a small operation to one of the valley's leading nurseries. The Faulkners plan to increase the nursery facilities this year.

CULTIVATES GARDEN—James E. Walker, Phoenix, uses a power tiller to prepare his garden for another season. He raises corn, tomatoes, radishes and has some small fruit trees in his back yard. Walker, a retired railroad man, raises enough fruit and vegetables for his own table and that of the neighbor behind him. He repairs and sharpens garden tillers and lawn-mowers to round out his pension.

ATTRACTIVE ROSEBED—Rosebed along driveway at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Nelson, 1132 Mira Mar dr., Medford, is covered with white crushed silica, giving it a neat appearance and at the same time keeping back weeds. Another advantage is that one can walk in the area right after watering without getting muddy shoes. Mrs. Nelson, above, admires one of the newly-planted bushes that are encircled with a metal ring that keeps the rock away from the base of the plant.

Judo Academy To Have Exhibition

The Judo Academy will demonstrate the arts of jujitsu, judo and karate at the Crater Lions Sportsfair and Home and Garden Show. The exhibition will be held between 3 and 4 p.m. on May 6 and 7.

The Judo Academy was started three years ago in Medford by Tom Ball, a student at Southern Oregon college. He received his training at Chico State college.

Under the supervision of Ball and Dr. Paul Rutter, the 35 members meet at the academy in Phoenix Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays each week.
