District Convention Set Tuesday

The 29th District convention of Royal Neighbors of America will convene in Medford Tuesday, May 9, at the Knights of Pythias hall, Fifth and Grape streets.

Registration will be at 9:30 a.m. with Mrs. Carl Pearson, district orator, presiding at the meetings.

Other guests will include Mrs. Earl Duvall, Vancouver, Wash., state supervisor; Mrs. Frank Steele, Klamath Falls, district deputy; Mrs. Clayton Walker, Medford, district deputy; and Mrs. Ruby Johnson, Coquille, state orator.

Delegations are expected from Klamath Falls, Ashland, Talent, Jacksonville, Central Point, and Grants Pass. All Royal Neighbors in the valley who hold membership, either in the state or not, are welcome to attend, it was announced.

Luncheon will be served at noon by the hostess camp in the hall dining room. A banquet will be held at the First Christian church, Ninth street and Oakdale avenue, at 6 p.m. The evening session, which convenes at 7:30 p.m., will be open to the public and will include initiation of candidates.
