Mrs. Clara Howard was honored at party in Hornbrook recently which observed her 90th birthday anniversary. The event, held in the home of Mrs. Harry Chapman, followed a meeting of the Christian Women's Community fellowship of Hornbrook Methodist church. Mrs. Howard remains active in both the church and the fellowship group. She has lived in Hornbrook for 52 years.

Mrs. Clara Howard Is Honored at Hornbrook

Hornbrook—A surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. Clara Howard on her 90th birthday was held April 27 at the home of Mrs. Harry Chapman. The party followed a short business meeting of the Christian Women's Community fellowship of the Hornbrook Methodist church.

Mrs. Howard was born in Illinois April 27, 1871, and lived in Nebraska, Washington and Oregon before coming to Hornbrook, where she has made her home for the past 52 years.

In Church Work

She lives alone in her own home here and does her own housework, is in good health, even reading without the aid of glasses. She is active in the Hornbrook Methodist church, and is noted in the community for her keen memory, and her ability to recite long poems she learned as a girl.

Mrs. Howard has been a widow since 1923 when her husband, George, was killed in an automobile accident. She has two sons, Ward, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Otto, Ashland, Ore., who with his wife, spent part of his mother's birthday with her, and is a frequent visitor. She also

Elliots To Give Program For Arm Chair Travelers

Dr. and Mrs. Bert R. Elliot, who have taken colored slides throughout the world, will present a "magic carpet" program trip Monday, May 8, to the Arm Chair Travelers at 1 p.m. at the Senior Activity center.

After the program the hosts and members will plan their part in the open house to be held at the center Sunday, May 14. They have been asked to be hosts from 1 to 2 p.m.

Hosts for the second hour will be the two art classes that meet Tuesday and Saturday afternoons, according to Mrs. Clayton Walker, open

Spring Concert Thursday at High School

Thursday, May 11, the Vocal Music department of Medford High school will present its annual Spring concert starting at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

Included in the program will be selections by the Mixed chorus, Girls chorus, and the choir. Among the numbers selected by the Girls chorus and choir will be selections performed at the recent Southern Oregon Music Contest-Festival where both groups received superior ratings.

Numbers by the Girls chorus will include an arrangement of the "Old Woman and the Pudding" by K. K. Davis; "Spring," by Lloyd Pfautsch, a modern American composer; and "Huswifery," by Richard Winslow.

The choir will feature "All Breathing Life," "Sing and Praise Ye the Lord," by J. S. Bach; "Ballad of Brotherhood" by Joseph Wagner; and "Have Ye Not Known" and "Ye Shall Have a Song" by Randall Thompson. They will also sing several spiritual and lighter numbers.

Also on the program will be selections by guest artist, Mrs. Exine Anderson Bailey, professor of voice at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Bailey has selected her program from standard concert repertoire, and her numbers include an aria, art songs, and a modern number. She will be accompanied by Dr. Stacey Green, professor of piano and theory, and assistant dean of the school of music.

Two Girls Elected To Council

Layle and Lannae Bostwick of Talisman Rosebud council, Pythian Sunshine Girls of Medford, were elected to grand offices at the recent grand council in Corvallis. Layle was elected grand charity and Lannae, grand historian.

Mrs. Harry Bryant of Medford was elected grand royal advisor for the council and Edward Bryant and Mrs. Walter Grochoki, Phoenix, were elected grand counselors. Medford girls chosen to be on the initiation team were Linda Severson, grand royal guide, and Pam Wyatt, grand royal mystic one.

Syrena Gay and Ronnie Paulson were initiated at the session. Others attending from Medford were Barbara Kadin, Barbara and Judy Cooper, Susan O'Duane, Phyllis and Donna Overturf, Vicki Sue Webster, Margaret and Betty Grochoki, Donna, Kelly and Mary Carol Copeland, Francine Gilbert, Regina Robertson and Connie Jo Merriman.

Adults accompanying the group included Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Grochoki, Edward Bostwick, Mrs. Anderson Severson, Mrs. Dan Kadin, Mrs. Don Copeland and Mrs. James Overturf.

Officers of the local council will be installed at the next regular meeting at 7 p.m. May 11. The meeting is open to the public.

Bridge Club Is Formed

Ashland-Formation of the Ashland Duplicate Bridge club has been sanctioned by the American Contract Bridge league and will begin sessions May 11, it was announced today.

Games will begin at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays at the Mark Antony hotel. One master point event has been scheduled for the second Thursday of each month.

Ashland bridge players are invited to attend the sessions, which will be open to all persons interested. Players from Grants Pass and Medford have already expressed interest in the club, the newest duplicate group in Oregon, according to Mrs. Paul A. Hutton and Mrs. Patricia Gilhousen, who will supervise club operation and games.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dodge, members of Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club, are shown here selecting pieces of petrified wood and crystals which they will exhibit in the coming southern Oregon annual Gem and Mineral show. The annual show will be held May 13-14 in the Medford armory on South Pacific highway. The gem and mineral show attracts dozens of exhibitors from several cities in the western states, and thousands of visitors. Exhibits and displays will include an agate slide show, carved lamps with revolving agate shades, a display of iris agate, fossils, desert sun glass, agate jewelry and numerous other objects and articles.

Miss Hobbs Is Queen Of Bethel

Central Point—Miss Janet Hobbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Hobbs, Central Point, was elected honored queen of Central Point Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters, at the meeting held in the Central Point Masonic hall May 2.

Also elected were the Misses June Hopkins, senior princess; Sandra Beasley, junior princess; Judith Patterson, guide and Janice Ayres, marshal.

The formal installation of the new officers will take place June 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic hall in Central Point. The installation will be open to the public.

Honored Queen Helen Goff announced that "Go to Church" Sunday is May 7 at the First Baptist church, Medford. During the session, Miss June Hopkins, junior princess, reported on the recent Queen's ball held at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Miss Janet Hobbs and Miss Janice Campbell were elected delegates to the Grand Session of Job's Daughters to be held in Portland in June.

Guests of the evening were the mothers of the Bethel members. Each mother was presented with a nosegay of spring flowers and was honored at an addendum following the ceremonies.

Decorations for the evening were provided by the Misses Colleen and Patricia Knapp and Miss Linda Snyder; refreshments were served by the Misses Lorraine Scalberg, Elin Livingston and Sue Kelley with assistance from their mothers.

The annual meeting of the Guardian Council will be held at 7:30 p.m. on May 10 at the home of Mrs. Jack Campbell, Bethel guardian.

Men To Honor Mothers May 11

Mothers will be honored at the men's night of Reames chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, to be held Thursday, May 11. Mrs. Roy V. Nordwick and E. G. Randolph, worthy matron and patron will preside.

As a tribute for the evening, the De Molay boys will present their Mother's Flower lecture.

John Eddy and John Smith will be the chairmen for the evening.

At the last meeting Reames chapter presented Mrs. Josephine Clark, who is 82 years old, with a 50 year pin. She joined Reames chapter in 1911. Three other 50 year members, Mrs. Mary Watkins, Mrs. Maude Duffy and Mrs. Esther Coleman, were also honored. All were presented with corsages and introduced from the east.

Recital Announced

Ashland-The annual spring term recital of the advanced piano students will be held Sunday, May 14, at 3 p.m., in Churchill hall, according to Miss Helene Robinson, head of the Southern Oregon college piano department. Solos and ensemble numbers will be performed, ranging from the literature of Bach to contemporary composers.

The concluding number on the program is to be the Schumann Concerto, played by Robinson supplying the orchestra part on the second piano.

The recital, which is traditionally set on Mother's day, for the benefit of visiting parents, is free of charge, and the public is invited.
