Actor William Holden's home in Switzerland is located in a village near outskirts of Lausanne.

Hollywood in the Alps

Itself is almost never there. It is a phantom colony of absentee landlords. No tourist should ever be encouraged to go to Lausanne for the purpose of looking at movie stars!

I recently made a spot check in Lausanne. Only George Sanders was actually in Switzerland.

Richard Burton was on Broadway, starring in "Camelot." Anthony Quinn was also on Broadway, starring in "Becket." Noel Coward had fled to Jamaica to escape the Swiss winter. Deborah Kerr had quit the ski slopes of Klosters to make a film in England, and Peter Ustinov was in London.

William Holden was in Africa, at the Mount Kenya Safari Club. Yul Brynner was in France. Mel Ferrer was in Paris. Audrey Hepburn was in New York. Jack Palance was in London.

HAVING GREATER intellectual resources than most actors, Richard Burton has been able to turn his house at Celigny into a home instead of an income-tax excuse. As his wife Sybil said, "We realized that this was to be our home, and our children's home, perhaps for the rest of our lives. So instead of seeing nobody but actors, we made friends with our Swiss neighbors. We worked at the language and spent our evenings in the nearest bar, where we joined the local group."

The Burtons hoped that some of the local atmosphere would rub off on them. What happened? The Burtons rubbed off on the locals.

The bar owner turned his bar into a Welsh pub with a dartboard on the wall and a photograph of the soccer team from Talbot, Burton's home village, displayed behind the bar.

The bar owner even decided to take his annual leave in Talbot, a smoky mining town in Wales. He returned, having stayed with Burton's relatives, and declared it to be the best vacation he had ever had in his life.

The result of all this has been such a rush of guests to Burton's home in Switzerland that he is now having a guesthouse built. "We can make up a spare guest bed in the car if necessary," says Burton, "but I'm the one who usually sleeps there."

Sybil Burton says, "We love it in Switzerland." But other stars have not found it so easy.

(While Switzerland has been a lucrative tax haven, life there has not been complete bliss for American stars, as you'll learn in the concluding installment of "Hollywood in the Alps." Watch for it in next week's Family Weekly.)

Dieting to reduce?

Special laxative for women helps keep you "regular"!

Are you dieting to reduce? Then you are eating far less than usual. Less bulk is now passing through your system. In such instances, irregularity often occurs.

When laxative help is needed, rely on the gentle, more natural action of new Correctol®—the laxative specially developed for a woman's delicate system. Correctol is completely different from those harsh, all-purpose laxatives which may leave you feeling so weak that you want to break your diet.

Correctol's secret is a non-laxative miracle regulator that simply softens waste. Along with this, Correctol contains just enough mild laxative to give regularity a start.

Working together, these two gentle ingredients make Correctol bring relief more naturally than any ordinary laxative can. Not only while dieting, but even during pregnancy, after childbirth, in menstrual periods and after middle age!

Do try Correctol soon—at any drug counter.

ManZan for HEMORRHOIDS

When piles cause agony and itch, enjoy fast relief with DeWitt's ManZan—now even more effective with Allantoin, a special healing agent. ManZan retracts and reduces hemorrhoids instead of merely shrinking them. For soothing action and new energy, buy ManZan... ointment or suppositories.
