AAUW Installs Officers;
Committee Heads Listed

Mrs. Walter F. Roemer was installed president of Medford branch, American Association of University Women at the annual presidents' dinner last Wednesday.

Other new officers are: Mrs. Calvin L. Smith, first vice-president; Mrs. Ray L. Casterline, second vice-president; Mrs. Alan S. Markee, treasurer; and Mrs. Dale C. Prentice, secretary.

Sale of recipes for foods served at the potluck dinner was a feature of the evening at the Red Cross building. Buffet tables were decorated with bouquets of lilacs and purple iris. The head table was centered with a mixed bouquet of spring flowers, and other tables had clusters of red and rose rhododendron blossoms.

Special introductions went to past presidents. Mrs. Robert Fry, a new member, and Mrs. William Pollock, a guest, were introduced.

Mrs. Gordon S. Mackenzie, retiring president; Mrs. A. J. Johansson, retiring state fellowship chairman; and Mrs. Roemer reported on the Oregon AAUW convention which they attended in La Grande last month.

Mrs. Mackenzie announced that Mrs. Edwin W. Gebhard had won a ribbon on a painting, "Mutations," at the convention art show. Mrs. Carl Brandenfeldt, St. Helens, retiring president of Oregon division AAUW, is the new recording secretary for the national association.

Committee for the dinner included Mrs. Emerson T. Anderson, chairman; Mrs. Arthur S. Anderson, Miss Esther Jones, Miss Anna L. May, Mrs. Jeffrey Shute, Mrs. Lester Stinson and Mrs. Thomas Upton.

Speech Problems
Topic of Group

Ashland - Speech problems and their correction was the subject of a talk by Dr. Leon Mulling before a recent meeting of the Sub-District, Oregon Nurses association. Mrs. Tony Kandler was chairman of the session held in the Ashland General hospital dining room.

Dr. Mulling stressed the emotional problems that are the most frequent causes of speech defects. The Southern Oregon college professor played a number of tape recordings to illustrate his talk and gave examples of cases from his speech clinic.

Mrs. Kandler conducted a brief business session at which committee reports were presented and an announcement made of workshop sessions scheduled for Sacred Heart hospital.

PTA Fun Night
At Washington
Well Attended

About 350 parents and children attended a "Family Fun Night" at Washington school last Friday evening.

Amid the threat of rain, the fathers and fifth and sixth grade boys played a softball game which ended with fathers as winners.

Before the magic show in the school gymnasium, Loren Soderlund, school coach, presented William Townes the winning trophy which he accepted on behalf of the fathers. The king-sized bat-trophy will be placed on display in the school.

Johnny Eads kept young and old under his spell of magic for his share of the evening's activities. Disappearing balls, appearing silk squares, an old Chinese stick and string trick, a card game, and a white rat were all part of his show.

Following the magic show, the Walt Disney movie "Bear Country" was shown.

Washington Parent-Teacher association held a food sale and sold dessert and beverages.

Mrs. Edward Evans was chairman of the events, assisted by Mrs. William Townes, unit president, the officers and the executive board.

Today is Health Day at the school. Ronald Weatherford, principal, announced the program and said health honor roll pins would be awarded.

Swings Conduct
Court Session;
Events Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Swing, new royal matron and patron of Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth, recently conducted their first meeting. Mrs. Stanley Jones was installed as marshal in the west; Jack Kennedy was installing patron with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Day as aide and marshal.

Mrs. Richard Mayfield, ways and means chairman, reported on the mother-daughter luncheon served for Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters, which court members served. Plans for coming events include the annual outdoor breakfast in July, and a rummage sale in August.

Mrs. Swing announced that a memorial service is planned for the May meeting.

Court room decorations were award-winning flower arrangements which Mrs. Lawrence Messal had displayed at a show at Crater Garden club. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoppe and Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Skoog.

Siskiyou court held installation of officers in Yreka April 22, with Jack Kennedy of Roxy Ann court as installing officer. Mr. and Mrs. Swing, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Canfield and Mrs. Messal also took part.

Hornbrook Family
At Church Meeting

Hornbrook - Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greene and granddaughters Linda and Lydia attended a meeting in Grants Pass last Sunday afternoon of all Episcopal churches in the southern Oregon deanery. The meeting, held at St. Luke's church, was for the purpose of presenting the mite boxes for the missionary fund of the Episcopal church.

Linda and Lydia sang with the junior choir for the service. Speaker for the afternoon was the Rev. C. W. Crowther, student chaplain from the University of the City of Los Angeles. Mr. Crowther was in the southern Oregon area to lead a retreat for students of Southern Oregon college at the Black Oak Episcopal Conference Center on the Rogue river.

Gold and silver are being used for the highest-styled bathing suits. Suits of metallic jersey were shown by Paris dressmakers Nina Ricci and Pierre Cardin.
