

Gentile HRs Pace Oriole Win

Baltimore First Baseman Sets Three New Records

No matter who you like for the triple crown — Mickey Mantle or Carl Yastrzemski — it might be a wise idea to keep your eye on a dark horse named Jim Gentile.

Baseball's "railbirds" gradually are becoming convinced the broad-backed Baltimore Oriole first baseman can do it.

Gentile gave them added food for thought by setting three major league records with a pair of grand slam homers in consecutive innings during a 13-5 victory over Minnesota that led Baltimore into sole possession of third place in the American league.

The 26-year-old Gentile — all his friends call him "Diamond Jim" — drove in nine runs with his two homers and a sacrifice fly so that he now leads the league with 30 RBIs. That gives him six more than Mantle has and his season total of nine home runs is the same as Mantle's.

Given to brooding when he's not hitting, Gentile has been known to moan, "Maybe I should have been a truck driver like my father," but the fact of the matter is that he's making a joke of the sophomore linx with a current batting average of .353 that is third best in the league.

Gentile's first homer Tuesday came off loser Pedro Ramos (2-2) in the first inning and his second one was hit at the expense of Paul Giel in the second inning. The Orioles' slugger thus became the first man in major league history ever to hit grand slam homers in consecutive times at bat and in consecutive innings. The eight runs he drove in with those two blows earned him another record — most runs driven in over two innings.

Ron Hansen also homered for the Orioles to help Chuck Estrada to his second victory. Bob Allison hit a pair of homers for the Twins and Hal Naragon and Harmon Killebrew hit one apiece.

Elsewhere in the AL, the Chicago White Sox snapped a seven game losing streak with a 4-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Kansas City beat New York, 5-4; first place Detroit ran its winning streak to six games with a 7-2 win over Washington in the opener of a two-night doubleheader, but lost the nightcap, 5-4, and Los Angeles beat Boston, 8-7.

In the National League, Pittsburgh ended San Francisco's four-game winning streak, 9-6; Milwaukee downed Chicago, 8-5, and Los Angeles defeated Philadelphia, 5-2, in a game called during the sixth inning because of rain, which also postponed the Dodgers' game.

The loss went to Jim Weaver. Spokane played errorless ball but the Bees killed their chances with five errors.

Weather permitting, the same teams are scheduled to meet again tonight.

the St. Louis-Cincinnati contest.

Score Wins First

Jim Landis' two-run homer in the eighth against the Indians enabled southpaw Herb Score to win his first game of the season for the White Sox. Score limited the Tribe to two hits while loser Jim Perry yielded only four, two of them by Landis.

The A's chased Whitey Ford with a four-run rally in the eighth inning that brought them their victory over the Yankees. Hank Bauer's two-run single off reliever Luis Arroyo, the loser, was one of the big blows during the frame. Ray Herbert (2-1) was the winner although tagged for homers by Bill Skowron and Tony Kubek.

Don Mossi of the Tigers won his fourth straight without a defeat by holding the Senators to four hits in the opener. Detroit clinched the victory with a three-run rally in the third at the expense of rookie Joe McClain (3-2). Gene Woodling led Washington in the nightcap, however, connecting for four hits, including a homer and a triple. Bennie Daniels (1-3) was the winner and Paul Foytack (1-2) the loser. Willie Tasby hit a homer in each game.

Homers by Jerry Casale, Gene Leek, Earl Averill and Leon Wagner helped the Angels beat the Red Sox for their fourth victory in a row. Albie Pearson scored the winning run in the bottom of the ninth on a throwing error by rookie outfielder Carl Yastrzemski, who had homered earlier. El Grba (3-2) was the winning pitcher and Ted Willis (1-1) the loser.

Roberto Clemente paced the Pirates to their victory over the Giants by driving in four runs. Clemente had three hits, including a homer, to help Harvey Haddix to his second victory. Jack Sanford, who lasted only one inning, suffered his third defeat.

Bob Buhl pitched a four-hitter and Joe Adcock hit two home runs in the Braves' victory over the Cubs. Buhl (1-2) had his biggest trouble with Ernie Banks, who hit a three-run homer in the first inning and a homer with the bases empty in the sixth. Glen Hovine suffered his fourth setback against one victory.

The Dodgers' victory over the Phillies moved them to within one game of the league-leading Giants. Don Drysdale picked up his third victory in the rain-abbreviated contest and Art Mahaffey was tagged with his third defeat. Ron Fairly and Norm Larker each homered for the Dodgers.
