Grange News

Central Point Grange

The first and second degrees were conferred on a class of eight candidates at the Central Point Grange recently. Those receiving the degrees were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Earnest and Dick White of Rocky Ann Grange, Ron Rensen and Bruce Pingle Jr. of Butte Falls Grange, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Kilbourn and Mrs. Stella Purkeypile of Central Point.

Under the direction of Dee Hendrickson, who officiated as the master, the following Grange women made up the team: Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, overseer; Mrs. Marshall Waldman, lecturer; Mrs. Charles Jantzer, gatekeeper; Mrs. Delmar Smith, steward; Mrs. O. T. Wilson, chaplain; Mrs. Ed Walters, secretary; Miss Janet Barber, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Morehouse, Ceres; Mr. Henry Conger, Pomona; Mr. William Straus, Flora; Mr. Coet Wendt, assistant steward; Mrs. Dee Hendrickson, lady assistant steward; and executive committee members Mrs. John Neidermyer, Mrs. L.C. Gordon, and Mrs. Cecil Keenan.

Four descriptive tableaux were arranged by Mrs. James Cornutt. Those participating were Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. Bever, Marcia Bever, Mrs. Sidnor, and Cindy Barber. Soloists were Mrs. Melvin Hall and Mrs. Fred Kuest. Mrs. Gaston Floux was pianist for the degree and accompanied the soloists.

Lecturer Dee Hendrickson honored mothers who had been married 50 years or more. Those receiving corsages were Mrs. O. T. Wilson, Mrs. H. Conger, and a visiting member of Butte Falls Grange, Mrs. Ben Edmondson.

Master Ben Fulton of Butte Falls Grange and Roscoe Roberts of Rocky Ann Grange were escorted to the master's station. During the business session, committee reports were given.

Mrs. Keenan, vice chairman, reported on business transacted at the HEC club meeting recently. Plans for a rummage sale, fall dinner with a bazaar, and country store are being made. The display table was under the direction of Mrs. Gordon, who had arranged tree poodles and spring flowers in a basket.

On May 13, Rocky Ann Grange will confer the third and fourth degrees. Pomona Grange will meet at Central Point Grange hall to confer the fifth degree May 24. All ladies attending are asked to bring cookies. The Oregon State Grange will convene in Beaverton from June 12 to 17.

Small trees which had been given to the Central Point Garden club to use as a beautification project in the community were given to the Grange members. Charles Hoover of the Eagle Point Grange, who is sponsoring this entire project as a Community Service, was present and reported on the project. Through the work of the Eagle Point Grange all schools in the county have received trees. The Central Point Garden club plan to plant some of the trees around one of the schools this fall.

Serving for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lydiard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jantzer, and Mrs. Lottie Cingcade.

The Rocky Ann Grange degree team will confer the third and fourth degrees at the hall Saturday, May 13, at 8:15 p.m. All other Granges that have candidates are invited to attend.

Henry Hendrickson, state Grange overseer, who is master of Winona Grange in Washington county, and Mrs. Hendrickson, were recent guests of Rocky Ann Grange. Mrs. Richard Schuhard and Mrs. Dan Hull sang during the lecturer's hour at the meeting recently. Poems were read by Mrs. Paul Dalton and Mrs. Van Garden and songs sung by Kenneth Noble and Jens Myhre.

The Home Economics club chairman reported that Mrs. Kenneth Shaw and Mrs. S. McMahon were hostesses for the last meeting.

At the close of the Grange meeting, refreshments were served by the men in honor of Mother's Day.

Firemen Visit 94

Homes in Inspection

Medford city firemen called on 94 homes Tuesday in their home inspection for fire hazards program. Of these, there was no one home at 43 residences, and firemen were refused entry at nine residences. Of the 42 homes inspected, firemen found no fire hazards in 15 of them. They issued a total of 39 recommendations for the removal of fire hazards.

CRANK MAIL DECREASES

Washington—There has been a decrease in the number of anti-Catholic letters sent to President Kennedy by cranks, according to Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman.
