Mask Play Will Open On Friday

Phoenix - Final rehearsals are being held for "Cheaper By the Dozen", which will be presented by the Phoenix High Mask club Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13, at the Phoenix High school gym at 8 p.m. In this based-on-fact play, the humor is said to be genuine and delightful, and the story to have meaning and importance.

Dad (Richard Coulter), is a terrific efficiency expert, and he believes that what will work in the factory will also work at home. To speed up the young people's education, Dad buys language lesson records for them to play every morning in the bathroom.

Despite Anne (Karen McCabe), Ernestine (Elizabeth King), Martha (Marjorie Brood) and Lillian (Donna Hill), his high school age daughters and their interest in boys and dates, Dad pushes ahead with better organization for his large and delightful family.

The girls don't understand why Dad regards their interest in dates as a waste of precious time. As Dad is about to leave for Europe, both he and Anne are miserable at the lack of understanding between them. Then, in a moving scene, Dad becomes aware of how much Anne has grown, and at the same time, Anne realizes the truth about Dad.

John Morrison and Stuart Vencill are cast for the parts of Frank and Bill Gilbreth. Youngest children of the family, Dan, Fred and Jackie will be played by Mike Langley, Wayne Singley and Bob Barentine, respectively.

Gene Holt will portray Larry, while Rick Jennings has been cast as Joe Scates. Mrs. Fitzgerald, the overworked housekeeper of the Gilbreth family, is played by Mariann Furrer, and Darlyn Popow has been cast for the part of Miss Brill, a rather haughty old school teacher.

"Cheaper By the Dozen" is directed by Bob Myrick, Mask Club adviser. Students heading the production staff are: Frances Kievet, make-up; James Scott, lighting and sound; Shearon Poole, house; Chyrl Bowman, properties; Laura Griffith, publicity; and Lloyd Hart, stage crew.
