Ceremony In Loomis Weds Pair

Of interest here is news of the wedding April 23 in Loomis, Calif., of Miss Monarae Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldmar Storz, to Ronald Lee Hahner, Sacramento. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hahner, 739 Dakota street, Medford.

The wedding was performed by the Rev. T. Nace at 7:30 o'clock in the evening before about 100 guests.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of silk organza with long pointed sleeves, and her fingertip-length veil was held by a rhinestone crown. Her flowers were gardenias and carnations.

Mrs. Barbara Francis, New Castle, Calif., was matron of honor. She wore a blue gingham gown with lace inserts and carried gardenias and pink carnations. Bridesmaids, Miss Linda Keenan, Sacramento, and Miss Kathryn Vincent, Fair Oaks, wore pink gingham gowns.

Loria De Fuentes and Kathy Cobb, who lighted candles, wore gowns similar to that of the matron of honor's.

Keith Paschke, Medford, served as best man, Ushers were John Davies, Loomis, and Dave Nelson, Sacramento.

A reception followed at Finn hall in Rocklin and the couple left for a week's honeymoon in Disneyland, the bride wearing a white wool sheath with matching accessories. The newlyweds are making their home at 2851 26th street, Sacramento.

The bride was graduated from Placer High school in 1959 and the bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school in 1954.

In California

Ashland - Mrs. Minnie Newton, 916 Iowa street, is visiting this week in Santa Rosa, Calif., with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herndon.

Sutch-Berns Ceremony Held at Catholic Church

Miss Barbara Berns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin W. Berns, formerly of Medford and now of Glendale, Ore., became the bride of Steven Sutch Jr., Glendale, in a ceremony April 29 at Medford's Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John Hg officiated at the nuptial mass and wedding ceremony.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Steven Sutch, Glendale.

White stock decorated the church for the 10 o'clock morning rites.

Mr. Berns escorted his daughter to the altar.

Mrs. Willard Ponsonby played the organ music and accompanied the Misses Donna and Patty Ponsonby, who sang.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over tulle accented with seed pearls at the neckline and on the three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held by a crown of crystals and seed pearls and she carried a white orchid and orange blossoms on a Bible with a rosary. The orange blossoms had been worn by her mother at her wedding.

Miss Shirley Berns attended her sister. She wore an ice mint green chiffon frock over tulle with white accessories. Her cascade bouquet was of white carnations, Little Debra Sutch, Glendale, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She carried a basket of white petals. Tommy Johnson, Glendale, was ring bearer.

Edwin Sutch, Glendale, served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Darl Sutch, Glendale, another brother, and Philip Meglasson, Riddle. Mrs. Berns wore for her daughter's wedding a pale green two piece linen suit with white and beige accessories. Mrs. Sutch chose a beige shantung frock with matching jacket with pink and beige accessories. Their corsages were of white rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Girls Community club with about 80 relatives and friends attending. Mrs. Charles Berns and Mrs. Clifford Husman, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Loren Meacham, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake. Assisting with the serving were Miss Linda Freeman, Miss Donna Ponsonby and Miss Charleta Long.

The couple traveled to the coast on their wedding trip and are making their home in Glendale. For traveling the bride wore a pink linen sheath with white and pink accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride attended Medford High school for three years and is now a senior at Glendale High school. Mr. Sutch attended Glendale High school and is a logger with the Berry Logging company.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Berns, Lebanon, and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Derrick, who are living at the coast, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berns, aunt and uncle of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Nelson and Dana, all Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Husman and Dick, Brookings, and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Meacham, Eugene, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom.

Sisters Leave For Stay Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Strang, Oak Ridge avenue, were in Eugene recently to spend some time with Mrs. Strang's mother, Mrs. Pearl Strobel.

Mrs. Strobel and her three sisters left May 12 by jet plane for Europe where they spend several weeks touring that continent. The sisters are Mrs. Lucille Pettibone, Mrs. Ella Dey and Mrs. Sadie Tripp. All four women are widows, and it will be the first trip abroad for all four.

Methodist Women To Hold Rogue Sub-District Session

Gold Hill - The Rogue sub-district of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will hold its annual spring meeting in the Gold Hill Community church Tuesday, May 16.

Registration will open at 9:30 a.m.; the meeting will open with devotions at 10 a.m. by the Rev. Lochlen L. Gregory, Gold Hill pastor.

Mrs. James Lindsay, Wilderville, sub-district president, will preside over the business meeting. There will be election and installation of officers.

Workshops on the various lines of work will be conducted by the district officers. Reports of the year's activities will be given by local society presidents. Societies represented will be Ashland, Talent, Medford First, St. Luke's, Medford, Gold Hill, Grants Pass, Cave Junction and Wilderville.

Luncheon will be served at 12:15 p.m. A nursery will be available. Other societies are asked to send their reservations to Mrs. E. C. Hoffman, president of the local group, being sure to state how many babies and pre-school children will be attending as the facilities for child care are limited at the Gold Hill church. Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Paul Molloy are in charge of luncheon arrangements.

Planning to attend the affair from Eugene is Mrs. George Blinkhorn, district president.

Donna Colpitts Honored Guest

Central Point - A bridal shower honoring Miss Donna Colpitts was given Sunday, May 7, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ray Colpitts, of Route 1, Box 470, Central Point.
