

Annual Home Extension Festival Set For Friday; Units To Meet

The annual Jackson County Home Extension festival will be held Friday, May 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the Wilson School gymnasium, Grand and Corona avenue. An evening festival has been planned this year for the first time in hopes that more people will become informed about the extension home economics program. Day time festivals did not give the husbands an opportunity to attend.

Mrs. Lucian Van Gordon, county committee chairman, will act as mistress of ceremonies. The invocation will be given by the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans.

J. D. Vertrees, Klamath county agent, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "The Little Things of Life."

Capt. Clyde Fichtner of the Medford police department will speak on traffic safety.

Future Workers To Be Honored

Grants Pass - The annual tea for the Future Medical Workers of Grants Pass High school will be held at Josephine General Hospital May 18.

The Josephine County Medical auxiliary will provide transportation to the event for the girls and serves refreshments.

Mrs. Arthur Forsgren was elected president of the auxiliary at a recent meeting.

Mrs. Frank Purizer will serve as vice president and Mrs. Edward Wall will be secretary-treasurer.

The luncheon meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John R. Boe with Mrs. Robert Wilbur as cohostess.

Mrs. D. G. Mackie, an auxiliary member, was elected fourth vice-president of the Oregon State Medical auxiliary at the recent state meeting in Portland.

Friday afternoon the silver tea of the Josephines was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Judy.

Groups To Hold Dinner Tuesday

Jacksonville-Oregon chapter Royal Arch Masons and the Royal Arch Widows will hold the monthly potluck dinner, Tuesday, May 16, at 6:30 p.m. in the Masonic temple, Jacksonville.

The committee for the evening will be Mrs. Minnie Offenbacher, Mrs. Fred Offenbacher, Mrs. Harry Bryden, Mrs. Albert Griffin.

Council Fire Plans Made By Leaders

Plans for a grand council fire for the Eagle Point district Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds were completed at a recent meeting of the Leaders Association held in the home of Mrs. Lyle Greenwood on Brophy road.

Mrs. Joseph Shelton is general chairman for the event, which is the annual awards night for the organization. It will be held in the grade school gymnasium at 7:30 p.m., Friday, May 26. A rehearsal will be held after school there, Thursday, May 25. All girls participating are to practice.

Mrs. Merle McGraw was appointed chairman of the awards committee and states that guardians wishing to make an appointment with her for girls needing to pass examination to receive rank, are to do so during the week of May 15 through 19. Also all leaders who have girls year membership awards must file the applications at the Camp Fire office. Lists of names for candy sale awards must also be presented.

The Ne-Wa-Kan-Tanda group has a display of dolls dressed in Camp Fire and ceremonial costumes in the window of Olsen's confectionery. Anyone who hasn't seen it is invited to do so before it is dismantled.

An insurance plan which is available to leaders for field trips was explained by Mrs. Le Roy Bedingfield. All group-sponsored swimming parties require a person who has passed the Red Cross life-saving test to be present, as a Council safety measure, leaders were informed.

Others attending were Mrs. Lee Roy Draper, Mrs. Loren Greenwood, Mrs. William Short and Mrs. Thomas Schatz.

O'Brien Woman Heads League

O'Brien - Mrs. Frank Cooke was elected president of the Civic Women's league at a business meeting May 3 at the home of Mrs. Gary Ellis, Cave Junction.

Others elected were Mrs. Donald Savage, vice-president; Mrs. Larry Farmer, secretary, and Mrs. Larry Musil, treasurer. Mrs. William Forrest is the retiring president. The officers will be installed in June. Mrs. Gordon Anderson will hold a social in O'Brien with two birthdays being observed.

The group decided to have a linen basket project ready for the Jubilee of Illinois valley in September. A food sale was held yesterday.

Mrs. Dolph Phipps To Be Hostess
Mrs. Dolph Phipps, 4502 Crater Lake highway, will be hostess for a meeting of Chapter CP of the PEO sisterhood at her home Wednesday, May 17. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Initiation Held By Medford Club

Mrs. Dean Hardenburger and Mrs. Carl Clymer were initiated into Medford Toastmistress club at a "surprise night" recently. The meeting was held at 218 West Main street, with Mrs. George Watson presiding.

The membership pledge was given by Mrs. Bernice Kunzman, and Mrs. J. D. Brummond performed the induction ceremony. Mrs. C. E. Wilson, who served as toastmistress, asked each member to give a short talk on some surprise experience.

Mrs. C. E. Wilson reported on the northwest regional convention held at Vancouver, B.C.

Mrs. Charles Redmond, Mrs. Elmer Ness and Mrs. James VanderSteen were elected to the nominating committee.

Officers Are Elected

Mrs. Mamie Bloomfield was re-elected president of the Jackson County Retired Teachers association at a meeting Saturday, May 8, at Rogue Valley Manor. Miss Annette Gray is vice-president; Mrs. Mary Norvell, secretary; and Mrs. C. J. Baughman, treasurer.

Various members gave short talks for the program. Thirty-one women attended. A special guest was Mrs. Allie Maxwell, former Medford teacher who is visiting here from Pennsylvania.

The group toured the manor and refreshments were served in the club room. Hostesses were the Mesdames Glenn O. Taylor, Alice Applegate Peil, Maye Wells and Genevieve Aggeler and the Misses Elizabeth Burr and Ruth Nye.

Montana Family Ashland Visitors

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. Harold Laws and small son have arrived from Thompson Falls, Mont., to spend their two weeks vacation with Mrs. Law's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Livingston, 1617 Parker street, and with her brother, Bruce Hoy, and family, 1662 Homes avenue.

Mrs. Law's twin sister, Mrs. Jay Hanson, and family of Missoula, Mont., were recent guests at the Livingston home.

Talent-Priscilla circle of the Talent Methodist church will hold the May meeting Monday, May 15, at 7:30 p.m., in the Annex.

Miss Mabel Tyrell will show pictures and speak about her missionary work in Africa.

Royal Neighbors Hold Convention

Election of officers for the 1963 convention, and an evening banquet were among highlights of the district convention of the Royal Neighbors of America in Medford May 9. Sessions were held in the Knights of Pythias hall.

Mrs. Elba Graham, Jacksonville, was elected oracle for the 1963 convention; Mrs. Virgie Stewart, Klamath Falls, vice-oracle; Mrs. Carl Pearson, Medford, past oracle; Mrs. Leonora Broili, Ashland, chancellor; Mrs. Ernest Rasmussen, Jacksonville, recorder-receiver; and Mrs. John Hall, Ashland, marshal. The next convention is to be held in Jacksonville.

Officers conducting this year's session were Mrs. Pearson, oracle; Mrs. Graham, vice-oracle; Mrs. Carl Dalkenberg, Ashland, past oracle; Mrs. David Fraysher, Medford, recorder-receiver; Mrs. Mabel Hazlewood, Ashland, chancellor; Mrs. Irvin Patten, Medford, marshal; Mrs. William Russell, Medford, assistant marshal; Mrs. Robert Gilman, Medford, musician; Mrs. Frank Gidney, Medford, inner sentinel; Mrs. Harold Reed, Jacksonville, outer sentinel; Mrs. Lum Lancaster, Ashland, faith; Mrs. Chris Hagler, Jacksonville, modesty; Mrs. Charles Kretschmer, Grants Pass, unselfishness; Mrs. Clayton Morris, Klamath Falls, endurance; and Mrs. Joe Pollack, Grants Pass, flag bearer.

Special guests introduced included the state supervisor, Mrs. Earl Duvall, Vancouver, Wash.; state oracle, Mrs. Ernest R. Johnson, Coquille; district deputies, Mrs. Frank Steele, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Clayton Walker, Medford; and past state supervisor, Mrs. Broili.

Mrs. Walker delivered the welcoming address and Mrs. Steele made the response. The Medford camp was hostess for luncheon. A May basket theme was used in decorations for the dining room, and Mrs. C. R. Alexander provided crocheted baskets for the event.

On the luncheon committee were the Mesdames DeWitt Ferguson, Frank Hussong, C. R. Alexander, James Stephenson and Ruby Hicks.

Speakers at the afternoon meeting included Mayor John Snider and Mrs. Duvall. Guests and district officers were presented corsages and given grand honors of the lodge. Escorts were the Mesdames Delbert Ross, Arthur Johnson, Irvin Patten and William Russell. Anita Kay Johnson and Rusty Pursell assisted with the corsage presentations.

The convention recognized older members with gifts presented by the district oracle. Past district oracles also received gifts and corsages.

Mrs. Gilman and Mrs. Walter Olson received their 25-year membership pins. Med-

Tokyo-WPI-A survey by the Cosmetic Industry Association showed that 87.2 per cent of Japanese women use lipsticks, 81 per cent use face lotion, 73.4 per cent use hair remover, 66 per cent use face powder, and 47.3 per cent manicure their fingernails.

ford Juveniles performed ritualistic exercises and presented gifts to the special guests.

Mrs. Charles Hendry was toastmistress for the banquet, which was prepared by women of the First Christian church. On the decorations committee were the Mesdames Tom Mee, L. S. Bashaw, Robert Gilman, Ray Anderson and Frank Gidney.

Candidates from the various camps were initiated in ceremonies open to the public. On the program were the Medford High school Madrigal singers, directed by Lynn Sjolund; Mr. and Mrs. Wally Parks of the Arthur Murray studios, who danced; and Ashland camp members, Mrs. Stewart Hedges and Mrs. Bert Roberts, who presented a skit.

Mrs. Marie Bowling sang, accompanied by Mrs. George Wendt, Jacksonville, and members of the Klamath Falls and Jacksonville camps also gave skits. Mrs. Earl Duvall gave a talk on insurance of the society.
