Hospital Auxiliary Gives Tea Monday

More than 100 persons attended the annual auxiliary tea at Rogue Valley Memorial hospital Monday afternoon, according to the president, Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer. Each year the public is invited to visit the hospital during National Hospital week, to become better acquainted with the work being done by employees and volunteers.

Mrs. Frohnmayer reports that much interest was shown in the exhibits, arranged in the Board and Staff room and adjacent areas. Charles I. Gustafson, administrator, showed a new bed and table unit, and chairs designed for patient rooms.

just wear a smile and a Jantzen

Low and behold... beauty never seen on the beach before. "Persian Velvet" by Jantzen is a low-dipping swimknit with the soft, velvety surface and exotic colorings of authentic Persian carpet. We promise you've never known anything like it... or what it does for your figure. Exclusive French Bra cups, 10-18, 15.95.

That most wished-for "light spirit" of a swimsuit is now a reality! Jantzen replaces heavy, corset-y fabrics with new, lightweight Taffine of acetate, cotton and rubber which molds and holds, yet barely seems to be there. Ask to try "Distraction," a hip camouflaging draped sheath with miracle built-in bra, 10-18, $17.95.

Jantzen designed them just for you... the girl who reaches for the stars and gets them. Fully lined eyelet embroidery swimsuit features a new "slimmeroo-short" leg cut that's briefer, slimmer, miles more flattering. Matching cover-up beach jacket completes the delicate "little girl look." Swimsuit, 8-18, $19.95; jacket, $12.95.
