

PTA Elects Officers; Events Set

Tiller-Drew - Officers were elected at the last meeting of Tiller-Drew Parent-Teacher association.

Elected were Mrs. John Wilson, president; Mrs. Richard Williams, vice-president; Mrs. Roy Jackson, secretary; and Mrs. Glenn Rogers, treasurer.

Mrs. Jack Lenher announced that the Tiller-Drew unit is eligible for the Gold Leaf award and will be honored at the state convention in September.

Seventh and eighth grade children will be rewarded with a wiener roast for having the greatest percentage of parents as members of the PTA.

Mrs. Pat Claussen was nominated for education lay citizen of the year for Douglas county for her "conscientious and intensive preliminary work in establishing a kindergarten in District 15."

The program consisted of two musical selections from the talent show which will be given at Canyonville April 12. Carl Johnson played a saxophone solo. Three boys from the sixth grade played a number on trumpet, trombone, and the drums. Mr. York, Canyonville principal, gave a short talk on his three years in Japan, after which he showed slides of interesting places and festivals in Japan.

Refreshments were served by mothers of pupils in the second grade.

Lions Auxiliary Holds Initiation

Shady Cove-Trail - The Shady Cove-Trail Lions auxiliary held a dinner meeting and initiation at the River-view cafe at Shady Cove April 2.

Five candidates were initiated and were presented corsages. They are Mrs. Buster Akins, Mrs. Dan Aberg, Mrs. Russell Stelle, Mrs. Thelma Richardson and Mrs. Arthur Tropp.

The director of District E, Mrs. George Hubbard, Prospect, told of the speech therapy practiced at the Oregon

Youth Activities Of Methodists Program Topic

Yreka - A program on youth activities was presented at the Methodist Church Tuesday, April 3rd for the monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Robert Buckner and Mrs. James Elsea showed pictures and talked on the student work in the church. Mrs. Buckner showed color slides of the Youth Camp of the Methodist church located near Castle Lake.

Mrs. Elsea showed a color film of the Wesley Foundation of the Methodist church and its work on the campus. Mrs. Elsea also told of her work of writing, sending magazines and cookies to the college students who are members of the Yreka Methodist church and the boys who are in the service and of the letters of appreciation she has received.

Mrs. Halbert Smith used as her devotion an Easter candlelight service entitled "The Light of Faith."

During the business meeting these dates were announced by the president Mrs. Ray Penney: May 15, installation of officers and a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. John Brazie; May 12, breakfast for the high school seniors of the church and their parents; April 25, the WSCS will serve a luncheon for the Girl Scout executives of the Crater Lake district.

The members also sorted clothes to be sent to the Indian Mission in Nevada.

Party Ends Classes At Clubhouse

Rogue Valley Country Club members played host to parents and friends at a dinner dance in the club's Starlight room recently. The party is always planned as the concluding event for the dance classes held for young people in the sixth and seventh grades, and has become one of the most enjoyable events of the year at the club, it is reported.

About 160 attended this year.

Carnival Is Held By Yreka PTA

Yreka - The carnival given Friday evening by the Yreka Elementary Parent-Teacher association was a huge success. Crowds filled the corridors as students and parents pushed their way from room to room to try their hand at some game or buy something good to eat or drink.

The proceeds will go for youth welfare, including the science fair and the Yreka Youth center. Last year part of the funds were used to plant trees at Jackson street and Gold street schools, and to help purchase racks for bicycles. Mrs. Birmingham and Mrs. Forrest Seright were co-chairmen for the event. Special chairmen included Mrs. Tom Colburn and Mrs. Gleason, Mexican room; Mrs. Walter Garchow, pizza room; Mrs. Don Tulser, coffee room; and Mrs. Sidney Ziegler and Mrs. L. H. Doneyer, cafeteria. Mrs. Henry Holman was script chairman.

Dinner was served in the multi-purpose room of the Jackson street school.

New games and rooms were added to the list this year. These included the Space room, Pizza room and cake walk room. Favorites of past years were the Pantry, Grandma's Attic, the Circus room, Mexican room, Ye Old Sweet Shoppe and a busy place where live fish and turtles were sold.

There were two rooms for dancing, the Music room for older students where live music was furnished by "Mike to Mid-Nighters," and a Record dance.

This is the only fund raising project for the PTA for the year and the profits will be spread to cover many student affairs.

Bethel Holds Junior Night

Central Point-Junior Bethel night was observed April 3 by members of Bethel 38, International Order of Job's Daughters at the Central Point Masonic hall.

Among the younger daughters participating at the direction of Queen June Hopkins were the Misses Sheila Beasley, chaplain; Susan Morgan, musician; Sherri Snook, librarian; Pamela Squire, senior custodian; Alice Cook, junior custodian; Gail Fisher, recorder; Anna Morgan, treasurer; Susan Muller, Kenna Woodward, Miki Ann Hays, Mary Ellen Kurz, Mary Pinkham, messengers; Nancy Armstrong, inner guard; and Anna Thompson, outer guard.

The Bethel will hold a cake sale on April 14 at Faber's and the Thrift market in Central Point, as part of an annual fund raising project.

The decorating committee for the evening consisted of the Misses Linda Chisum, Elin Livingston and Gail Fisher.

Refreshments for the evening were provided by the Misses Rena Affitt, Sandra Beasley and Pamela Squire.

Teacher Chooses Paintings For Library Display

Jack Teeters, teacher of art at McLoughlin Junior high school was guest speaker for the Southern Oregon Society of Artists at their March meeting. Mr. Teeters demonstrated clay modeling and also selected pictures for the Public Library of Medford and Jackson County.

Paintings, which will be on exhibit for the month of April, are by Mrs. Ada Andrews and Mrs. Georgia Neece, Gold Hill; Mrs. Elizabeth Sheffield, Rogue River; Mrs. Barbara Moser, Mrs. Eileen Mole, Mrs. Catherine Larson and Mrs. Fran Middleton, Medford.

New associate members of the society are Mrs. James Kelly, Mrs. Fred Phillips and Mrs. Desmond Stout, Medford. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Friden, Rogue River; Mrs. Arlan Stone, Mrs. Margaret Stonebraker, Mrs. David Stearns and Mrs. Edith Arnold, Medford. The next meeting of the society will be Wednesday, April 25.

Chapter Hears Of Easter Seal Camp and School

Eagle Point-A recording telling of the chapter's philanthropic projects, Camp Easter Seal in Coos County and the Crippled Children's Hospital school in Lane county was presented by Mrs. Chester Peterson at a meeting of Beta Nu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha April 4.

Plans were made to distribute Easter Seal containers in the area northeast of Medford. Mrs. Dick Chamberlain and Mrs. Thomas Mast volunteered to assist Mrs. Karl Proctor in arranging program for Founders' day to be celebrated May 6. The educational program for the May 18 meeting was outlined by Mrs. B. H. Gilbert. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Vannice, 121 South "B" street, Eagle Point.

Under new business it was voted to sponsor one child for the Pear Festival court and to do volunteer work at the Eagle Point Community building Saturday, April 7.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. B. H. Gilbert, at her home on Bigham drive, Central Point.

Yreka Parents Tour Department Of High School

Yreka - Members of the Yreka High School Parent-Teacher association toured the industrial arts department of the school following the last business meeting held at the school building.

Mrs. Paul Dunham, president, conducted a business meeting in the home economics room preceding the department tour.

Conducting the tour were Jim Meek, woodworking instructor; Tom Birmingham, mechanical drawing teacher; and Robert Buckner, auto and metal shop instructor.

Each of the faculty members described methods of teaching, displayed machinery used and showed some of the students' work.

Mr. Birmingham stressed that mechanical drawing is a basic skill used the world over.

Mr. Meek and Mr. Buckner pointed out the safety precautions used in the department to safeguard students and displayed some of the modern machinery used in each shop.

It was reported by the three teachers that an expansion program for the department is being worked out and should be in operation next year.

Next meeting will be put on by the boys' and girls' physical education department.

Meeting Planned By Sewing Club

The sewing club of the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary will meet Thursday, April 12, at 11 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Lavina James, 5223 Gebhard road, Central Point. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon.
