

MHS Girls Win Tilt At Oswego

Medford High school girls tennis team defeated Lake Oswego Saturday 7 to 0 at Lake Oswego.

In singles Sandy Shugart beat Gail Frey, 6-4, 6-0; Sharon Dixon won from Tammy Young, 1-6, 6-3, 7-5; Linda Sempert tripped Heide Hoffman 3-6, 6-3, 6-4; Sharon Young trimmed Barbara Bunnell 5-7, 6-1, and by default and Kathy Smith won from Elaine Otness 6-4, 7-5.

Doubles matches saw Shugart and Dixon whip Tammy Young and Hoffman, 8-0 and Sempert and Sharon Young beat Jan Fortier and Janet Robertson, 8-4.

Lake Oswego girls come to Medford for a 9:30 a.m. match on Saturday, April 21.

Seconds Win
Medford's second squad subdued Hedrick Junior high 7 to 0 on Friday. In singles Diane Paulsen defeated Kaye Hay, 6-0, 6-2; Nancy House won from Judy Mee 6-0, 6-3; Druan Graff beat Jeanne Salade, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1; Janet Crawford clipped Karen Davis, 6-1, 6-4 and Sandra Irving outscored Anne Richardson, 6-3, 6-1.

Paulsen and House prevailed over Hay and Mee, 6-3, 6-4, in doubles and Graff and Irving beat Salade and Davis, 6-3.

Bill Casper Golf Victor
Greensboro, N. C. — (UPI) — Bill Casper Jr. and Mike Souchak, looking more like football players in practice jerseys than golf pros, sat next to each other on rickety wooden chairs Sunday and told how they finished one-two in the $35,000 Greater Greensboro Open golf tournament.

"It's really hard to believe I won the tournament," said the bear-like Casper who picked up a check for $5,300 as the 1962 Greensboro Open champion. "The good Lord is certainly looking over me this year so far."

Casper's four round total of 275 was one stroke better than the 276 turned in by Souchak, who won the Greensboro Open last year with another 276.

Seven times winner of the Greensboro Open Sam Snead finished third with a 278 and won $2,200. Billy Maxwell of Las Vegas, Nev., won fourth place money of $1,900 with two under par 282 at the Sedgfield Country club.

LA Dodgers Eye Giants
Los Angeles — (UPI) — Manager Walt Alton expressed his satisfaction with the play of the Los Angeles Dodgers today as the club left for San Francisco and its first meeting with the Giants.

Alton refused to lose his composure over the Dodgers' 6-3 loss to Milwaukee Sunday but said mistakes played a part in the defeat.

"I'll settle for winning two out of three games with all the top clubs," Alton said, pointing out that the Dodgers had that mark against Cincinnati and Milwaukee during their first home stand.

Lineup Changes
"But I hope this team made all the mistakes it's going to make for a while in Sunday's game," he added.

For the two-game series with the Giants, Alton named Stan Williams and Don Drysdale as his starting pitchers and for tonight's game he said he would make a couple of lineup changes.

He named left-handers John Roseboro to catch and Ron Fairly to play right field against southpaw Billy O'Dell. They replaced Norm Sherry and Frank Howard, both of whom went hitless Sunday.

Beavers, Ducks Keep on Rolling
United Press International
The Oregon State Beavers and the Oregon Ducks keep rolling up baseball victories.

The unbeaten Beavers walked Seattle 14-6 at Corvallis Saturday for their 13th win in a row.

And in Portland, the Ducks swept a doubleheader from Portland State for their 10th and 11th straight triumphs.

The teams meet for the first time this season next Friday at Eugene. They play at Corvallis Saturday.

Ashland JV Wins Pair
Central Point — Ashland high baseball junior varsity was double winner over its Crater counterpart Saturday at Ashland by scores of 3 to 1 and 5 to 4.

The Ashlanders packed all their runs in the first game into the fourth inning, with DeBoer singling two markers across. There were two walks, an error and two fielder's options in the panel.

John Rhodes for Ashland and Larry Mason for Crater each pitched a one-hitter, whiffing 10 and 11 batters respectively. Mason yielded seven bases on balls and Rhodes none. Don Patterson socked the Crater hit.

Pittsburgh Bucs Issue Reminder They're Still in National Loop

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Amid all the hoopla over the early-season heroics of the San Francisco Giants and Houston Colt .45s, the Pittsburgh Pirates posted a gentle reminder today that they're still in the National League.

Remember the Pirates? They were world champions in 1960 only to nose-dive into a humiliating sixth-place finish in 1961.

Well, they're leading the league today with a perfect 4-0 slate and one very good reason is the return to form of Bob Friend, who won 18 games in 1960 but slumped to a 14-19 record in 1961.

Friend scored his second straight nine-inning victory of the season Sunday when he pitched the Pirates to a 7-2 win over the New York Mets.

Friend, who shut out the Philadelphia Phillies on opening day, thus allowed only 11 hits and two runs in 18 innings.

Smoky Burgess Homers
Batterman Smoky Burgess assured the Pirates' fourth straight victory by capping a five-run rally with a three-run homer off loser Roger Craig in the third inning. Bill Virdon had three hits and Dick Groat and Dick Stuart had two hits each for the Pirates while Felix Mantilla and Jim Marshall homered for the Mets.

The second game of the scheduled doubleheader was snowed out in the third inning with the Mets leading, 2-0.

The Cincinnati Reds handed the Giants their first loss of the season, 4-3, and the Milwaukee Braves scored their first victory of the campaign, 6-3, over the Los Angeles Dodgers in other NL games.

In the American league, the Boston Red Sox beat the Baltimore Orioles, 5-4, after a 5-1 defeat, the Chicago White Sox defeated the Kansas City A's, 8-3, and the Los Angeles Angels beat the Minnesota Twins, 6-3.

Jim Brosnan's 1½ innings of shutout relief preserved Bob Purkey's second victory after the Reds ran up an early lead over the Giants with the aid of two hits by Vada Pinson and errors by Orlando Cepeda and Ed Bailey. Juan Marichal suffered the loss.

Hank Aaron and Ed Mathews collected five hits and drove in four runs between them to pace the Braves to their victory over the Dodgers. Bob Hendley pitched a five-hitter for the Braves to win his first game while Sandy Koufax, who fanned seven in 6 1/3 innings, was the loser.

Steve Barber, on a Sunday pass from Ft. Bragg, N.C., pitched an eight-hitter to win the opener for the Orioles but the Red Sox came back to win the second game with the aid of a key hit and throw by left-fielder Carl Yastrzemski.

Jackie Brandt drove in three runs with a double and a single for the Orioles in the first game. Yastrzemski's bad-hop two-run single drove in two runs for the Red Sox in the
