

Dick Donovan Hurls Second 5-Hit Shutout for Indians

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

No one's perfect, but that's the only way to describe Dick Donovan off his performance for the Cleveland Indians so far.

Donovan has made two starts and come up with a pair of five-hit shutouts back-to-back. That's not only par for the course but it's also the kind of pitching which makes General Manager Gabe Paul look like a genius for obtaining Donovan in a deal with Washington during the off-season.

The 34-year-old Donovan is in a bit of a rut, the kind every pitcher would like to fall into.

He blanked the Boston Red Sox on five hits April 10 in Cleveland's opener and came back against the Red Sox Tuesday night to beat them, 5-0, with another five-hitter.

The two shutouts represent Donovan's entire total with the Senators last season. Even though he lost his first five games in 1961, the veteran Quinicy, Mo., right-hander still led all American league pitchers with a 2.40 earned run average and this year it looks like he may even better that.

Owens Good Slider
Owner of one of the best sliders in the business, Donovan's big trouble with the Senators, for whom he won 10 and lost 10 last year, was that he rarely was given much hitting support.

With the Indians he expects more and is getting more. Rookie Al Luplow and Willie Kirkland each hit homers. The loser was Bill Monbouquette, who pitched a 12-inning shutout against the Indians last week.

The New York Yankees moved into first place with an 8-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles, the Chicago White Sox blanked the Minnesota

Twins, 8-0, Detroit walloped Washington, 9-2, and the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 5-3.

Pittsburgh's unbeaten Pirates made it six in a row by downing the Chicago Cubs, 10-6, in the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers downed the San Francisco Giants, 8-7, and the Houston Astros handed the New York Mets their fifth straight loss, 5-2, in 11 innings. Cold weather caused postponement of the Cardinals-Phillies game while the Reds and Braves were idle.

Skowron Homers
Bill Skowron's seventh-inning homer off reliever Dick Hall snapped a 3-3 tie between the Yankees and Orioles. Skowron drove in three runs and Clete Boyer accounted for two more with a homer and two doubles. Jim Coates hurled four hitless innings in relief of Whitey Ford and was the winner.

Rookie Joe Horlen and Floyd Robinson of the White Sox did a thorough two-man job on the Twins. Horlen pitched a six-hit shutout for his first victory and Robinson drove in seven runs by tagging loser Camilo Pascual for a two-run homer in the first inning driving in another pair with a double in the ninth.

The Tigers trotted out their heavy artillery against the Senators with home runs by Al Kaline, Bill Bruton, Dick Brown and Norm Cash. Jim Bunning stopped the Senators on seven hits for his first victory. Bennie Daniels, who stopped Detroit on five hits in last week's opener, suffered his first loss.

Errors Help A's
Three errors, two of them by veteran Eddie Yost, helped the A's to their victory over the Angels, who played their first game ever at Chavez Ravine. Yost had trouble judging the bounce of the ball on the new playing field and Ken McBride was charged with the loss although none of the four runs he gave up were earned. Rookie John Wyatt, who held the Angels to four hits over the first 6½ innings, was the winner. Danny McDevitt and Bob Grim mopped up.

The Pirates handed the Cubs their seventh straight loss by scoring six runs in the last two innings. Chicago tied a major league record when it used five pitchers in a vain attempt to halt the rallying Buccaneers. Don Leppert drove in what proved to be the deciding run with a single in the eighth off Jack Warner. Lou Brock and Ron Santo homered for the Cubs and Leppert connected for the Pirates. Harvey Haddix was the winner and Barney Schultz the loser.

Larry Sherry saved the Dodgers' victory over the Giants when he struck out Willie Mays in a pinch-hitting role to end a seventh-inning rally and then induced Mays to pop up for the final out of the game with the tying run on base.

Willie arrived late at the ball park because he was tied up in court in connection with his wife's divorce. Don Drysdale, who gave up nine hits, including a homer by Ed Bailey, during the first 6½ innings, was credited with his second victory. Mike McCormick, knocked out in the third, was the loser. He yielded homers to Tim Lincecum and Frank Howard.

Cassey Stengel watched the Mets' hopes for their first victory of the season suddenly dissolve when Don Buddin blasted a three-run homer for the Colts with two out in the 11th. Gus Bell sent the game into overtime when he tied the score at 2-2 with a two-out homer in the ninth. Jim Bolden, who took over for starter Bobby Shantz in the sixth, was the winner and reliever Herb Moford the loser. Norm Larker of the Colts also homered off Met starter Jay Hook.

Oregon Collegiate conference contest against only one defeat, the Red Raiders strengthened their hold on the loop's second spot. Eastern Oregon leads the pack with a 3-0 mark.

Hughes faced only 31 batters as he whiffed 10 Owl stickmen, walked two and hit one with a pitch. It was the lanky junior's second win of the season against one loss, and the nine-inning shutout lowered his season ERA to a nifty 1.93.

The only safeties off Hughes were a first-inning one-baser by Jay Trinca who was moments later erased on a quick SOC double play, and Curt Graf who singled to lead off the Owl seventh.

Keller Four-Hitter
Southern Oregon scored the only tally of the game in the top half of the first stanza when outfielder Damien Rossetto was safe on a fielder's choice after Bill Franks led off with a single. Rossetto moved to second on an infield ground-out and raced home when Hughes grounded a single up the middle.

Tech hurler Jim Keller also flashed his form as he allowed the visiting Raiders only four safe blows, while fanning six and walking two batters.

John Buck and catcher Jess Munyon collected the other Raider hits, both singles. Buck also stole three bases to run his season total to eight.

Crater JV Trips EP

Central Point - A grand slam homer by Harold Allen highlighted a 19 to 3 Crater high junior varsity victory over the Eagle Point varsity here yesterday.

The hit was one of two for Allen. Larry Mason had a triple, double and single in three times up for the Comets. Dan Cossaro doubled and Dave Tidwell tripled.

Twenty-five Crater players got into the game. Three Crater pitchers issued a total of five walks, and Larry Pepper struck out six batters in the first three innings. Seven EP batters were fanned. Eagle tossers whiffed six and walked nine.

Hughes faced only 31 batters as he whiffed 10 Owl stickmen, walked two and hit one with a pitch. It was the lanky junior's second win of the season against one loss, and the nine-inning shutout lowered his season ERA to a nifty 1.93.

Griffin Creek Area Pupils to Register

Parents of students in the Griffin Creek school area who will enter first grade in September have been asked to call the school at Spring 3-2404 as soon as possible to register their child for school.

All children who will be six years old before Nov. 15 may register. A special "Beginner Party" will be held in May for parents and prospective first graders. A date will be announced later.

The Canada goose has a wingspread of about 6 feet and may weigh from 7 to 14 pounds.
