Gold Hill Chamber Hears About Vacation Land of Southern Oregon Plans

Gold Hill—R. H. Gandee, president of Vacation Land of Southern Oregon, explained the advertising procedure that is being carried on to promote the areas of Jackson and Josephine counties at a recent meeting and luncheon of Gold Hill Chamber of Commerce.

Gandee, who is also managing director of Commercial Printing Company, showed stoneprints of brochures that will be printed and ready soon for mailing by Gold Hill Chamber of Commerce to persons making requests for information of the Gold Hill

Sams Valley area.

Gold Hill Chamber of Commerce will participate in Vacation Land of Southern Oregon which is in its second year of operation. Representing the local chamber on the board will be Richard Abbott, president, and Albert H. Harrison, chairman of parks and highways committee.

Vacation Land of Southern Oregon is comprised of members of the Jackson and Josephine county courts, and presidents and tourist chairmen of the various Chambers of Commerce participating in the program.

Eagle Point PTA Plans Afternoon Meet Tuesday

Eagle Point—Musical, artistic, and physical accomplishments of area children will be featured in the student participation program at the next meeting of the Eagle Point Elementary Parent-Teacher association.

This special afternoon program will be held in the grade school gym on Tuesday at 2:15 p.m. A brief business meeting and election of officers will follow the program.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria by mothers of the third grade. Pre-school children will be welcome at the program. Child care will not be provided at this afternoon meeting.

An open house for Mrs. Floyd McKee will be held Sunday, April 22nd from 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Ray Barrow. Mrs. McKee who has taught in the Eagle Point community for 18 years, will retire at the end of this school year. All former students and other friends of Mrs. McKee will be cordially welcome to attend.

First Aid Course Slated For Prospect Personnel

Prospect—A Red Cross first aid course will be given to all supervisory personnel of the Prospect Forest Service district during the week of April 23 to 27.

This course will be conducted by Doug Finch, forest district ranger, who is assigned to the forest supervisors office in Medford.

A fire crew boss training program was given to members of the Prospect district recently as part of the service's fire preparedness training program.

In other news of the Prospect district:

Toivo Sober, forester, is being transferred to Monte Vista, Colorado, headquarters of the Rio Grande National Forest. He will be heading up the recreation planning for the forest.

Tree planting has started in the Prospect district. The district intends restocking about 500 acres this spring. This includes rehabilitation of a part of the old Peavine burn.

The engineering work on the Prospect High school athletic field and the grade school playground was accomplished by labor donated by the Prospect Ranger district's engineering department. The purpose of this work was to prepare for turfing the football

Mail Tribune Table Rock Correspondent

Table Rock—We attended the Roosevelt Memorial dinner last Saturday night, and it seemed to us there was a larger crowd than usual. We were glad to hear Larry Sheehan state there would be no smoking allowed. However, before the close of the meeting, we noticed and scented a couple of pipes, and a few women and men sneaking out some lighted cigarettes. We wonder if smokers realize how incompatible it is to non-smokers to sit in a hall with closed doors and windows breathing air that is polluted with second hand cigarette smoke.

The usual highly interesting program was carried out, with many outstanding numbers, all of which brought back to us the hectic days of the early thirties when F.D.R. said: "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." This not only lit the spark of hope and faith to go forward in our country, but also in many other nations. Senator McCarthy the guest of honor, and speaker, proved to be an excellent speaker, throwing in bits of humor as he went along. After telling of the many things Senator Morse had done, and the times he had differed with proposals which were made only later to find he was right. He said there are many things he could do yet, that if there were, there would be no need to re-elect him. "Just as well elect a Republican," he said. At this remark a Republican lady across the table raised her eye brows but smiled. His introduction of Morse brought the audience to its feet with terrific applause that lasted several minutes. We would say that Senator Morse has lost none of his popularity, if anything, it has grown, and the man that beats him in his race for the senate will know that he has been in a horse race.

Several Attend Seemiller Funeral
Several from this area attended the Rulon Seemiller funeral at Memory Garden Monday. Mr. Seemiller often visited here with his daughter and family at the Elmo Stallings home, and lived several years in the Beagle district where he took an active part in social affairs, and was an active member of the Sams Valley Grange.

Stamping the name of the country where lumber is made would do no harm, but in our opinion, would have very little, if any, influence on the sale of lumber here. A few days ago we saw a workman nailing some beautiful hardwood boards on a wall. We asked him if that wasn't expensive lumber for that purpose. He said, no, this lumber came from Japan. We have seen people buy in hardware stores tools with the words made in Japan stamped on them.

The Amos Mapleson family, who have spent the past several months at the Hill orchards, have moved back to their farm in the Meadows district.

A nice newsy letter from Miss Linda Bishop at Bethel, Kan. who wants to know about changes and goings on at the Table Rock Community where the Bishop family resided for several years. So instead of a letter, we will send her a Mail Tribune. Yes, the old house is still in our back yard, the Corncrib is still near the Sage house, but there is a new three bedroom modern dwelling just across the road from the old pine tree. An addition is being made to the J. L. Nealon house, home of the Robert Dunns, and a two-room addition is being made to the Henry Rowell home, and a concrete foundation and new floor joists have been put under the former Sharp house, now owned by the Rowells. Two large buildings for rabbits are being built, one on the E. E. Robinson farm, and one on the E. W. Robinson farm. When completed they will house some 200 breeding rabbits.

The Sunday school is operating about as usual with the average attendance. On a recent Sunday we had Tom and Jerry with us. Tom Robinson and Jerry Dunn.

Oh, Those Phone Calls

Here of late we have received so many letters and telephone calls from insurance salesmen trying to sell us life insurance of all kinds. It makes us feel like Red Skelton, who recently said: the first thing he does in the morning is get the paper and look over the obituaries, and if his name isn't there he gets up and goes to work.

Mrs. Anna Jacobson, who is living with the George Jones family in Sams Valley, was a visitor here Wednesday. She asked us to thank for her the ladies who have sent her many lovely cards.

The local Sunday school is preparing a program for Easter Sunday to which all are invited.

Thought for the Day: Look to your health, and if you have it, praise God and value it next to a good conscience. Izaak Walton.

Cave Junction Council Seeks Street Repairs

Cave Junction—The city council passed a resolution requesting special funds to condition and repair a street in Cave Junction at its last meeting.

Appointment of the city budget committee was completed with Fred Salvage appointed to a three-year term. George Simmons was named to the committee to replace Bob Stiemer. Mrs. Beryl Hines and L. E. Pierson are the other committee members.

Accident Victim

O'Brien—Elbert Moore was the victim of unfortunate circumstances recently. He was chopping wood in the garage on his place and caught the axe in a coat hanging above on a rafter. The axe fell with force on his head.

Elbert with his head gushing blood, and a very frightened wife, went to Grants Pass, driving his own car, and got nine stitches to close the gash.

He was too weak from loss of blood to work the next day. All is going well now, however, and the stitches have been removed.

Visitor From Utah

Williams—Mrs. Annette Moulton, Ogden, Utah, is visiting with relatives in the Williams area. She is staying at the home of her sister and brother-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Booth Sr. Mrs. Harry

Speech Festival Planned Saturday

Central Point—Between 50 and 60 elementary and junior high school pupils in school district No. 6 will participate in the third annual speech festival at Crater high school tomorrow.

Participating pupils are from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades in Central Point, Gold Hill and Sams Valley.

Donald Lacey, speech instructor at Crater and director of the festival, explained that the event is not a contest. "There will be no winners or losers," he said. Each participant will receive a merit cup, and ribbons will be awarded for excellence.

School officials, Southern Oregon college professors and others will offer critiques of each speaker.

The participants will be divided into five categories: humorous reading, serious reading, oratorical declamation, poetry reading and debate. The debate will be on "Resolved: That the federal government should assist private industry."

Humorous reading: Joe Thomas, Shirley Kell, Patty
