UPI Writer Has Article in Look

Louis Cassels, religious news writer for United Press International, is the author of an article in the current issue of Look magazine.

The article, entitled, "The Rightist Crisis in Our Churches," reports on the crisis currently confronting American churches — particularly Protestant — as a result of attacks from radical Right Wingers. These attacks have accused churches of being infiltrated by Communists.

In the article Cassels reports on the people waging this campaign, describes their tactics, and documents the inaccuracy and unfairness of their charges.

The weekly UPI column by Cassels, "Religion in America," appears in the Medford Mail Tribune.

Apostolic Faith Schedules Variety of Easter Music For Four Services Sunday

The cantata, "From Darkness to Light," arranged from music of Tchaikowski, will highlight Easter services at the Apostolic Faith church. The Sunday school at 9:30 a.m. plans Easter music to be presented by the beginners and primary departments, under the direction of Mrs. William Withrow. Duane Jones will lead the entire group in singing. The verse recitation, "His Cross," will be given, and Becky Carver also will sing.

Baptisms Are Planned Sunday

"Love Conquers Death" is the title of the Easter sermon which the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach at both services Sunday morning at the First Christian church. There will be baptismal services at each worship hour.

At the first service the youth choir will sing "The Old Rugged Cross." At the 10:35 a.m. service the chancel choir will sing "There is a Green Hill Far Away" during the offertory and the women's chorus will sing the anthem "Easter Song."

There will be no Chi Rho or Christian Youth Fellowship activities Sunday evening.

The church bus will leave the church at 5 a.m. Sunday for anyone wanting transportation to the Easter Sunrise services on Huener's butte.

Dr. George Brewe will start a new series of Bible study classes on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. It will be on man's concept of God through the ages. Dr. Evans and the Rev. Wendell Wagner will attend a ministers' conference this week at Crestview. Thursday Mr. Evans will go to Eugene and speak at chapel services at Northwest Christian college.
