

Picard-Stevens Rites Held

An event of April 13 was the wedding of Miss Sharon Lyn Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lathel B. Stevens, Route 1, Box 57, Rogue River, and Gary Raymond Picard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Picard, 3400 Jacksonville highway, Medford.

The ceremony was held in Westminster Presbyterian church, 2000 Oakwood drive. The Rev. John O. Reynolds officiated at the eight o'clock evening service which was attended by 200 relatives and friends.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a white tulle dress with a white heart neckline, three-quarter length sleeves, and chapel train. Her elbow length veil was held by a petal coronet of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid.

The bride's honor attendant was her only sister, Mrs. David Hess, Astoria. She wore a pink and gold brocade sheath with matching cummerbund. Other attendants, who wore gold satin with cummerbunds of the same material as the honor attendant's dress, were Mrs. Larry McBe, Mrs. Billie Lane, and Miss Peggy Lou Schnack. All wore matching accessories and headbands and carried bouquets of coral carnations.

Best man was Larry Gohar. Ushers were Richard McLaughlin and William Wheat, both brothers-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mr. Lane, who also lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.

Little Terry Lyn McBe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry McBe, was dressed in pink taffeta for her role as flower girl, and Jack Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney H. Baker, Rogue River, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a bone and tan check dress with hat of matching material and bone accessories. Her corsage was of coral carnations. Mrs. Picard wore a blue and white brocade dress, blue hat and white accessories, and a corsage of pink baby rosebuds.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church. The tables were decorated with flowers of coral and greenery. Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Wheat, sisters of the bridegroom, served the cake and were in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Martin Schnack and Mrs. Harold McKenzie poured coffee and punch.
