

Luncheon Benefits Auxiliary

Forty guests attended a pre-Easter luncheon given by Mrs. Harry Fitzpatrick at her home at 2212 Buena Vista drive, Monday, April 16. Cohostess was Mrs. Joseph E. Barrett. The event was given as a benefit for the local auxiliary to the National Association of Letter Carriers.

Pink champagne was served to the guests at tables on the patio as they arrived by Mrs. Netta Rector. The guests then were escorted into the living and dining area decorated in an Easter theme, and luncheon, consisting of Chinese foods prepared by the hostess, was served. Mrs. Lynn Mathews assisted in serving and Mrs. Chester Ernst, who is Japanese, served tea. She was dressed in a traditional kimono and obi.

Tables were decorated with colorful Easter eggs which had been made especially by Mrs. Fitzpatrick and which were given as table prizes. An Easter cake in the form of an egg, also made by Mrs. Fitzpatrick, was given to Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

Featured at the luncheon were Easter hats decorated and worn by the guests.

Mrs. Budd Gail and Mrs. Chester Sillman acted as judges for the hats and selected the hat worn by Mrs. Carl Pearson as the prettiest. Mrs. Mathews as the funniest and Mrs. Elvin Boswell's as the most decorative.

A hat worn by Mrs. Malcolm Cady received a great deal of comment. The hat was designed with a small wire cage holding a live baby chicken.

Prom Date Announced

The Medford High school junior-senior prom is scheduled this year for May 3 at 8 p.m. in the boys' gymnasium. Mike Callan, a junior, is chairman for the event. The theme is being kept a secret.

The prom queen will be announced during the event.

Decorations will be directed by Miss Sherry Koblik.

Music will be furnished by the Bob Anderson quintet.

State President To Be Visitor; Recital Is Given

Mrs. Carla Wood Vincent, state president of the Oregon Music Teachers' association, will be in Medford for the May meeting of Rogue Valley Music Teachers.

Plans were made for her visit at the April meeting of the valley group at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Brown. Mrs. Darrell Huson presented her piano pupils in a suite "Adventures of Ivan" by Khachaturian.

Donald Bartlett of the Hedrick Junior High school band department directed a clarinet quartet and Miss Betty Gay Hoffman played an alto saxophone solo accompanied by Miss Signe Lusk at the piano.

Pupils of Mrs. Oluf M. Oleson, Mrs. Karl Peterson, Mrs. Huson, Mrs. Brown, Sister Miriam Joseph, Sister Mary Laurence and Sister Maria Barbara, were presented in a program April 15 by the Rogue Valley Music Teachers.

To Nominate

Nomination of officers is slated for the next meeting of the auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles to be held Thursday, April 26 at 8 p.m. in the Eagle hall, 217 West Main street.

Four of the guests who attended a pre-Easter luncheon last Monday at the home of Mrs. Harry Fitzpatrick, 2212 Buena Vista drive, are shown wearing hats which they decorated especially for the occasion. The hat worn by Mrs. Elvin Boswell (far left) was judged as most decorative. Next to Mrs. Boswell is Mrs. Carl Pearson, whose hat was considered the prettiest. With them (continuing to the right) are Mrs. John Lisac, and Mrs. Arthur Johnson of Ashland. Mrs. Joseph E. Barrett was cohostess with Mrs. Fitzpatrick for the luncheon which was given as a benefit for the auxiliary to the National Association of Letter Carriers. Guests were served pink champagne at tables preceding the luncheon in the Fitzpatrick home, which was decorated in the Easter theme. (Knackstedt photo)

Glittering Jewel Display Thursday; ACS Benefit

A glittering display of valuable jewels in modern settings will lend sparkle to the Starlight room of the Rogue Valley Country club on Thursday, April 26, when the American Cancer society will sponsor a silver tea and jewel-rama. The jewelry will be on display from 2 to 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock in the evening, so that both men and women may view it.

Oscar Heyman and company of New York City, manufacturing jewelers, are bringing the collection to Medford with the cooperation of Brophy's Jewelers of Medford and Skele's Jewelers of Eugene.

"Throughout the world, the exquisite beauty of Heyman jewelry has been known to those who recognize true artistic perfection," the sponsoring jewelers state. "A Heyman original symbolizes the ultimate in taste and elegance, with each creation perpetuating the noblest traditions of fine jewelry. Without exception, the Heyman designers and artisans are known for their skill and devotion to their work. They are masters of a craft in which there are few masters."

Pendant necklaces, brooches, rings, earrings, and bracelets will be shown, many of them designed in platinum and set with diamonds. Some pieces will be emphasized with other precious stones—rubies, emeralds, and sapphires.

Teatime delicacies will be served to guests during both showings, and a number of honored guests will preside at the two tea tables during the afternoon and evening. They will be Mrs. Walter Garner, Mrs. Robert DeLorme, Mrs. Chester Hubbard, Mrs. Earl Lawson, Mrs. Raymond Miksche, Mrs. Hanley Heffernan, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mrs. Mal-
