

Grange News

Central Point Grange
A varied program was presented preceding the regular meeting of Central Point Grange Friday, April 20.

Mrs. James Cornutt, lecturer arranged the program. It included a reading by Mrs. O. T. Willson; several excerpts of Easter celebrations in other lands given by members; tableaux depicting the Easter story with reader of the scripture, Mrs. Dee Hendrickson; clarinet solo by Judy Frink, and solo by Mrs. Fred Kuest. Children of the Grange giving readings were Valerie Bohnert, Cindy Barber, John Frink, Darrell Bohnert played a piano solo.

The standing committee reported on many matters of interest to farmers, during the business session. Home economics club chairman Mrs. Morris Frink announced the next meeting of the club.

Final plans for the Candidate Night were made, and Mrs. Gaston Floux, chairman of the event, asked all members to invite their neighbors and friends to attend and meet the candidates. Each Grange woman is asked to take a cake.

The event starts at 8 p.m. Friday, April 27. The public is invited to attend. Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bohnert and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bohnert were the serving committee for the evening.

The Eight Crazy Stitches 4-H meeting was recently held at the home of Mrs. Huggdahl. The meeting was called to order by Sharon Huggdahl, secretary and the minutes were read and approved. Roll call was given and three were absent. We had three visitors, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Lind and Mrs. Vandagriff.

We had a judging contest of articles that had been finished since the last meeting. During the discussion, we planned what articles we would enter in the fair. We took in two new members who are Margaret Goodwin and her sister, Martha Ann. The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments were served.

The Eagle Point Ranchers 4-H club met recently and the meeting was called to order by our vice president, Darrell Dowell. Our junior leader, Carl Johnson gave a talk on rabbits and asked us all to learn the parts of a rabbit as we will be tested on it at the next meeting.

Our leader, Mr. Dowell, talked to us about record books and passed out new record book sheets. The meeting was adjourned.

Griffin Creek
The Griffin Creek Grange will hold its social meeting of the month Thursday, April 26, at 6:30 p.m. starting with a potluck supper. Cards and games will be played afterwards.

All residents of the community are invited to attend. Those attending are reminded to take their own table service.

Master Jack Bierma presided at the last meeting of the Grange. Balloting for state Grange officers and committee reports were made. A talk was given on the proposed Jackson county home rule charter.

4-H News

Ruch Woolies
The Ruch Woolies Sheep 4-H club held their fourth meeting April 11 at Margaret Cantrall's home. We had a short meeting. We also had a new member. Her name is Dawn Merickel.

Dick will have a report and Margaret told us to learn the 4-H pledge. We will have two tests, one on parts of a sheep, and another on naming and describing five breeds of sheep.

The next meeting will be held at Cantrall's home at 7 p.m. on May 2. Refreshments were served by Mary Ann Cantrall.

Jacksonville Club

The meeting of the Jacksonville Livestock 4-H club was called to order by President Mary Cantrall. The flag salute and 4-H pledge were led by Pam Dunlap and Glenna Logan. Old business was the pop bottle drive. The one who collected the most pop bottles won a prize. Mary Cantrall won the prize. It was a $2 gift certificate.

New business was the Jacksonville Parent Teacher association asked our club to lead them in the flag salute. Chuck and Glenna Logan gave a demonstration on judging and selecting a hog. Dana Dunlap led us in a song.

Refreshments were served by the Logans, and the meeting was adjourned.
