

Reception Honors Newlywed Couple

Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Pletsch of Monroe, Ore., who are newly married, were honored at a reception April 21 at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Pletsch, 18 Williamette avenue. The bride is the former Miss Marilee Ann Edmiston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edmiston, Eugene. The wedding was an event of April 14 in Eugene.

About 80 guests attended the reception held at the Pletsch home. The rooms were decorated in pink and white and the reception table was covered with a pink cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink tulips, white stocks and doves.

Serving were Mrs. H. J. Casson, Mrs. P. R. Schuler, Mrs. Grover Corum, Mrs. William E. Frake and Mrs. S. S. Poirier.

Mr. and Mrs. Pletsch went north for the wedding which was held in the Eugene First Baptist church at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Marvin Webster officiated. The bride was escorted by Earl McNutt, her great-uncle.

Her attendants were Miss Lou Elsa Voegtly, Medford, maid of honor; Miss Barbara Janzig, Eugene; Miss Gladys Kafoury of Portland, Mrs. Elmer Keller of Eugene, and Miss Jean Pletsch, the bridegroom's sister.

The bride's gown was designed with a bodice of Belgian lace and Italian neckline. Appliques of lace trimmed the full tulle skirt. She wore a veil of silk illusion held from a lace shell cap embroidered with seed pearls. Her pearls were a gift from the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

The attendants wore gowns of pink organza over taffeta with velvet belts and headbands. All carried bouquets of white carnations.

Jeanne Perry was flower girl and she also wore a gown of pink organza. Michael McNutt carried the rings.

Gary Fendell was best man and seating the guests were Jeff Turay, Elmer Keller, Scott Phillips, Medford, and Robert Edmiston, Lowell Chase sang and Mrs. Charles Roffe was accompanist.

At the reception in the Rhoda McNutt room, Mrs. Wilbur Williams of Oakridge, aunt of the bride, cut the bride's cake; Mrs. Arthur Caloway, Mrs. Rudy Ness and Mrs. Stanley Summers served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Ralph Gibbs poured and Mrs. Amos Gilmour served punch. Miss Molly McNutt had the guest book and Miss Katherine Williams and Mrs. Gary Richardson attended the gifts.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Edmiston wore a beige lace jacket dress with flowered hat, and Mrs. Pletsch was dressed in a light green ensemble of satin-back shantung. Their corsages were of carnations and stephanotis.

Others from Medford who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Ruegger, James and Bill Frake, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wonderly.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding was the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. A. D. Byram of Kelso, Wash.

Both young people are University of Oregon graduates and both were majors in music. The bride, a pianist, is a member of the Mu Phi Epsilon sorority, and the bridegroom is affiliated with Phi Mu Alpha, Sinfonia; both are music honor societies. The bride was graduated last March and the bridegroom was a 1961 graduate. Since that time he has been teaching in Monroe High school. He is a Medford High school graduate. At the close of the teaching year he will leave for Air Force officer's training school. The bridegroom's social fraternity is Tau Kappa Epsilon.

May Day Tea Slated

Hospital Week Events Announced; Tea Planned

Present day hospital care represents a unique combination of science and personal attention, Charles I. Gustafson, administrator of Rogue Valley Memorial hospital, said today on the opening of National Hospital week.

"Scientific advances have been translated into life-saving equipment, medications, and medical techniques," Mr. Gustafson said, "but they are passed on to the patient only because physicians, nurses, and other medical personnel are present to use them."

National Hospital week will be observed locally from April 30 to May 4. This year's theme, "Your hospital... uniting science and patient care," points out that each person who enters a hospital

Kindergarten to Benefit From Champagne Supper

Dinner and dancing, a style show, and a "surprise" entertainment, all in an exciting Peppermint Lounge environment, will be enjoyed by guests attending the champagne supper sponsored by the Medford Junior Service league. Scheduled for Saturday, May 5, at the Rogue Valley Country club, the event will benefit the league's kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children.

In a setting of pink and white peppermint striped poles, a gossamer orchestra canopy, and pink starbursts, guests will be transported to the league's own version of the well-known Peppermint Lounge in New York.

During dinner, which will be served at 8 o'clock, league members will model the latest in fashion and elegance from Mann's, Burelson's, and Jean Hart's stores.

Members of the supper committee are keeping the entertainment a secret and announcing only that it will be "most unusual and a delightful surprise."

A six-piece orchestra under the direction of John Lusk will provide music for dancing during the evening.

The Junior Service league's kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children, located at Priddy and McAndrews road in Medford, is in its ninth year of operation.

During this time more than 40 children have been helped to hear and speak through training in lip-reading and speech and through the use of hearing aids, to utilize residual hearing. Currently there are 12 children enrolled
